Present History Of West Bengal Essays In Political Criticism:

The Nation and Its Fragments Partha Chatterjee, 1993-11-07 In this book the prominent theorist Partha Chatterjee looks at the creative and powerful results of the nationalist imagination in Asia and Africa that are posited not on identity but on difference with the nationalism propagated by the West Arguing that scholars have been mistaken in equating political nationalism with nationalism as such he shows how anticolonialist nationalists produced their own domain of sovereignty within colonial society well before beginning their political battle with the imperial power These nationalists divided their culture into material and spiritual domains and staked an early claim to the spiritual sphere represented by religion caste women and the family and peasants Chatterjee shows how middle class elites first imagined the nation into being in this spiritual dimension and then readied it for political contest all the while normalizing the aspirations of the various marginal groups that typify the spiritual sphere While Chatterjee's specific examples are drawn from Indian sources with a copious use of Bengali language materials the book is a contribution to the general theoretical discussion on nationalism and the modern state Examining the paradoxes involved with creating first a uniquely non Western nation in the spiritual sphere and then a universalist nation state in the material sphere the author finds that the search for a postcolonial modernity is necessarily linked with past struggles against modernity

Employment, Poverty and Rights in India Dayabati Roy, 2018-05-23 In comparison to other social groups India's rural poor and particularly Adivasis and Dalits have seen little benefit from the country's economic growth over the last three decades Though economists and statisticians are able to model the form and extent of this inequality their work is rarely concerned with identifying possible causes Employment Poverty and Rights in India analyses unemployment in India and explains why the issues of employment and unemployment should be the appropriate prism to understand the status of wellbeing in India The author provides a historical analysis of policy interventions on behalf of the colonial and postcolonial state with regard to the alleviation of unemployment and poverty in India and in West Bengal in particular Arguing that as long as poverty either as a concept or as an empirical condition remains as a technical issue to be managed by governmental technologies the poor will be held responsible for their own fate and the extent of poverty will continue to increase The book contends that rural unemployment in India is not just an economic issue but a political process that has consistently been shaped by various socio economic political and cultural factors since the colonial period The analysis which depends mainly on ethnography extends to the implementation of the New Rights Agenda such as the MGNREGA at the rural margin Challenging the dominant approach to poverty this book will be of interest to scholars working in the fields of South Asian studies Indian Political Economy contemporary political theories poverty studies neo liberalism sociology and social anthropology as well as development studies

