Presidential Elephants Of Zimbabwe:

Battle for the President's Elephants Sharon Pincott, 2012 Searching for something more than her high flying life as an information technology executive Sharon Pincott traded her privileged first world existence to start a new life with the Presidential Elephants of Zimbabwe the country's flagship clan of over 450 wild elephants This biography follows the passionate wildlife conservationist from her home in Australia to the new one she discovers in Africa and chronicles her daily life from cherishing incredibly intimate encounters with these gentle giants to coping with accusations of being a spy Written with engaging humor warmth and a deep tangible love of Africa's wildlife this captivating collection of bush tales offers a further glimpse into the wonders and grim realities of choosing a life less ordinary The Elephants and I Sharon

Pincott, 2009 An unplanned visit to South Africa's Kruger National Park changed Sharon Pincott's life as she knew it She was a high flying Information Technology specialist Down Under but now she dreamed of working with Africa's wildlife Eventually she abandoned her life of privilege and luxury and moved to Zimbabwe a country in turmoil to live and work among elephants on land bordering Hwange National Park It was a startling contrast to her former life In time Sharon formed extraordinary relationships with wild elephants having learned to know them intimately She treasured escapades with friends both human and animal in spectacular remote places But as she soon discovered first hand the beauty and wonder of wild Zimbabwe had a dark foreboding side Snaring of wildlife was rife and when land invaders claimed the area where Sharon's elephant friends roamed she went into battle for their land and their lives while fighting for her own wellbeing in her homeland of choice In an Elephant's Rumble Sharon Pincott, 2004 The Presidential Elephants of Zimbabwe Alan Elliot, 1991

The Last Elephants, 2019-04-09 Amazing photographs of elephants accompany narratives from researchers scientists and conservationists celebrating elephants and calling for their preservation African savanna elephants among the most magnificent and beloved of our fellow mammals are an extraordinary social and intelligent species The Last Elephants an homage to these animals and a clarion call for their preservation is based upon a shocking finding savanna elephant populations across Africa are being decimated with two to three murdered every hour for their ivory Without action these elephants soon will vanish from our world They are a species in imminent danger of extinction and it is up to us to save them Featuring more than 250 full color photos of the breathtaking animals by some of the world's top wildlife photographers The Last Elephants was inspired by the devastating results of the continent wide Great Elephant Census of 2016 undertaken by Elephants without Borders in tandem with the world's most prominent conservation groups The book joins together the voices and vision of scientists lawmakers rangers conservationists and on the ground researchers to speak out against elephant killings to close loopholes in international law that allow the ivory trade to continue and to pay tribute to the thousands who work to protect the animals including African communities who have elected to preserve and protect their elephant neighbors Offering both profiles of preservation plans that work and hope for elephants future this is a must read for everyone concerned for the future of one of Earth's most captivating species Elephant Dawn Sharon Pincott, 2016-06-01 A book to take readers into another world Caroline Jones AO presenter Australian Story A raw honest story that needs to be heard Tony Park bestselling author of An Empty Coast This mesmerizing book is not just about a love of elephants it is also about the indomitable spirit of someone who followed her passion Cynthia Moss world renowned elephant specialist celebrated in the BBC's Echo of the Elephants In 2001 Sharon Pincott traded her privileged life as a high flying corporate executive to start a new one with the Presidential Elephants of Zimbabwe She was unpaid untrained self funded and arrived with the starry eyed idealism of most foreigners during early encounters with Africa For thirteen years the worst in Zimbabwe's volatile history this intrepid Australian woman lived in the Hwange bush fighting for the lives of these elephants forming an extraordinary and life changing bond with them Powerfully moving sometimes disturbing and often very funny Elephant Dawn is a celebration of love courage and honour amongst our greatest land mammals With resilience beyond measure Sharon earns the supreme right to call them family Rhodesians Worldwide, 2006 Magic Encounters Danuta Szachanski, 2014-04-17 I have travelled to all parts of the world for over forty years often to the most remote villages and towns on all continents enjoying the unique landscapes and their people This is how I have had the most delightful encounters often when least expected The book aims to show that one should venture out not be afraid to leave the beaten paths and instead seek authenticity It also shows the common humanity of people and how cross cultural encounters can leave us with indelible memories that in turn push us to learn ever more about this planet and its various people I hope the book spurs readers to travel outside of organized tours or to keep travelling if they already do and see how this kind of journey can incredibly enrich their lives Death and Compassion Dan Wylie, 2018-10-01 Traces the literary history of the elephant and its role in South Africa's cultural imaginary Elephants are in dire straits again They were virtually extirpated from much of Africa by European hunters in the eighteenth and nineteenth centuries but their numbers resurged for a while in the heyday of late colonial conservation efforts in the twentieth Now according to one estimate an elephant is being killed every 15 minutes This is at the same time that the reasons for being especially compassionate and protective towards elephants are now so well known that they have become almost a cliché their high intelligence rich emotional lives including a capacity for mourning caring matriarchal societal structures that strangely charismatic grace Saving elephants is one of the iconic conservation struggles of our time As a society we must aspire to understand how and why people develop compassion or fail to do so and what stories we tell ourselves about animals that reveal the relationship between ourselves and animals This book is the first study to probe the primary features and possible effects of some major literary genres as they pertain to elephants south of the Zambezi over three centuries indigenous forms early European travelogues hunting accounts novels game ranger memoirs scientists accounts and poems It examines what these literatures imply about the various and diverse attitudes towards elephants about who shows compassion towards them in what ways and why It is the story of a developing contestation between death and compassion between those who kill and those who love and protect Protected Areas and Tourism in Southern Africa Lesego Senyana Stone,Moren Tibabo Stone,Patricia Kefilwe Mogomotsi,Goemeone E.J. Mogomotsi,2022-03-23 This volume discusses the complex relationship between Protected Areas and tourism and their impact on community livelihoods in a range of countries in Southern Africa Protected areas and tourism have an enduring and symbiotic relationship While protected areas offer a desirable setting for tourism products tourism provides revenue that can contribute to conservation efforts This can bring benefits to local communities but it can also have a negative impact with the establishment of protected areas leading to the eviction of local communities from their original places of residence while also preventing them from accessing the natural resources they once enjoyed Taking a multi disciplinary approach this book addresses the opportunities and challenges faced by communities and other stakeholders as they endeavour to achieve their conservation goals and work towards improving community livelihoods Case studies from Botswana Malawi Namibia South Africa Tanzania Zambia and Zimbabwe address key issues such as human wildlife conflicts ecotourism wildlife based tourism landscape governance wildlife crop raiding and trophy hunting including the high profile case of Cecil the lion Chapters highlight both the achievements and positive outcomes of protected areas but also the challenges faced and their impact on how protected areas are viewed and also conservation priorities more generally The volume gives these issues affecting protected areas local communities managers and international conservation efforts centre stage in order inform policy and improve practice going forward This book will be of great interest to students and scholars of conservation natural resource management tourism sustainable development and African studies as well as professionals and policymakers involved in conservation policy
