Nationalism Reframed Rogers Brubaker, 1996-09-28 This study of nationalism in Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union develops an original account of the interlocking and opposed nationalisms of national minorities the nationalizing states in which they live and the external national homelands to which they are linked by external ties Nationalism and and the National Question V. I. Lenin, 2024-01-16 Fired up by the outbreak of the First World War and outraged by the capitulation of most socialist parties to the demands of national bourgeoisies Lenin sought to understand the deeper roots of the crisis of the world movement The result was Imperialism the Highest Stage of Capitalism which went on to become a core text for the international communist movement But Lenin also sought to break with the Eurocentrism of the socialist movement which tended to look down with disdain at or simply reject struggles for self determination especially among colonized peoples This volume with an introduction by the renowned abolitionist and anti imperialist theorist Ruth Wilson Gilmore brings together the texts on imperialism and those on the national question to provide a window into Lenin's global vision of revolution The National Question C.
