Revolution In Leadership Training Apostles For Tomorrows Church:

Revolution in Leadership Reggie McNeal, 1998 Provides information on ways the church can recruit train and commission new leaders The Ongoing Role of Apostles in Missions Don Dent, 2019-02-15 Numerous trends are presently converging in ways that make this moment in mission history significant These include the growth of short term service the multiplication of mission organizations local churches sending missionaries without an agency and the internationalization of missions It is crucial in the midst of such change that we not lose connection with the New Testament model of the missionary apostles Apostles now commonly called missionaries are God's gift for the initial planting phase of the church among every people to the end of the age This unique church planting role is the forgotten foundation of the church Much of the ineffectiveness in missions is due to our attempts to build Christ's church on a different foundation This book will examine five critical questions from the perspective of biblical scholarship history and contemporary experience Why are missions minded Evangelicals reluctant to identify missionaries as apostles considering that the two words have the same root meaning How is apostolos used in the New Testament and specifically is it sometimes used as a designation for missionaries How should we conceptualize an ongoing role for missionary apostles that does not detract from the crucial unique role of the original Apostles What ministry pattern does the New Testament record from the lives of the early missionary apostles How should an awareness of missionary apostles guide our mission efforts today

The Trinitarian Dance Sharon Tam, 2015-02-02 The Trinitarian Dance presents a model of leadership development based on the Holy Trinity Part one analyzes the present state of the cultural and ecclesiastical situation in Canada identifying specific trends and aspects relating to the need for development of effective leadership in the church This section sets the stage for Part two where a theology of trinitarian leadership is developed based on the dynamic of perichoresis with the motif of a dance used to present a paradigm of transformational leadership Part three offers church based strategies for leadership development concluding with a creative application of the doxological formula that captures the thrust of the entire book and leads it to a finale that includes a benediction of hope for the church through this leadership model

Practicing Greatness Reggie McNeal, 2010-05-20 From an author and ministry consultant seven practices for taking your religious leadership from good to great Often spiritual leaders do not aspire to greatness for fear of seeming to lack humility Yet greatness in spiritual leadership is just what we need in our churches our businesses in education in the social sector in every sector of society The question is how do good spiritual leaders become great leaders Based on his extensive experience as coach and mentor to many thousands of Christian leaders across a broad spectrum of ministry settings Reggie McNeal helps spiritual leaders understand that they will self select into or out of greatness McNeal shows how great spiritual leaders are committed intentionally to seven spiritual disciplines habits of heart and mind that shape both their character and competence The discipline of self awareness the single most important information a leader possesses The discipline of self management handling difficult emotions expectations temptations as well as mental and physical well being The discipline of self development a life long commitment to learning and growing and building on one s strengths The discipline of mission maintaining the sense of God s purpose in your life The discipline of decision making knowing the elements of good decisions and learning from failure The discipline of belonging nurturing relationships and living in community with others The discipline of aloneness the intentional practice of solitude and contemplation Practicing Greatness is a hard hitting leadership book from the Foreword by Ken Blanchard author of The One Minute Manager and Lead Like Jesus Lessons from the Greatest Leadership Role Model of All Time The Forensic Case For Five Fold Leadership Melvin T. Hayes,2022-04-26

At Jesus s birth angels rejoiced singing Glory to God in the highest and on earth peace among men Luke 2 14 Satan on the other hand trembled for he suspected the reason for Jesus s arrival He came to destroy the devil s work 1 John 3 8 When humanity crucified God s Son Satan believed the turn of events tipped in his favor So he thought The Forensic Case for Fivefold Leadership reveals how the Lord has gifted his people with supernatural tools to prepare God s people for works of service so that the body of Christ may be built up until we all reach unity in the faith and in the knowledge of the Son of God and become mature Eph 4 12 13 NIV Kingdom Come Reggie McNeal,2015-04-16 There s a reason Jesus taught us to pray Thy Kingdom come and not Thy church come The church clearly plays an important role in God s plans It was established by Christ and he is its Head But have we put too much emphasis on the church Have we confused a means of participating in God s Kingdom with the Kingdom itself In Kingdom Come church ministry consultant Reggie McNeal reveals why it s crucial to realign the church s mission with God s ultimate Kingdom agenda You ll discover how you can get in on and help lead the Kingdom movement currently underway Join the mission to help the Kingdom break into our hearts and break out into the world Leading Missional Change Paul J. Dunbar,Tony Blair,2013-04-02

