Religious Revitalization Among the Kiowas Benjamin R. Kracht, 2018-04 Framed by theories of syncretism and revitalization Religious Revitalization among the Kiowas examines changes in Kiowa belief and ritual in the final decades of the nineteenth century During the height of the horse and bison culture Kiowa beliefs were founded in the notion of daudau a force permeating the universe that was accessible through vision quests Following the end of the Southern Plains wars in 1875 the Kiowas were confined within the boundaries of the Kiowa Comanche Apache Plains Apache Reservation As wards of the government they witnessed the extinction of the bison herds which led to the collapse of the Sun Dance by 1890 Though prophet movements in the 1880s had failed to restore the bison other religions emerged to fill the void left by the loss of the Sun Dance Kiowas now sought daudau through the Ghost Dance Christianity and the Peyote religion Religious Revitalization among the Kiowas examines the historical and sociocultural conditions that spawned the new religions that arrived in Kiowa country at the end of the nineteenth century as well as Native and non Native reactions to them A thorough examination of these sources reveals how resilient and adaptable the Kiowas were in the face of cultural genocide between 1883 and 1933 Although the prophet movements and the Ghost Dance were short lived Christianity and the Native American Church have persevered into the twenty first century Benjamin R Kracht shows how Kiowa traditions and spirituality were amalgamated into the new religions creating a distinctive Kiowa identity

A Genealogy of Dissent: Southern Baptist Protest in the Twentieth Century David Stricklin, Between the Civil War and the turn of the last century Southern Baptists gained prominence in the religious life of the South As their power increased they became defenders of the racial political social and economic status quo By the beginning of this century however a feisty tradition of dissent began to appear in Southern Baptist life as criticism of the center increased from both the left and the right The popular belief in a doctrine of once saved always saved led progressive Baptists to claim that moderates once saved did not address the serious social and political problems that faced many in the South These Baptist dissenters claimed that they could not be at ease in Zion Led by the radical Walter Nathan Johnson in the 1920s and 1930s progressive Baptists produced civil rights advocates labor organizers women's rights advocates and proponents of disarmament and abolition of capital punishment They challenged some of the most fundamental aspects of southern society and of Baptist ecclesiastical structure and practice For their efforts and beliefs many of these men and women suffered as they lost jobs experienced physical danger and injury and endured character assassination In A Genealogy of Dissent David Stricklin traces the history of these progressive Baptists and their descendants throughout the twentieth century and shows how they created an active culture of protest within a highly traditional society Recreating Utopia in the Desert Hans A. Baer, 1988-01-01 Recreating Utopia in the Desert A Sectarian Challenge to Modern Mormonism is the account of a millenarian sect officially known as the Aaronic Order one of the main splinter groups of the Mormon Church Their story tells us much about the social tensions particularly along class lines that have emerged in Mormonism The Aaronic Order or Levites emerged as the Mormon Church evolved from a religious utopia in the Midwest to a near nation state in the Intermountain West to finally an international theocratic corporation Drawing upon the concept of revitalization movements the Levite sect is viewed as an attempt by working class Mormons to resurrect the communitarian ideals they perceived as characteristic of earlier nineteenth century Mormonism From their beginnings in the Depression the Levites have developed a series of cooperative and communal ventures in Utah based upon the revelations of Maurice Glendenning We see in the Levites the seemingly inevitable processes of institutionalization and fission characterizing revitalization movements that survive By explaining the impetus for the development of sectarian groups such as the Levites the author offers important insights for the discussion of religious communitarianism and schismatic movements in contemporary religion Schools and Urban Revitalization Kelly L. Patterson, Robert Mark Silverman, 2013-10-08 New research in community development shows that institutions matter Where the private sector disinvests from the inner city public and nonprofit institutions step in and provide engines to economic revitalization and promote greater equity in society Schools and Urban Revitalization collects emerging research in this field with special interest in new school neighborhood partnerships that lead today s most vibrant policy responses to urban blight The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle, 2008-11-28 A Who s Who of Western culture from Woody Allen to Emile Zola Containing four hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley with John Ruskin is Salman Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping rubs shoulders with Jacques Derrida as do Julia Kristeva and Kropotkin With its global reach The Concise New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing as well as an index of names and key terms Cursillo Brian V. Janssen, 2010-01-01 Since its inception in Roman Catholic Spain in the 1940s the Cursillo movement has been a steadily growing phenomenon and has spread into many Protestant churches worldwide under various names The weekend initiation is often a deeply felt experience that boasts of many conversions and recommitments Yet in this comprehensive analysis of Cursillo the author finds theological concerns questions about the propriety of the methods and complications such as disaffection from the local church transfer of loyalty to the Cursillo community and a significant drop out rate raising implications for similar spiritual movements Interviews with former Cursillo participants confirmed many of these

conclusions but also raised a challenge to the church many Cursillo participants do not perceive vital faith in their local church The author suggests that the Cursillo attempts to imitate the work of the church in an extraordinary form and that this might initiate some of the unhelpful results The church would be better served by seeking to revitalize its ordinary ministries of Word and sacrament prayer community and Sabbath observance New Makers of Modern Culture Justin Wintle,2016-04-22 New Makers of Modern Culture will be widely acquired by both higher education and public libraries Bibliographies are attached to entries and there is thorough cross referencing Asian Revitalization Katie Cummer,2021-01-11 Adaptive reuse refers to reusing an old building for a purpose other than which it was originally built or designed This conservation approach has become increasingly popular around the world However there are few publications that focus on its application in Asia This book fills this gap by looking at both unique and shared aspects of adaptive reuse in three Asian urban centers Hong Kong Shanghai and Singapore Building on government policy documents and extensive field work this book contextualizes adaptive reuse in each city and reveals the impetus behind a wide range of projects from revitalization in Hong Kong commercial development in Shanghai to community building in Singapore The introductory chapter sets adaptive reuse within an international perspective noting salient differences and similarities between Asia and other parts of the world It also anchors the discussion within a regional perspective focusing on the similarities and differences between Hong Kong Shanghai and Singapore Each of the following four essays addresses a specific topic about adaptive reuse including its relationship to urban development and sustainability how it benefits heritage buildings and how it reveals best practices in heritage conservation in Asia The subsequent three essays one for each city supplemented with timelines set out a clear framework for understanding the city specific case studies that follow the essays Afterwards fifteen representative projects across the three cities are presented as in depth case studies The pairing of essays and case studies provides a detailed understanding of each city s approach to adaptive reuse in the twenty first century a time when the need for sustainable development solutions are at the forefront Intended for classroom use and professional readership this book will be of considerable value in Asia as well as elsewhere providing material for stimulating and worthwhile discussion Asian Revitalization is a highly practical and accessible volume on the long established conservation practice of adaptive reuse in East Asia Its focus on real life issues examples and challenges posed by revitalization programs in the region is extremely relevant to researchers and practitioners in architectural conservation urban design and urban studies Miles Glendinning University of Edinburgh Scotland This is a superb well documented and original book written by some of the best known and highly respected authors in the field of heritage conservation The carefully examined case studies illustrate a wide variety of solutions that highlight the work of some of the best minds of the next generations Alastair Kerr University of Victoria Canada This is a most interesting set of essays informative and thought provoking The best way to save any heritage building is by keeping it in beneficial use and how to achieve this in a sensitive manner is what these essays are about They should be
