Presenttense Poets In The World:

Present/tense Mark Pawlak, Robert Hershon, Ron Schreiber, Dick Lourie, 2004 Poetry Hard hitting anthology of political poems edited by Mark Pawlak Contributors include Jack Agueros Sherman Alexie Donna Brook Hayan Charara Jayne Cortez Mart n Espada Ed Friedman Joanna Fuhrman Kimiko Hahn Joy Harjo Robert Hershon Anselm Hollo Hettie Jones Dick Lourie Ken Mikolowski Harryette Mullen D Nurkse Ron Overton Maureen Owen Mark Pawlak Adrienne Rich Ron Schreiber Harvey Shapiro M L Smoker Quincy Troupe Janine Pommy Vega Chuck Wachtel and Bill Zavatsky We have always depended on the work of poets to speak more beautifully more powerfully than anyone else on behalf of peace and justice PRESENT TENSE is a wonderful collection of poetry that fulfills that promise In its pages we find poets who move us profoundly and lift our spirits Howard Zinn

How Poets See the World Willard Spiegelman, 2005-06-23 Although readers of prose fiction sometimes find descriptive passages superfluous or boring description itself is often the most important aspect of a poem This book examines how a variety of contemporary poets use description in their work Description has been the great burden of poetry How do poets see the world How do they look at it What do they look for Is description an end in itself or a means of expressing desire Ezra Pound demanded that a poem should represent the external world as objectively and directly as possible and William Butler Yeats in his introduction to The Oxford Book of Modern Verse 1936 said that he and his generation were rebelling against inter alia irrelevant descriptions of nature in the work of their predecessors The poets in this book however who are distinct in many ways from one another all observe the external world of nature or the reflected world of art and make relevant poems out of their observations This study deals with the crisp elegant work of Charles Tomlinson the swirling baroque poetry of Amy Clampitt the metaphysical meditations of Charles Wright from a position in his backyard the weather reports and landscapes of John Ashbery and the new way of looking that Jorie Graham proposes to explore in her increasingly fragmented poems All of these poets plus others Gary Snyder Theodore Weiss Irving Feldman Richard Howard who are dealt with more briefly attend to what Wallace Stevens in a memorable phrase calls the way things look each day The ordinariness of daily reality is the beginning of the poets own idiosyncratic indeed unique visions and styles

Poetry Against the World Magdalena Kay, 2018-10-31 Poetry Against the World Philip Larkin and Charles Tomlinson in Contemporary Britain brings together two major poets who espouse opposite aesthetic ambitions yet are both taken as paragons of Englishness in order to ask how they pitch their poetry against an inhospitable world This book explores how these two representative poets seek to redress an age of demolition through their poetry and how their audiences react to the types of redress they propose

Behind the Lines Philip Metres, 2007-05 Whether Thersites in Homer's Iliad Wilfred Owen in Dulce et Decorum Est or Allen Ginsberg in Wichita Vortex Sutra poets have long given solitary voice against the brutality of war The hasty cancellation of the 2003 White House symposium Poetry and the American Voice in the face of protests by Sam Hamill and other invited guests against the coming shock and awe campaign in Iraq reminded us that poetry and poets still have the power to challenge the powerful Behind the Lines investigates American war resistance poetry from the Second World War through the Iraq wars Rather than simply chronicling the genre Philip Metres argues that this poetry gets to the heart of who is authorized to speak about war and how it can be represented As such he explores a largely neglected area of scholarship the poet's relationship to dissenting political movements and the nation In his elegant study Metres examines the ways in which war resistance is registered not only in terms of its content but also at the level of the lyric He proposes that protest poetry constitutes a subgenre that by virtue of its preoccupation with politics history and trauma probes the limits of American lyric poetry Thus war resistance poetry and the role of what Shelley calls unacknowledged legislators is a crucial though largely unexamined body of writing that stands at the center of dissident political movements

Multimodality, Poetry and Poetics Richard Andrews, 2018-04-27 This groundbreaking work takes multimodality studies in a new direction by applying multimodal approaches to the study of poetry and poetics The book examines poetry's visual and formal dimensions applying framing theory to such case studies as Aristotle's Poetics and Robert Lowell's The Heavenly Rain to demonstrate both the implied due to the form's unique relationship with structure imagery and rhythm and explicit forms of multimodality at work an otherwise little explored research strand of multimodality studies The volume explores the theoretical implications of a multimodal approach to poetry and poetics to other art forms and fields of study making this essential reading for students and scholars working at the intersection of language and communication including multimodality discourse analysis and interdisciplinary literary studies

Calling Natasha Trethewey Mexico 1969 Why not make a fiction of the mind's fictions I want to say it begins like this the trip a pilgrimage my mother kneeling at the altar of the Black Virgin enthralled light streaming in a window the sun at her back holy water in a bowl she must have touched What's left is palimpsest one memory bleeding into another overwriting it How else to explain what remains The sound of water in a basin I know is white the sun behind her light streaming in her face as if she were already dead blurred as it will become I want to imagine her before the altar rising to meet us my father lifting me toward her outstretched arms What else to make of the mind's slick confabulations What comes back is the sun's dazzle on a pool's surface light filtered through water closing over my head my mother her body between me and the high sun a corona of light around her face Why not call it a vision What I know is this I was drowning and saw a dark Madonna someone pulled me through the water's bright ceiling and I rose initiate from one life into another
