from Dak To Warren M. Denny, 2003-08-03 The author fanaticized about combat and played war games in his youth War is not a game Combat wasn't this fantasy for him in real life This book tells the story of a Kansas boy who grew up quickly serving as a combat platoon leader in the Vietnam War It shares his exploits with A Company 4 503 173 Airborne Brigade His platoon was very unlucky in the June November 1967 campaign as the Fire Brigade took on the NVA in Dak To His actions are reported in at least two documentary books dealing with individual firefights in the Central Highlands during that period This is the unpolished truth about the brutal war and how really futile it was to go toe to toe against a better prepared army and survive The author gives unembellished reports of what his unit experienced and backs it up with the Battalion After Action Reports He acknowledges he is alive today only because of superior tactical air support and artillery firepower This book gives an entirely different viewpoint than most books authored by Vietnam veterans While his observations may be controversial to some vets it reflects the author's objective opinion of what he experienced there A Long Journey Home

Long Journey Robert Luis Rabello,2009-12-23 As a brutal civil war encroaches on the Tamarian border Garrick Ravenwood undertakes officer training in preparation to stop the humanitarian crisis Brenna Velez the girl he loves worries that the civil war will destroy her family s estate and their high tech light forges Meanwhile Garrick s younger brother Algernon travels to war torn Kameron to find and rescue his wayward twin sister The Crafting of Chaos Hildegard Kuester,1994 In this study of the Canadian novelist Margaret Laurence recent narratological models provide the theoretical framework for a textual analysis that aims at complementing previous thematic critiques The chief focus is on The Stone Angel and The Diviners which the conclusion then presents in the context of the other novels in Laurence s Manawaka cycle Consideration of the published works is rounded off with genetic comparison of the novelist s typescript drafts and an evaluation of the manuscript notes kept in the archives of McMaster and York Universities The central structural principle of The Stone Angel is its dovetailing of past and present scenes Temporal arrangement reflecting the frequency and duration of Hagar s memories reveals the hold of memory over the central character and her attempts to suppress her fear of mortality Hagar as narrator manipulates character presentation and description to her own advantage In a basically oppositional structure her need for control is reflected in the neat ordering of the narrative The verbal texture of the novel serves to establish a value system that insists on the superiority of imported culture over Western Canadian forms The Diviners shares a number of narrative similarities with The Stone Angel but the latter s formal rigidity has yielded by the time Laurence writes her last novel to the concept of multiplicity characters time planes perspectives and narrative voices including metafictional commentaries Textual coherence is secured via narrative strategies including typography generational paradigms repetition parallelism intertextuality and tropological patterning that render the novel readable and present experience as ordered in a time of cultural flux and personal crisis The Long Journey Back Linda Penninga,2007-12-11 The Civil War is over and the South is reeling from the loss and devastation of the war Colleen and Steven must now travel from Virginia to their home in Georgia The road is fraught with hardship and peril from bear attacks and cave dwellers to Unionists out for revenge Even after reaching home their journey does not end They are faced with the struggles of rebuilding their home dealing with devastating losses finding their place in a new South and mending what the war has torn apart It is a time of reconstruction Black Codes and the emergence of the Ku Klux Klan This is the story of the South and its people rising from the ashes of war the journey back from grief death and adversity
