Connors,Rémy Davison,Jörn Dosch,2017-10-30 Now in its new and fully updated third edition The New Global Politics of the Asia Pacific continues to provide a compelling analysis of a region undergoing dramatic changes Based on new research and offering fresh interpretation this edition evaluates the prospects for continuing US dominance in the Asian Century Whilst presenting evidence for a multifaceted Beijing Strategy which aims to counter the US by building an alternative regional order it also explains Japan's definitive departure from its limited military role Providing an introductory guide for the main frameworks needed to understand the region including realism liberalism and critical theory this new edition is reader friendly and offers sophisticated competing explanations Key content includes Intra regional conflicts in the South China Sea and the Korean peninsula The different responses within the Asia Pacific to the globalization of Western ideas of democracy and political economy The underappreciated success of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations in building a regional identity The European Union's soft power in the region A highly topical account which offers an overview of the main actors institutions and contemporary issues in the Asia Pacific the book will be essential reading for undergraduate students of

Asian Studies International Politics and anyone interested in the region Chinese Maritime Power in the 21st Century Hu Bo, 2019-08-23 This book analyses China's maritime strategy for the 21st century integrating strategic planning policy thinking and strategic prediction This book explains the construction and application of China's military political economic and diplomatic means for building maritime power and predicts the future of China's maritime power by 2049 as well as development trends in global maritime politics It explores both the strengths and the limitations of President Xi's Maritime Dream and provides a candid assessment of the likely future balance at sea between China and the United States This volume explains and discusses China's claims and intentions in the East and South China Seas and makes some recommendations for China's future policy that will lessen the chance of conflict with the United States and its closer neighbors This book will be of much interest to students of maritime strategy naval studies Chinese politics and International Relations in general The Future of U.S. Foreign Policy in Asia and the Pacific United States. Congress. House. Committee on International Relations. Subcommittee on International Economic Policy and Trade, 1996 Changing US Foreign Policy toward India Carina van de Wetering, 2016-10-26 This book uncovers how US India relations have changed and intensified during the administrations of Bill Clinton George Bush Jr and Barack Obama Throughout the Cold War US India relations were often distant and volatile as India mostly received attention at times of grave international crises but from the late 1990s onwards the US showed a more sustained interest in India How was this shift possible While previous scholarship has focused on the civilian nuclear deal as a turning point this book presents an alternative account for this change by analyzing how India's identity has been constructed in different terms after the Cold War It examines the underlying discourse and explains how this enables or constrains US foreign policymakers when they establish security policies with India and improve US India relations Institutional Balancing in the Asia Pacific Kai He, 2009 This book examines the strategic interactions among China the United States Japan and Southeast Asian States in the context of China's rise and globalization after the cold war Engaging the mainstream theoretical debates in international relations the author introduces a new theoretical framework institutional realism to explain the institutionalization of world politics in the Asia Pacific after the cold war Institutional realism suggests that deepening economic interdependence creates a condition under which states are more likely to conduct a new balancing strategy institutional balancing i.e. countering pressures or threats through initiating utilizing and dominating multilateral institutions to pursue security under anarchy To test the validity of institutional realism Kai He examines the foreign policies of the U.S. Japan the ASEAN states and China toward four major multilateral institutions Asia Pacific Economic Cooperation APEC the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN Regional Forum ARF ASEAN Plus Three APT and East Asian Summit EAS Challenging the popular pessimistic view regarding China's rise the book concludes that economic interdependence and structural constraints may well soften the dragon's teeth China's rise does not mean a dark future for the region Institutional Balancing in the Asia Pacific will be of great interest to policy makers and scholars of Asian security international relations Chinese foreign policy and U S foreign policy Twentieth Century International Relations: Whatever happened to the Pacific century? Michael Cox,2006 The European Union and East Asia Christopher M. Dent,1999-08-12 The world economy continues to be dominated by the Triad regions Europe North America and East Asia This text analyses the economic relationship that has evolved between two Triadic powers The EU and East Asia and its future prospects especially in the wake of the recent financial crises that have shaken the East Asian region This text argues China and East Asia's Post-Crises Community Wei Liang,Faizullah Khilji,2012-10-04 China and East Asia s Post Crises Community A Region in Flux by Wei Liang and Faizullah Khilji explores how an East Asian community is taking shape as a result of China s emergence as a global economic power and the shocks of the financial crises emanating from the globalized financial system Today s East Asia shows a sharp break from the East Asia of the Cold War era in both basis and orientation Important elements in this shift include the regional economic integration propelled by China s emergence as a processed manufacturing center in the world economy the common problems posed by the working of the dollar based international financial system and the desire to develop institutions that help to formalize the economic integration and financial cooperation that is taking place and may thus help protect and safeguard economic prosperity in the region Liang and Khilji show how the approach to regional economic cooperation and developing institutions comes from the bottom up lacking any leader nation grand vision or ideology The manner in which the region comes to work together also has implications for the governance of the world economy in particular the economic model that underlies policy formulation the working of the international financial system and the approach to the multilateral trading system From a security oriented US centric regional structure characterized as the hub and spokes system set up after the Second World War this region is now more nearly an informal economic community which increasingly appears to be China centric China and East Asia s Post Crises Community presents one of the first attempts to weave together different strands of the current discussion to develop a framework for understanding a rapidly evolving East Asia region
