Look Closer David R. Coon, 2013-12-17 In recent years the media landscape in the United States has followed a pattern similar to that of the physical landscape by becoming increasingly suburbanized Although it is a far cry from reality the fantasy of a perfect suburban life still exists in the collective imagination of millions of Americans This dream of suburban perfection is built around a variety of such ideologically conservative values and ideals as the importance of tradition the centrality of the nuclear family the desire for a community of like minded neighbors the need for clearly defined gender roles and the belief that with hard work and determination anyone can succeed Building on the relationships between suburban life and American identity Look Closer examines and interprets recent narratives that challenge the suburban ideal to reveal how directors and producers are mobilizing the spaces of suburbia to tell new kinds of stories about America David R Coon argues that the myth of suburban perfection popularized by postwar sitcoms and advertisements continues to symbolize a range of intensely debated issues related to tradition family gender race and citizenship Through close examinations of such films as American Beauty The Truman Show and Mr Mrs Smith as well as such television series as Desperate Housewives Weeds and Big Love the book demonstrates how suburbia is used to critique the ideologies that underpin the suburban American Dream

It Looks Like This Rafi Mittlefehldt,2016-09-06 In spare understated prose heightened by a keen lyricism a debut author will take your breath away A new state a new city a new high school Mike's father has already found a new evangelical church for the family to attend even if Mike and his plainspoken little sister Toby don't want to go Dad wants Mike to ditch art for sports to toughen up but there's something uneasy behind his demands Then Mike meets Sean the new kid and hey becomes games of basketball partnering on a French project hanging out after school A night at the beach The fierce colors of sunrise But Mike's father is always watching And so is Victor from school cell phone in hand In guarded Carveresque prose that propels you forward with a sense of stomach dropping inevitability Rafi Mittlefehldt tells a wrenching tale of first love and loss that exposes the undercurrents of a tidy suburban world Heartbreaking and ultimately life affirming It Looks Like This is a novel of love and family and forgiveness not just of others but of yourself