Limits of Islamism Maidul Islam, 2015-03-09 The book examines the dynamics from the formation of Islamist politics for the struggle for hegemony to failure to become a hegemonic force in Bangladesh The contradiction between Islamic universalism Islamist populism on one hand and a politics of Muslim particularism in India on the other is revealed in this study Art, Global Maoism and the Chinese Cultural Revolution Jacopo Galimberti, Noemi de Haro García, Victoria H. F. Scott, 2019-11-18 This is the first book to explore the global influence of Maoism on modern and contemporary art Featuring eighteen original essays written by established and emerging scholars from around the world and illustrated with fascinating images not widely known in the west the volume demonstrates the significance of visuality in understanding the protean nature of this powerful worldwide revolutionary movement Contributions address regions as diverse as Singapore Madrid Lima and Maputo moving beyond stereotypes and misconceptions of Mao Zedong Thought s influence on art to deliver a survey of the social and political contexts of this international phenomenon At the same time the book attends to the similarities and differences between each case study It demonstrates that the chameleonic appearances of global Maoism deserve a more prominent place in the art history of both the twentieth and twenty first centuries Modern South Asia Sugata Bose, Ayesha Jalal, 2004 A wide ranging survey of the Indian sub continent Modern South Asia gives an enthralling account of South Asian history After sketching the pre modern history of the subcontinent the book concentrates on the last three centuries from c 1700 to the present Jointly written by two leading Indian and Pakistani historians Modern South Asia offers a rare depth of understanding of the social economic and political realities of this region This comprehensive study includes detailed discussions of the structure and ideology of the British raj the meaning of subaltern resistance the refashioning of social relations along lines of caste class community and gender and the state and economy society and politics of post colonial South Asia The new edition includes a rewritten accessible introduction and a chapter by chapter revision to take into account recent research The second edition will also bring the book completely up to date with a chapter on the period from 1991 to 2002 and a discussion of the last millennium in sub continental history Educating Activists Rebecca Klenk, 2010-10-26 What do people make of their own development In Educating Activists Rebecca M Klenk illuminates a reality that is far more complex than either development planners or critics commonly assume This gracefully written accessible ethnography shows how rural women accept refuse reinterpret and negotiate development s terms in a quest to improve their own communities Klenk offers an account of Lakshmi Ashram a remarkable Gandhian educational initiative for women and girls in Himalayan India Drawing on extensive fieldwork Educating Activists blends memories and stories with historical research and richly detailed ethnographic analysis to craft a compelling portrait of how women across two generations have engaged with issues of sustainability poverty gender equity autonomy and progress Regional Modernities K. Sivaramakrishnan, Arun Agrawal, 2003 Seminar papers Living Through Terror Suvendrini Perera, Antonio Traverso, 2013-10-31 In the era of war on terror the term terror has tended to be applied to its sudden eruptions in the metropolises of the global north This volume directs its attention to terror s manifestations in other locations and lives The title Living Through Terror refers both to the pervasiveness of terror in societies where extreme violence and war constitute the everyday processes of life as well as to the experience of surviving terror and living into the future The contributions consider terror's effects in those ignored and silenced locations where terror is either naturalised the Philippines South Africa Timor Leste Sri Lanka or made invisible the neo liberal democracies of Australia and Italy The stories of ruined places displaced bodies and identities shattered and remade that emerge from these pages bring into view the socio political systems cultural geographies and regimes of territoriality through which terror is engendered and naturalised and the institutions and imaginaries that continue to underpin them The essays literary writings and images collected here attend in their different ways to subjects living in and with terror as an element incorporated in their everyday and to the processes by which terror exercises itself in their lives whether it is perpetrated by state or non state actors Simultaneously the contributions attest to the tactics subjects deploy to confront and negotiate conditions of terror their attempts to live with and through terror and ultimately their strategies to recover through the everyday and the ordinary the seeds of life and hope

Delimiting Modernities Sven Trakulhun, Ralph Weber, 2015-02-12 This collection seeks to contribute to the many long standing discussions on modernity but also and more specifically to the more recent debates over trends to pluralize modernity These debates are current in many different academic disciplines such as sociology anthropology literature and postcolonial studies Hitherto most engagements with modernity in the plural have remained conspicuously confined to one or other intra disciplinary notion of modernities such as that of Shmuel Eisenstadt's multiple modernities which has triggered a host of conference papers and publications largely within sociology all the while it seems that the literatures for instance of multiple modernities and alternative modernities are each distinguished by the fact that one ignores the other It is the principal aim of this edited volume to subject these disciplinary discussions to a more encompassing view assembling contributions from different scholars who not only work in different disciplines and regional settings but who also engage with their research topics in a variety of approaches and at different levels of analysis The volume thus transcends the sometimes narrow boundaries of the debates over modernities within the established academic disciplines and seeks to turn the unavoidable friction brought about by this interdisciplinary setting into most original and insightful scholarship

Divided Media Suruchi Mazumdar, 2025-05-20 This book addresses the complex relationship between India's evolving emerging media landscape the political and economic interests of diverse media actors and movements opposing contentious issues such as market based economic reforms and religious nationalism Through the complexities of mainstream news media and emerging digital culture in the eastern city of Kolkata this book foregrounds regional and linguistic variations in the studies of media movements and politics in India By focusing on popular movements against agricultural land acquisition in the state of West Bengal in 2006 and 2007 and contemporary citizen led activisms this book captures the tension between mainstream media's political and commercial logic movements and digital activisms questioning dominant development and religious nationalist agenda and the possibilities of political diversity and democratic participation Situating the study in a multi hybrid digital space that intimately integrates the old and new media this book draws on critical thematic analysis of newspaper coverage digital qualitative studies of techno commercial features such as hashtags and viral videos and extensive interviews This book proposes the theoretical concept of a hybrid partisan system and argues that heterogeneity the complex dynamic interaction of commercially run media s political alliances the commercial logic and hybrid professional norms remains consequential for movement visibilities but contributes to deep ambiguities and commonalities in core issues such as industrialization in a developing economy This book would be relevant to scholars of journalism political communication media systems and mediated activism in communication studies sociology political science and South Asian studies
