Pan-African Chronology III Everett Jenkins, Jr., 2011-02-28 This third volume of the Pan African Chronology set covers 1914 through 1929 a time of two seminal events World War I and the Black Awakening In World War I people of African descent fought for both sides earning distinction on the battlefields of France as well as in the jungles and deserts of Africa The Black Awakening a period from 1919 through 1929 marked the dawning of global awareness of the contributions of African people to the culture of the world The book is arranged by year and events of each year are grouped by region It also has two special biographical divisions for W E B DuBois and Marcus Garvey

There Is a Deep Brooding in Arkansas Scott W. Stern, 2025-01-28 A sweeping study of sexual assault trials in the Jim Crow South detailing the racial and economic inequities of rape law and the resistance of ordinary women In the early years of the twentieth century Mississippi County Arkansas was a brutal and profitable place Home to starving landless farmers the county produced almost 2 percent of the entire world's cotton It was also the site of two rape trials that made national headlines an accusation that sent two Black men almost certainly innocent to death row and the case of two white men almost certainly guilty who were likewise sentenced to death but who would ultimately face a very different fate

Braiding together these stories Scott W Stern examines how the Jim Crow legal system relied on selectively prosecuting rape to uphold the racial gender and economic hierarchies of the segregated unequal South But as much as rape law was a site of oppression it was also Stern shows an arena of fierce resistance Based on deep archival research this kaleidoscopic narrative includes new information about the early career of Thurgood Marshall who called one of the Mississippi County trials worse than any we have had as yet and the anti rape activism of Maya Angelou who came of age in Arkansas and whose decision to write about her own sexual assault helped shape a burgeoning movement
