National Unification And Economic Development In Vietnam:

National Unification and Economic Development in Vietnam Melanie Beresford, 1989-12-01 This study explains the economic upheavals experienced by Vietnam since the end of the War in terms of historical developments especially the legacy of separation of North and South from 1954 to the 1975 Communist victory and traces aspects of the divided economies which have been of significance Vietnam's Dilemmas and Options Mya Than, Loong-Hoe Tan, 1993 New and exciting economic political and social developments have been rapidly unfolding in Vietnam since the mid 1980s Doi moi revolution marks a new stage in the economic development of Vietnam transforming the failed command control economy to a market oriented one The drastic changes brought about by doi moi within Vietnam and the international events that impinge on it have stimulated several Vietnamese economists and social scientists as well as specialists or Vietnam watchers to analyse the situation and share their knowledge and diverse experience in this timely and useful book Australian National Bibliography, 1978 Vietnam's Reforms and Economic Growth C. Harvie, T. Van Hoa, Tran Van Hoa, 1997-09-30 Vietnam's bold economic reforms initiated under the title of Doi Moi in 1986 have produced spectacular economic outcomes which have fascinated economists business people commerce students political scientists and government advisors alike worldwide This book surveys important aspects of these developments analyses the main contributing factors provides useful references on developing and transitional economies and details soundly researched prospects in trade investment and business in this new rapidly developing market economy in East Asia Vietnamese State Industry and the Political Economy of Commercial Renaissance Adam Fforde, 2007-02-28 This book is based upon extensive and repeated fieldwork close observation and familiarity with institutional detail It traces Vietnam's early attempts to create in State Owned Enterprises SOEs a basis for a military industrial complex and the ways in which these attempts failed which explains the nature of state commercialism through the 1980s and into recent years Since the 1990 breakout to a market economy Vietnam has shown outstanding development success with rapid GDP growth macroeconomic stability swift poverty reduction maintenance of social spending and extensive globalisation Her SOEs have played a major role not only in showing that performance gains in 1989-91 could compensate for loss of the large Soviet bloc aid program but also as major players in the rapid economic change of the 1990s during which the officially reported state share of GDP remained high By the middle of the 2000s however a rising private sector was in harness with a large presence of foreign companies sharply increasing pressures upon SOEs Against this background the book concludes with an assessment of the extent to which Vietnam's commercialised SOEs are now no longer seen as an effective compromise but acting as a major hindrance to Vietnam's development Historical analysis of the process by which Vietnam's SOEs shifted from central planning to operation in an increasingly globalised market economy Draws upon regular and repeated fieldwork going back to the late 1970s Uses a wide range of Vietnamese language and other sources Rethinking Vietnam Duncan McCargo, 2004 Drawing on
