Mexico Charles Morris,1914 Texas Land Grants, 1750-1900 John Martin Davis, Jr.,2016-09-02 The Texas land grants were one of the largest public land distributions in American history Induced by titles and estates Spanish adventurers ventured into the frontier followed by traders and artisans West Texas was described as Great Space of Land Unknown and Spanish sovereigns wanted to fill that void Gaining independence from Spain Mexico launched a land grant program with contractors who recruited emigrants After the Texas Revolution in 1835 a system of Castilian edicts and English common law came into use Lacking hard currency land became the coin of the realm and the Republic gave generous grants to loyal first families and veterans Through multiple homestead programs more than 200 million acres had been deeded by the end of the 19th century The author has relied on close examination of special acts charters and litigation including many previously overlooked documents Miscellaneous Publication ,1938 Communities, Land and Social Innovation Pieter Van den Broeck,Asiya Sadiq,Ide Hiergens,Monica Quintana Molina,Han Verschure, Frank Moulaert,2020-05-29 This timely and thought provoking book examines the contemporary struggle of communities over land ownership and use rights in rapidly urbanising areas analysing 12 key case studies from across four continents Contributions from an international team of researchers policy analysts and experts explore both neoliberal urban development policies and socially innovative initiatives providing a state of the art reflection of the field and contributing to an agenda for future research policy and practice

Mexico John Howard,1982 Housing in the Aftermath of the Fast Track Land Reform Programme in Zimbabwe Lovemore Chipungu, Hangwelani Hope Magidimisha,2020-12-10 This book delves into the Fast Track Land Reform Programme FTLRP in Zimbabwe to provide insight into how it facilitated the delivery of housing for low income urban households It highlights the politics of land reforms and the power of community engagement in housing development in urban areas Prior to the FTLRP the Zimbabwean governments had never embraced popular modes of housing production as key factors in urban development In the area of low income housing informal housing schemes have always been treated with apathy and indifference This left the conventional mode of housing production to be the only legitimate means to house low income households despite its shortcomings However the onset of the FTLRP in 2000 resulted in homeless urban households grasping the opportunity to invade farms for housing development Through the lenses of Marxism and Neoliberalism this book analyses housing schemes that emerged and the overall impact of the FTLRP on housing and land delivery in Harare This analysis is based on empirical evidence obtained from key informants and household surveys conducted in Harare The authors argue that the FTLRP provided a platform for innovativeness by households supported by the unpronounced national urban vision and prowess of the political leadership Hence the success of these housing schemes can be measured by acquisition of land which guarantees households access to the city However some of these housing schemes pose challenges key among them being lack of infrastructure The book concludes by presenting a new model for effective delivery of land and housing for the urban poor This is envisaged as a useful policy tool for urban planners housing
