Anything But Novel Jennie Irene Daniels,2023-11-08 The first in depth study in English to analyze post utopian historical novels written during and in the wake of brutal Latin American dictatorships and authoritarian regimes During neoliberal reforms in the 1980s and 1990s murder repression and exile had reduced the number of intellectuals and Leftists and many succumbed to or were coopted by market forces and ideologies The opposition to the economic violence of neoliberal projects lacked a united front and feasible alternatives to the contemporary order no longer seemed to exist In this context some Latin American literary intellectuals penned post utopian historical novels as a means to reconstruct memory of significant moments in national history Through the distortion and superimposition of distinct genres within the narratives authors of post utopian historical novels incorporated literary cultural and political traditions to expose contemporary challenges that were rooted in unresolved past conflicts In Anything but Novel Jennie Irene Daniels closely examines four post utopian novels C sar Aira s Ema la cautiva Rubem Fonseca s O Selvagem da pera Jos Miguel Varas s El correo de Bagdad and Santiago P ez s Cr nicas del Breve Reino to make their contributions more accessible and to synthesize and highlight the literary and social interventions they make Although the countries the novels focus on Argentina Brazil Chile and Ecuador differ widely in politics regime changes historical precedents geography and demographics the development of a shared subgenre among the literary elite suggests a common experience and interpretation of contemporary events across

Latin America These novels complement one another extending shared themes and critiques Daniels argues the novels demonstrate that alternatives exist to neoliberalism even in times when it appears there are none Another contribution of these novels is their repositioning of the Latin American literary intellectuals who have advocated for the marginalized in their societies Their work has opened new avenues and developed previous lines of research in feminist queer and ethnic studies and for nonwhite nonmale writers

The Landscape of Utopia Tim Waterman, 2022-02-27 A collection of short interludes think pieces and critical essays on landscape utopia philosophy culture and food all written in a highly original and engaging style by academic and theorist Tim Waterman Exploring power and democracy and their shaping of public space and public life taste etiquette belief and ritual and foodways in community and civic life the book provides a much needed critical approach to landscape imaginaries It discusses landscape in its broadest sense as a descriptor of the relationship between people and place that occurs everywhere on land from cities to countryside suburb to wilderness With over fifty black and white illustrations interspersing the twenty six chapters this is a book for professionals academics and students to dive into and spark discussion on new modes of thinking in the wake of unfolding global crises such as COVID 19 climate change fascism 20 and beyond

Mapping the In-between: Interdisciplinary Methods for Envisioning other Futures Lýdia Grešáková, Zuzana Tabačková, Spolka, 2020-02-23 The bilingual publication Mapping the in between Interdisciplinary methods for envisioning other futures is the outcome of the international summer school that explored the potential of interdisciplinary mapping and utopian visioning as an alternative way of developing the city During the school various proposals were made as actual alternatives to those of the commodified real estate market and the dreams of large developments of filling in the empty spaces of the many brownfields The texts collected here are a unique insight into the new possible models of cooperation and collaboration that were developed in Košice Slovakia with the help of Never never school's participants