It seems that nearly everyone is talking about missional change for congregations As a result many church leaders are attempting to drive that kind of change for the ministries they lead Some succeed But many others hit a wall of considerable frustration as they find that congregations resist the very change that is so needed The reasons for this resistance are many and they are explored in this volume What is required to move a church from resistance to readiness Some resistance is deeply rooted in spiritual patterns But there are other reasons as well and they center on trust personal trust in the leaders who offer missional change For this work the authors have done extensive primary and secondary research to identify patterns and behaviors that invite missional leadership More than that they ve lived this out in their own ministries as pastors of traditional congregations This book thus offers compelling first person stories and congregational case studies alongside more generalized findings Leading Missional Change was written to support pastors and other church leaders who experience resistance to share wisdom and experience that may lead to readiness and to give hope and encouragement toward a re energizing of your own congregation

We are in a real sense our stories Who we are what we think and how we act are all shaped by the many large and small stories that make up the discourse embedded in our multi sensory social experience It is this postmodern understanding of identity and reality that has prompted the authors to fashion a new way of thinking about doing research in faith communities today particularly through a Doctor of Ministry program It is our belief that in order for faith communities to define themselves and to know what to do in ministry they must first understand the multiple stories which intersect with a given ministry situation in their specific context

Reverse Mentoring Earl Creps, 2008-10-14 Earl Creps is known for his work in connecting the younger generation of postmoderns with their Boomer predecessors The author of Off Road Disciplines Creps in this new book takes up the topic of how older church leaders can learn from younger leaders who are more conversant with culture technology and social context In addition to making the benefits of what he calls reverse mentoring apparent he also makes it accessible by offering practical steps to implement this discipline at both personal and organizational levels particularly in communication evangelism and leadership Creps new book is a topic of interest both inside and outside the church as older leaders realize that they're not getting it when it comes to technologies iPod IM blogging or cultural issues such as the fact that younger people see the world in an entirely different way Creps has been personally involved in reverse mentoring for several years and has spoken and written on the subject extensively He has pastored three churches one Boomer one Builder on X'er and is currently a church planter in Berkeley California He has also served as a consultant and a seminary professor and administrator holding a PhD in Communication Studies and a D Min from the Assemblies of God Theological Seminary

Biblical Pastors Were Not and Are Not CEOs. James D. Martin, 2020-06-02 The emergence of the pastor Chief Executive Officer CEO position in churches today has become widely acceptable in Mega and Meta churches Recent studies have not explored this issue David Fisher acknowledges that in the 21st century being a pastor presents major challenges because it leads to professional and personal identity crisis resulting from secular and ecclesial challenges Studies have supported the idea that there is the need for church leaders to adopt the secular models of leadership and several noted authors have shown that churches today have become like other organizations that have to market their products This is a problematic interpretation because leadership in modern churches has gone beyond the biblical and theological definitions of becoming shepherds of their flock and servants of God In the search for an effective pastoral leadership role this paper will explore the contemporary definition of pastoral leadership and compare it with what the scriptures say concerning the elders and servants of God assigned the duty of being shepherds of their flock

Faith and Caring in the Global Village Georges Jonas Georges, Jonas Georges, 2009-12 Faith and Caring in the Global Village is about pastoral care and Christian spirituality in the age of an ever shrinking interdependent world It is a call to action that delves into the current argument about the necessity for the Church to embrace the mission based paradigm in the ecclesial communities that are eager to have their say in the way the good news is communicated to them and to others It speaks especially to the historical denominations that are still reluctant to do away with deep seated traditions and social racial status Listening to the current tone of the debate one would think that only scientists and politicians are responsible for the problems humans face and therefore they and they alone have the moral obligation and capacity to propose solutions for the resulting challenges and lay out a set of plans to deliver us from annihilation Although they have an important role to play the exemplary conduct of many of Christ s followers and the results of the teaching in many Christian communities points in a different direction the Church In the final analysis the appropriate response to the call for relevancy leads to the understanding and acceptance of diversity in people culture and in practice and to unity in purpose
