Presence Of The Past Popular Uses Of History In American Life:

The Presence of the Past Roy Rosenzweig, David Paul Thelen, 1998 Rosenzweig and Thelen analyze results from a unique and comprehensive survey in which they polled 1 500 Americans about their connection to the past and its continuing influence on their present as well as their hopes for the future

The Oxford Handbook of Urban Planning Randall Crane, Rachel Weber, 2015 Why plan How and what do we plan Who plans for whom These three questions are then applied across three major topics in planning States Markets and the Provision of Social Goods The Methods and Substance of Planning and Agency Implementation and Decision Making

Representing the Sporting Past in Museums and Halls of Fame Murray G. Phillips, 2013-06-17 We live in a museum age and sport museums are part of this phenomenon In this book leading international sport history scholars examine sport museums including renowned institutions like the Olympic Museum in the Swiss city of Lausanne the Babe Ruth Birthplace and Museum in Baltimore the Marylebone Cricket Club Museum in London the Croke Park Museum in Dublin and the Whyte Museum in Banff These institutions are examined in a broad context of understanding sport museums as an identifiable genre in the museum age and more specifically in terms of how the sporting past is represented in these museums Historians explain debate and critique sport museums with the intention of understanding how this important form of public history represents sport for audiences who see museums as institutions that are inherently reliable and trustworthy

The Routledge Research Companion to Heritage and Identity Peter Howard, 2016-03-16 Heritage represents the meanings and representations conveyed in the present day upon artifacts landscapes mythologies memories and traditions from the past It is a key element in the shaping of identities particularly in the context of increasingly multicultural societies This Research Companion brings together an international team of authors to discuss the concepts ideas and practices that inform the entwining of heritage and identity They have assembled a wide geographical range of examples and interpret them through a number of disciplinary lenses that include geography history museum and heritage studies archaeology art history history anthropology and media studies This outstanding companion offers scholars and graduate students a thoroughly up to date guide to current thinking and a comprehensive reference to this growing field

Historians as Expert Judicial Witnesses in Tobacco Litigation Ramses Delafontaine, 2015-04-23 Historian Ramses Delafontaine presents an engaging examination of a controversial legal practice the historian as an expert judicial witness This book focuses on tobacco litigation in the U S wherein 50 historians have witnessed in 314 court cases from 1986 to 2014 The author examines the use of historical arguments in court and investigates how a legal context influences historical narratives and discourse in forensic history Delafontaine asserts that the courtroom is a performative and fact making theatre Nonetheless he argues that the civic responsibility of the historian should not end at the threshold of the courtroom where history and truth hang in the balance The book is divided into three parts featuring an impressive range of European and American case studies The first part provides a theoretical framework on the issues which arise when history and law interact The second part gives a comparative overview of European and American examples of forensic history This part also reviews U S legal rules and case law on expert evidence as well as extralegal challenges historians face as experts The third part covers a series of tobacco related trials With remunerations as high as hundreds of thousands of dollars and no peer reviewed publications or communication on the part of the historians hired by the tobacco companies the question arises whether some historians are willing to trade their reputation and that of their university for the benefit of an interested party The book further provides 50 expert profiles of the historians active in tobacco litigation lists detailing the manner of the expert s involvement and West Law references to these cases This book offers profound and thought provoking insights on the post war forensification of history from an interdisciplinary perspective In this way Delafontaine makes a stirring call for debate on the contemporary engagement of historians as expert judicial witnesses in U S tobacco litigation

Historical Film Jonathan Stubbs,2013-03-28 Although precise definitions have not been agreed on historical cinema tends to cut across existing genre categories and establishes an intimidatingly large group of films In recent years a lively body of work has developed around historical cinema much of it proposing valuable new ways to consider the relationship between cinematic and historical representation However only a small proportion of this writing has paid attention to the issue of genre In order to counter this omission this book combines a critical analysis of the Hollywood historical film with an examination of its generic dimensions and a history of its development since the silent period Historical Film A Critical Introduction is concerned not simply with the formal properties of the films at hand but also the ways in which they have been promoted interpreted and discussed in relation to their engagement with the past Performing the Gospel Richard A.

Horsley,Jonathan A. Draper,John Miles Foley,Werner H. Kelber,2011-05-01 Previous thinking regarding oral tradition imagined a one way process of transmission handing down the fairly intact textual chunks that would constitute what we know as the end result the written Gospels Contemplating Historical Consciousness Anna Clark,Carla L. Peck,2018-12-17

The last several decades have witnessed an explosion of new empirical research into representations of the past and the conditions of their production prompting claims that we have entered a new era in which the past has become more present than ever before Contemplating Historical Consciousness brings together leading historians ethnographers and other scholars who give illuminating reflections on the aims methods and conceptualization of their own research as well as the successes and failures they have encountered This rich collective account provides valuable perspectives for current scholars while charting new avenues for future research The Politics of Heritage from Madras to Chennai Mary E.

Hancock,2008-10-29 In this anthropological history Mary E Hancock examines the politics of public memory in the southern Indian city of Chennai Once a colonial port Chennai is now poised to become a center for India s new economy of information technology export processing and back office services State and local governments promote tourism and a heritage conscious cityscape to make Chennai a recognizable brand among investment and travel destinations Using a range of textual visual architectural and ethnographic sources Hancock grapples with the question of how people in Chennai remember and represent their past considering the political and economic contexts and implications of those memory practices Working from specific sites including a historic district created around an ancient Hindu temple a living history museum neo traditional and vernacular architecture and political memorials Hancock examines the spatialization of memory under the conditions of neoliberalism Artificial Historians Marnie Hughes-Warrington, Anne Martin, Lewis Yarlupurka O'Brien, 2025-08-08 This book offers readers an introduction to the world of artificial histories and historians It looks behind the interfaces of AI and explores everyday platforms and prize winning history books to identify how people and algorithms make histories and how they might make histories in the future Every moment around the globe histories are made about ordinary people who use digital devices These histories are not made by professional historians or even by humans but by artificial intelligence that scours our digital footprints for patterns AI histories not only shape recommendations about what we might buy or stream but also our access to education healthcare and justice The outcomes of recommendation systems are not just a technology problem or an ethics problem This book argues that this is also a history problem and it needs to be understood as one if we are to make fairer or more just systems It shows us that the deep history of history making including Australian Aboriginal and First Nations histories can help us to navigate the future of history in AI Presenting readers with a range of familiar and accessible examples Artificial Historians is a valuable resource for students scholars and all those interested in global historiography technology and artificial intelligence
