Construction of Chinese Nationalism in the Early 21st Century Suisheng Zhao, 2014-07-25 Chinese nationalism is powered by a narrative of China's century of shame and humiliation in the hands of imperialist powers and calls for the Chinese government to redeem the past humiliations and take back all lost territories The continuing surge of Chinese nationalism in the early 21st century therefore has fed a roiling sense of anxiety in many political capitals about whether a virulent nationalism has emerged to make China rise anything but peaceful This book addresses this anxiety by examining the domestic sources and foreign policy implications of Chinese nationalism in the early 21st century It is divided into three parts Part I is an overview of the scholarly debate about if the rise of Chinese nationalism has driven China's foreign policy in a more irrational and inflexible direction in the first one and half decades of the 21st century Part II analyzes the construction of Chinese nationalism by a variety of domestic forces including the communist state the angry youth fen qing liberal intellectuals and ethnic groups Part III explores whether Chinese nationalism is affirmative assertive or aggressive through the case studies of China's maritime territorial disputes with Japan in the East China Sea and with several Southeast Asian countries in the South China Sea the border controversy over the ancient Koguryo with Korea and the cross Taiwan Strait relations This book was based on articles published in the Journal of Contemporary China

Megatrends in Global Interaction Bertelsmann Foundation (ed.), 2012-07-16 We inhabit an increasingly interconnected world yet too often policymakers and advisors view each issue in a vacuum focusing primarily on short term impacts All of us policymakers citizens and local and global communities must begin to consider how the major trends that shape our world are likely to develop and how they will intersect and influence

one another This volume is designed to explore and discuss correlations between these global trends or megatrends Global Governance Demographic Change and Migration Energy and Natural Resources Global Security Biodiversity and Economic Globalization The book s primary focus is to provide a qualitative overview of the trends and to analyze their intersections and interdependencies in the 21st century The authors hope it will help define some of the complex challenges and exciting opportunities to shaping a world of sustainable economies and societies

Rothwell,W. S. Walter Samuel Grono Bateman,2000-11-14 Navigational rights and freedoms have been central to the development of the law of the sea since the original debates over whether the seas were open or closed to maritime traffic The 1982 UN Convention on the Law of the Sea recognises the legitimate rights of coastal states to proclaim sovereignty and assert jurisdiction over vast areas of maritime space In return maritime states are given a range of navigational rights over waters ranging from the territorial sea through to the high sea The new regime of the law of the sea created by the Convention presents an opportunity to review developments in the law of navigational rights and freedoms This book assesses the navigational regime established by the 1982 Convention with emphasis given to the continuing importance of the freedom of the seas Navigation in the territorial sea and international straits is reviewed especially in the Straits of Malacca and Singapore and the Torres Strait Archipelagic navigation from the perspective of two claimant states Indonesia and the Philippines and a user state South Korea is also considered The interaction of environmental concerns with navigational rights is an important feature of the current law of the sea regime with relevant conventions assessed and the role of the International Maritime Organization in developing navigational standards considered Both European and Canadian practice in the protection of sensitive marine environments and the impact upon navigational rights is also considered Finally the roles of the International Tribunal for the Law of the Sea and the International Maritime Organization in dispute resolution are reviewed before a concluding consideration of the future for navigational rights and freedoms in the twenty first century Trajectory of the 21st Century Lawrence J. Terlizese,2009-01-10 Trajectory of the Twenty first Century explores what many prophets of the twentieth century such as Oswald Spengler Paul Tillich Aldous Huxley Jacques Ellul and others have predicted would transpire in the current century Their vision included an out of control technological system and a return to religious sentiment that will ultimately undermine the system to which it is reacting This book aims to accurately present their positions and draw certain logical conclusions from them that pertain to the course of history in our time The book s theme argues that modernity is a secularized version of millennial Christianity which reaches its fullest development in the twenty first century and will regress into what Russian philosopher Nicholas Berdyaev called the new Middle Ages or a new religious period This will mean the twilight of modern technological society as its values of rationalism give way to a postrationalist society Ironically decline will come through further technological advance Omnicide threatens through religious world war driven by transcendent values and modern weaponry Jihadist thinking and posthumanist technology both establish the omnicidal mentality New technologies such as genetic engineering and artificial intelligence created under millennial inspiration to reach for immortality could potentially bring an end to the human species either through a slow steady obsolescence or through environmental catastrophe The titanic forces of technological progress and regress are on a direct collision course in the twenty first century Congressional Record United States.
