

Affirmative Action: A Practical Approach

Six main areas for action:

1. Increasing the minority of female applicant flow.
2. Demonstrating top-management support for the equal employment policy; for instance by appointing a high-ranking EEO administrator.
3. Demonstrating equal employment commitment to the local community, for instance by providing in-house remedial training.
4. Keeping employees informed about the specifics of the affirmative action program.
5. Broadening the work skills of incumbent employees.
6. Institutionalizing the equal employment policy to encourage supervisors' support of it for instance by making it part of their performance appraisals.
