Presidential Mibion:

The Stingy Minion H. M. Marson, 2013-08-09 Educated by her imprisoned hacker father and dumped on her grandparents doorstep by her distraught mother sixteen year old Elizabeth Carson brings big problems to smalltown Ellisville Missouri Rooted in a broken family and conflicted by her own awakening femininity she fails to recognize that help is all around a caring community a musical prodigy named Jereme and loving grandparents As if family problems were not enough Elizabeths curious nature finds more trouble She brings her fathers hacking program the Stingy Minion back to life and soon finds herself staring at a highly classified NSA blog site used by the president of the United States Trouble escalates to danger when a power hungry investment firm tries to steal the Stingy Minion and threatens her life and the lives of newfound friends In over her head Elizabeth continues to hack and discovers a plot to attack Irans nuclear development sites The world is on the verge of nuclear war With hired thugs on her tail only time will tell how long she and her friends will remain safe

Founding the American Presidency Richard J. Ellis, 1999 At a time when the institution of the presidency seems in a state of almost permanent crisis it is particularly important to understand what sort of an institution the framers of the Constitution thought they were creating Founding the American Presidency offers a first hand view of the minds of the founders by bringing together extensive selections from the constitutional convention in Philadelphia as well as representative selections from the subsequent debates over ratification Organized topically the book focuses on those issues of executive power that most deeply concerned and often sharply divided the founders including the electoral college and impeachment the presidential term and reeligibility the veto power and war powers the power of appointment and the power of pardon EllisO judicious selections mean that teachers and students no longer need to settle for the meager rations of a Federalist paper or two supplemented by a quick summary of the founders thoughts before being fast forwarded to the contemporary presidency Pointed discussion questions provoke students to consider new perspectives on the presidency Ideal for all courses on the presidency the book is also important for all citizens who want to understand not only the past but the future of the American presidency

The Political Economy of Bilateral Aid Peter Blunt, 2022-12-23 The social and economic consequences of the COVID 19 pandemic and of extreme climate events have brought into sharp relief the serious deficiencies of our political economies The dominant global ideology of neoliberalism and its architects and beneficiaries are responsible for this Bilateral development assistance is an integral part of the neoliberal grand design However while the deficiencies of neoliberalism have been starkly exposed by the pandemic its collapse is unlikely in the short term Much bilateral assistance will therefore continue to be self serving Within these confines and on the basis of a sharply critical analysis of the functioning of technical assistance at the point of the design and delivery of programmes and projects this book identifies crucial supply side nodes of power and influence where feasible and relatively straight forward functional reforms strategy structure selection training would make genuinely developmental results for recipients more likely and enhance donor interests at the same time It argues that more authentic empathetic and altruistic technical assistance will be essential to bringing this about The arguments are supported by primary published evidence gathered by the author during 18 years of full time employment as a team leader or programme manager of technical assistance programmes The book will be of interest to students of development management development economics political economy and international relations as well as policy makers development practitioners and supply and demand side government officials Entrepreneurial
