National Liberation:

National Liberation in Postcolonial Southern Africa Christian A. Williams, 2015-10-08 This book traces the South West Africa People's Organization SWAPO across its three decades in exile through rich local histories of the camps where Namibian exiles lived in Tanzania Zambia and Angola Christian A Williams highlights how different Namibians experienced these sites as well as the tensions that developed within SWAPO as Namibians encountered one another and as officials asserted their power and protected their interests within a national community The book then follows Namibians who lived in exile into post colonial Namibia examining the extent to which divisions and hierarchies that emerged in the camps continue to shape how Namibians relate to one another today undermining the more just and humane society that many had imagined In developing these points about SWAPO the book draws attention to Southern African literature more widely suggesting parallels across the region and defining a field of study that examines post colonial Africa through the camp

National Liberation Nigel Harris, 1993 Nationalism dominates modern politics The idea that the world consists primarily of nations and that these are the only proper basis for states has become a rarely questioned assumption Yet nationalism was an invention of nineteenth century Europe and just as it had a beginning so also could it come to an end

Encyclopedia of Conflicts Since World War II James Ciment, 2015-03-27 Thoroughly revised to include 25 conflicts not covered in the previous edition as well as expanded and updated information on previous coverage this illustrated reference presents descriptions and analyses of more than 170 significant post World War II conflicts around the globe Organized by region for ease of access Encyclopedia of Conflicts Since World War II Second Edition provides clear in depth explanations of events not covered in such detail in any other reference source Including more than 180 detailed maps and 150 photos the set highlights the conflicts that dominate today's headlines and the events that changed the course of late twentieth century history

Revolutionary Violence and the New Left Alberto Martin Alvarez, Eduardo Rey Tristán, 2016-08-05 Leading figures and rising stars in the field present the first contribution explaining the transnational nature of the revolutionary violence of the New Left Focusing on the processes of dissemination of ideologies and mobilization of ideas and repertoires of action among the revolutionary organizations of the New Left in Latin America Europe and the United States this book contributes to our understanding of the dynamics of the New Left wave and at the same time helps explain the why of the emergence of very similar armed leftist groups in vastly different geographical and political contexts

The Third World in Soviet Military Thought Mark Katz, 2012-07-26 First published in 1982 this study traces the development of Soviet military thinking on the Third World and assesses its importance for the conduct of Soviet foreign policy Changes in Soviet military thought often reflect changes in Soviet attitudes towards and expectations from involvement in Third World conflicts This work from Dr Katz meditates upon the changing role of the USSR in post war Third World conflicts with particular emphasis upon the Brezhnev era and the way in which US setbacks in the Third World impacted upon Soviet foreign policy and changing attitudes to the Third World Translations from Kommunist, 1967 The Kurdish National Movement in Turkey Cengiz Gunes, 2013-01-11 This book provides an interpretive and critical analysis of Kurdish identity nationalism and national movement in Turkey since the 1960s By raising issues and questions relating to Kurdish political identity and highlighting the ideological specificity diversity and the transformation of Kurdish nationalism it develops a new empirical dimension to the study of the Kurds in Turkey Cengiz Gunes applies an innovative theoretical approach to the analysis of an impressively large volume of primary sources and data drawn from books and magazines published by Kurdish activists political parties and groups The analysis focuses on the specific demands articulated by the Kurdish national movement and looks at Kurdish nationalism at a specific level by disaggregating the nationalist discourse showing variations over time and across different Kurdish nationalist organisations Situating contemporary Kurdish political identity and its political manifestations within a historical framework the author examines the historical and structural conditions that gave rise to it and influenced its evolution since the 1960s The analysis also encompasses an account of the organisational growth and evolution of the Kurdish national movement including the political parties and groups that were active in the period Bringing the study of the organisational development and growth of the Kurdish National Movement in Turkey up to date this book will be an important reference for students and scholars of Middle Eastern politics social movements nationalism and conflict
