Sharing Lights on the Way to God Pim Valkenberg,2006-01-01 This book seeks to give form to a theology that hyphenates two traditions that have not only been in constant conflict during most of their historical encounters but are also presented as opposite blocks in the threatening clash of civilizations at the beginning of the third millennium Islam and Christianity Based on experiences of dialogue between the three Abrahamic faiths this book analyzes historical and contemporary processes of interreligious dialogue between Christians and Muslims in order to arrive at a concept of dialogue as mutual emulation It shows how in their theologies of religious others Judaism Christianity and Islam have based their images of others on their self images This characteristic makes traditional theologies of religion quite unsuitable for interreligious dialogue Consequently the author of this book develops a model in which comparative theology and interreligious dialogue are connected by studying as a Christian theologian the theological and spiritual sources of his Muslim dialogue partners These exercises in comparative Muslim Christian theology comprise both the medieval Aquinas al Ghazali Rumi and the modern periods Said Nursi Fethullah G len Tariq Ramadan An interlude on Teresa of Avila s poem Nada te turbe shows how Christians may recover important insights from their own tradition by reading these Muslim theological and spiritual sources

Sugarman, 2019-09-01 A Levinasian commentary on the Torah The French philosopher Emmanuel Levinas 1906-95 was one of the most original Jewish thinkers of the twentieth century This book interprets the Hebrew Bible through the lens of Levinas's religious philosophy Richard I Sugarman examines the Pentateuch using a phenomenological approach drawing on both Levinas's philosophical and Jewish writings Sugarman puts Levinas in conversation with biblical commentators both classical and modern including Rashi Maimonides Sforno Hirsch and Soloveitchik He particularly highlights Levinas's work on the Talmud and the Holocaust Levinas's reading is situated against the background of a renewed understanding of such phenomena as covenant promise different modalities of time and justice The volume is organized to reflect the fifty-four portions of the Torah read during the Jewish liturgical year A preface provides an overview of Levinas's life approach and place in contemporary Jewish thought The reader emerges with a deeper understanding of both the Torah and the philosophy of a key Jewish thinker Sugarman rightly treats Levinas as a thoroughly Jewish religious thinker an approach to the great thinker that is much needed Taking such an approach he opens up new innovative horizons in Torah commentary and analysis Through a perceptive reading of Levinas through the biblical lens he offers an insightful illumination of both the Bible and Levinas Some may not be sure what to make of Sugarman's work here but then that is how it always is with innovative approaches David Patterson author of The Holocaust and the Nonrepresentable Literary and Photographic Transcendence The Metsudah Chumash/Rashi: Va-yikra Avrohom Yosef Davis, 1996 Revue biblique , 1992
