Governing the New Europe Jack Ernest Shalom Hayward, Edward Page, 1995 Governing the New Europe provides a comprehensive and scholarly account of the changing political map of Europe as it emerges from the Cold War Exploring the variations of liberal democracy and market economy among the European states as well as current trends in these directions the contributors to this volume all leading authorities in European politics consider whether a common political model has begun to emerge out of historic European diversity Beginning with a discussion of the political economic and cultural development of Europe from a historical perspective the focus of the book shifts to an examination of the changing forms of European democracy and the move from public ownership and planning to privatization and deregulated competition Further essays analyze the challenge to national party systems and electoral performance from emerging social movements and organized interest groups Political and bureaucratic structures are also examined as is the new European constitutionalism reflected in the increasingly significant role of the judiciary Lastly attention is turned to several major themes in European politics the changing foundations of foreign and security policy the function of industrial champion firms and the retreat from the welfare state Primarily comparative in its scope Governing the New Europe does devote particular attention to specific major states as well as to the importance of the European Union to the political life of member and non member countries Neither exaggerating the common features of the patterns that have emerged in contemporary Europe nor capitulating to the complexity of enduring differences and instabilities between states Governing the New Europe will become one of the standard texts in its field Contributors Jack Hayward Jolyon Howorth Herbert Kitschelt Marie Lavigne Tom Mackie Michael Mezey Edward C Page Richard Parry Richard Rose Anthony Smith Alec Stone

The Politics of the New Europe Ian Budge, Kenneth Newton, 2014-01-21 A pioneering textbook which explains the dynamics of politics across Europe in the post Cold war era Comparing democratisation transition to a market economy and increasing economic and political integration in the countries of central and eastern Europe with experiences in Scandinavia and southern and western Europe the book provides a wealth of information and analysis on the state of Europe at the end of a momentous century of European and World history

Public Policy and the New European Agendas Fergus Carr, Andrew Massey, 2006-01-01 This broad and all encompassing study focuses on Europe's new policy agendas It brings together international academic experts on a range of policies to discuss Europe's place in the world and its relationship to the USA and beyond This book concentrates on two key themes of particular salience for policy makers the enlargement of the EU and the place of Europe in international politics An expansive list of important policy areas within these themes is explored including enlargement political and constitutional implications and international socialization of central and eastern Europe Europe and the USA security and defence policy trade finance and development institutional development and external relations in justice and home affairs before and after September 11 international terrorism EU immigration and asylum and borders policy human rights and civil rights agriculture environmental policy and regional policy pensions and ageing in Europe This book constitutes a major contribution to achieving a deeper understanding of European integration and the barriers to integration within the context of global and multi level governance As such it will be of enormous interest to an extensive audience including academics researchers students policy makers and practitioners in the fields of political studies international relations public policy European studies US studies and security studies

The Transatlantic Alliance on the Eve of the New Millennium Snežana Trifunovska, 2024-09-02 Within these pages is a veritable banquet for those who savour the politics of international security The reader is offered factual analysis insight new perspectives revisited concepts problem spotting and recipes for solutions Academic observers from a dozen different countries in Eastern and Western Europe and on both sides of the Atlantic subject a large number of questions of topical interest in the security field to one or other of these forms of treatment Their debate embraces reinforcement of the European pillar of the Alliance adjustment of the balance of responsibilities between the two sides of the Atlantic and shoring up the transatlantic partnership and perhaps broadening it into that elusive concept a transatlantic community stretching into economic and other fields They address the perceived security vacuum in parts of Central and Eastern Europe and discuss measures to build up greater confidence between former Cold War antagonists and ways of developing in them the habits of co operation rather than counter operation They draw up architectural designs for the security of the twenty first century and grapple with the conflict of ideas circulating about the Alliance s future and particularly about its future relationship with Russia Isolationism nationalism multilateralism realism constructivism and other isms are helpfully put into context Renationalisation denationalisation and identities in formation or in decline are also investigated Subregional Cooperation in the New Europe Andrew Cottey, 1999-04-12 Based on a major international research project undertaken by The Institute for East West Studies this book provides the first comprehensive analysis of an important but little explored feature of post Cold War Europe the emergence of subregional cooperation in areas such as the Barents the Baltic Sea Central Europe and the Black Sea It analyses the role of subregional cooperation in the new Europe provides detailed case studies of the new subregional groups and examines their relations with NATO and the European Union
