Nato Communiques And Statements 1998

Laurence Binet

Nato Communiques And Statements 1998:

NATO and the Former Yugoslavia Joyce P. Kaufman, 2002 Focusing on NATO's continued crisis of identity Joyce P. Kaufman argues that the conflicts in Croatia, Bosnia Herzegovina and Kosovo have proven to be critical to an alliance that has not been able to define its roles and missions in the post Cold War world. While on the one hand NATO was enlarging by inviting former adversaries in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union to join, on the other hand it has been woefully unprepared to deal with the ethnic conflicts that erupted on its borders and that could undermine the peace and stability of Europe. The author contends that the conflicts in the former Yugoslavia have potentially threatened the essence of NATO by forcing the alliance to take on the new role of peacekeeper without adequately allowing the members to examine the role the alliance wants to or should play in a largely postcommunist world. Despite ongoing discussion in NATO ministerial summits, the alliance has made little progress to date and public questions about the role and even the viability of NATO after the Cold War continue to grow. The inability to address these issues leaves NATO facing a number of pressing questions that this book tries to answer: What role can and should the alliance play in the future? And why have the ongoing conflicts in the Balkans proven to be a challenge that the alliance has been unwilling or unable to resolve.

NATO and Peace Support Operations, 1991-1999 Henning Frantzen, 2004-12-17 This new book addresses the key question of how NATO and three of its member states are configuring their policies and military doctrines in order to handle the new strategic environment. This environment is increasingly dominated by new wars, more precisely civil wars within states and peacekeeping as the strategy devised by outside actors for dealing with them. The book seeks to explain how this new strategic environment has been interpreted and how the new conflicts and peacekeeping have been fitted into defence and war key concepts in the field of security studies.

NATO Review, 1996

Sovereignty and the Global Community Howard M. Hensel, 2017-11-28 International normative standards constitute a major influence on the policies of states and other actors in the international system as well as on the development of the international system itself. This case study rich volume demonstrates the relevance of international normative ideals and standards, outlining some of the major opportunities for and the challenges affecting co-operation among members of the international community. Contemporary problems such as weapons of mass destruction, refugees and internally displaced persons, ethnic conflict and the environment are all explored in this timely volume. Sovereignty and the Global Community will prove an excellent resource for all interested in issues of sovereignty, sustainable development, resource management and the peaceful resolution of conflicts.

Violence against Kosovar Albanians, NATO's intervention 1998-1999 Laurence Binet, 2016-05-18 The Violence against Kosovar Albanians NATO's intervention 1998-1999 case study describes the constraints and dilemmas facing Médecins Sans Frontières teams that witnessed a process of terror and expulsion which they described as the deportation of Kosovar Albanians by Serb forces. It also described MSF's reaction to NATO aerial bombings and the control exercised over the refugee camps by this party to the conflict Should MSF denounce the violence being committed against Kosovars at the risk of being excluded from access to these people and of encouraging the NATO intervention Should MSF take a stance on the NATO intervention What sort of relationship should be established with countries that were committed either militarily such as NATO members or politically Greece in the conflict and their civil societies Should MSF raise the alarm about the absence of the UNHCR in the management of the refugee camps at the risk of reinforcing this marginalization Is it justifiable to carry out an assessment mission that sacrifices the principle of operational independence by invoking an interpretation of the principle of impartiality that implies a responsibility to assist victims on both sides of a conflict
