Safety Board,1972 The Brief and Turbulent Life of Modernising Conservatism Stuart Mitchell,2008-12-18 The Brief and Turbulent Life of Modernising Conservatism is an examination of government tensions and frustrations during a time of economic and social flux It concentrates on the development of domestic industrial policy in the Conservative Party between 1945 and 1964 with particular emphasis on Harold Macmillan s and Sir Alec Douglas Home s administrations Between the general elections of 1959 and 1964 the Conservative Government effected a series of striking and dangerously controversial policy transformations in response to its recognition of Britain s relative economic decline These adjustments were both practical and strategic The administration s aim was extraordinarily ambitious It sought to fashion a recognisably modern and dynamic yet socially stable nation that could retain its place in the international lite Thereby the Party hoped to ensure its own continuation in power The author considers policy innovations that included an ill starred attempt to join the European Community the development of macro economic planning and the abolition of resale price maintenance an exploit which roused the Tory Party to unusual heights of passion The book does not simply regurgitate an orthodox high political narrative Instead it investigates topics of interest to modern historians and political scientists alike It will be of value to anyone interested in questions of modern political ideology social and economic change the nature of popular political support or the constraints on state power in the post war world History of Soy Sauce (160 CE To 2012) William Shurtleff,Akiko Aoyagi,2012 Echoing Events Tina van der Vlies,2022-12-12 Echoing Events questions the perpetuation actualization and canonization of national narratives in English and Dutch history textbooks wide reaching media that tendentially inspire a sense of meaning memory and thus also identity The longitudinal study begins in the 1920s when the League of Nations launched several initiatives to reduce strong nationalistic visions in textbooks and ends in the new millennium with the revival of national narratives in both countries The analysis shows how and why textbook authors have narrated different histories which vary in terms of context epoch and place as echoing events by using recurring plots and the same combinations of historical analogies This innovative and original study thus investigates from a new angle the resistance of national narratives to change New York Supreme Court , Federal Support of Project Grants: Indirect Costs and Cost Sharing United States.
