Revolution and Other Essays London, Jack, 2016-09-28 American journalism has its moments of fantastic hysteria and when it is on the rampage the only thing for a rational man to do is to climb a tree and let the cataclysm go by And so some time ago when the word nature faker was coined I for one climbed into my tree and stayed there I happened to be in Hawaii at the time and a Honolulu reporter elicited the sentiment from me that I thanked God I was not an authority on anything This sentiment was promptly cabled to America in an Associated Press despatch whereupon the American press possibly annoyed because I had not climbed down out of my tree charged me with paying for advertising by cable at a dollar per word the very human way of the American press which when a man refuses to come down and be licked makes faces at him

Revolution, and Other Essays (Annotated) Jack London, 2016-06-15 A collection of 13 essays written between 1900 and 1908 published in 1910 The lead essay Revolution outlines how and why London renounced capitalism as a failed social system and declared himself an active participant in the socialist revolution the last essay is an autobiographical piece and the essays in between are on diverse subjects A few of the essays are actually humorous short fiction stories others are serious sometimes angry rants against capitalistic greed and political corruption All of the pieces are thought provoking and excellently written
