Preservation & Rallies Malcolm Batten, 2023-06-30 The preservation of our transport heritage is something that the British excel at The Buses magazine Museum Rally Guide 2020 21 lists forty museums in the United Kingdom plus one in the Republic of Ireland with collections of buses and sometimes trams or trolleybuses amongst their exhibits The rally calendar section lists hundreds of events taking part every year This has all developed since the 1950s Prior to this a few far sighted companies such as The London General Omnibus Company later London Transport had put aside some old vehicles but they were not on regular display Private preservation started in the 1950s and the first clubs for preservationists were established such as the Historic Commercial Vehicle Club in 1958 A few early events were held but the first regular event was the HCV now HCVS London to Brighton Run which began in 1962 and has continued ever since Museum sites were established in the 1960s The Museum of British Transport opened in stages between 1961 and 1963 and would lead eventually to the London Transport Museum The East Anglian Transport Museum at Carlton Colville and the Sandtoft Transport Centre both opened in the 1960s But it would be the 1970s when the rallies and Open Days we know today really began to take off This book looks back at the formative years to 1980 when the seeds of the preservation and rally movement of today were being sown

Hutchings, 2021-04-15 A collection of superb previously unseen images of Southampton City Transport buses Utilising the archives of the Southampton District Transport Heritage Trust British Buses, 1967 Jim Blake, 2015-08-30 This book looks at an important turning point in the history of the bus industry in Britain 1967 was the penultimate year to the end of an era when private and semi nationalized company s operated the bus networks in this country After 1967 the network was never the same again with the formation of the National Bus Company in 1968 The NBC was a very bland organization compared to the colourful bus companies that had existed before nationalization and many small municipal fleets amalgamated to form Passenger Transport Executives This comprehensive volume covers a large number of the bus companies throughout the country in 1967 and also has a good readable narrative describing Jim Blake's journeys travelling on these services across Britain Heritage Dynamics Kalliopi Fouseki, 2022-10-13 How does heritage emerge change stagnate disappear and or revive over time Should heritage be approached as a non renewable resource that needs to be sustained for eternity or as a renewable resource that adapts to change and transformation Heritage Dynamics deconstructs the dynamic nature of heritage Heritage as a socio cultural practice goes through non linear continuous lifecycles where certain factors will be the catalyst for the ending of one lifecycle and the revival for another Kalliopi Fouseki develops a theoretical and methodological framework of heritage dynamics which is used as the analytical thread of six heritage contexts heritage led transformation in historic urban places decision making on energy efficiency and heritage conservation in everyday heritage residential buildings lifecycles of heritage collections exhibition dynamics and the impact of participation with emphasis of difficult heritage dynamics of dissonance on contested museums and the dynamics of intangible heritage with emphasis on flamenco The book offers a new theoretical and methodological framework that will enable heritage scholars and practitioners to unpack the ways and conditions under which heritage changes The new theoretical framework will re orientate current thinking of heritage as a thing a process or discourse towards a new more systemic thinking that captures the complexity of heritage Methodologically Heritage Dynamics introduces the potential of systemic methods such as system dynamics in capturing the dynamic nature of heritage The new theory and method not only opens up new avenues for theoretical explorations but also offers a significant tool for heritage managers and policymakers
