Region Not Home Reflections From Exile:

A Region Not Home James Alan McPherson, 2000 The Pulitzer Prize winning author of Elbow Room an esteemed short story writer and essayist offers a powerful and graceful collection of his ruminations A Region Not Home James Alan McPherson, 2001 In this deft collection of essays Pulitzer Prize winning author James McPherson offers poignant and lively interpretations of life that illuminate the ebb and flow of its sorrows and delights and reveals his search for connections between everyday drudgery and a greater sense of purpose He writes of the longing of the human soul by unifying thoughts of his deep affection for his daughter and the meaning of Disneyland transcendental meanings in life and the tedium of long waits in airports coming to self knowledge and the cruel rituals of fraternity pledge week A beautiful meditation on what it means to be human an enlightening and soulful work reaching to the core of suffering and joy A Study Guide for James Alan McPherson's "Elbow Room" Gale, Cengage Learning, The Contemporary African American Novel E. Lâle Demirtürk, 2012-07-20 This book examines how African American novels explore instances of racialization that are generated through discursive practices of whiteness in the interracial social encounters of everyday life African American fictional representations of the city have political significance The Columbia Companion to the Twentieth-Century American Short Story Blanche H. Gelfant, 2004-04-21 Esteemed critic Blanche Gelfant's brilliant companion gathers together lucid essays on major writers and themes by some of the best literary critics in the United States Part 1 is comprised of articles on stories that share a particular theme such as Working Class Stories or Gay and Lesbian Stories The heart of the book however lies in Part 2 which contains more than one hundred pieces on individual writers and their work including Fitzgerald Hemingway Richard Ford Raymond Carver Eudora Welty Andre Dubus Zora Neal Hurston Anne Beattie Bharati Mukherjee J D Salinger and Jamaica Kincaid as well as engaging pieces on the promising new writers to come on the scene Southern Writers Joseph M. Flora, Amber Vogel, 2006-06-21 This new edition of Southern Writers assumes its distinguished predecessor's place as the essential reference on literary artists of the American South Broadly expanded and thoroughly revised it boasts 604 entries nearly double the earlier edition's written by 264 scholars For every figure major and minor from the venerable and canonical to the fresh and innovative a biographical sketch and chronological list of published works provide comprehensive concise up to date information Here in one convenient source are the South's novelists and short story writers poets and dramatists memoirists and essayists journalists scholars and biographers from the colonial period to the twenty first century What constitutes a southern writer is always a matter for debate Editors Joseph M Flora and Amber Vogel have used a generous definition that turns on having a significant connection to the region in either a personal or literary sense New to this volume are younger writers who have emerged in the quarter century since the dictionary's original publication as well as older talents previously unknown or unacknowledged For almost every writer found in the previous edition a new biography has been commissioned Drawn from the very best minds on southern literature and covering the full spectrum of its practitioners Southern Writers is an indispensable reference book for anyone intrigued by the subject Fearless Confessions Sue William Silverman,2010-01-25 Everyone has a story to tell Fearless Confessions is a guidebook for people who want to take possession of their lives by putting their experiences down on paper or in a Web site or e book Enhanced with illustrative examples from many different writers as well as writing exercises this guide helps writers navigate a range of issues from craft to ethics to marketing and will be useful to both beginners and more accomplished writers The rise of interest in memoir recognizes the power of the genre to move and affect not just individual readers but society at large Sue William Silverman covers traditional writing topics such as metaphor theme plot and voice and also includes chapters on trusting memory and cultivating the courage to tell one's truth in the face of forces from family members to the media who would prefer that people with inconvenient pasts and views remain silent Silverman an award winning memoirist draws upon her own personal and professional experience to provide an essential resource for transforming life into words that matter Fearless Confessions is an atlas that contains maps to the remarkable places in each person's life that have yet to be explored Constructs of "home" in Gloria Naylor's Quartet Claudia Drieling,2011 Encyclopedia of African-American Literature Wilfred D. Samuels,2015-04-22 Presents a reference on African American literature providing profiles of notable and little known writers and their works literary forms and genres critics and scholars themes and terminology and more The Poets & Writers Complete Guide to Being a Writer Kevin Larimer,Mary Gannon,2020-04-07 The definitive source of information insight and advice for creative writers from the nation's largest and most trusted organization for writers Poets Writers For half a century writers at every stage of their careers have turned to the literary nonprofit organization Poets Writers and its award winning magazine for resources to foster their professional development from writing prompts and tips on technique to informative interviews with published authors literary agents and editors But never before has Poets Writers marshaled its fifty years worth of knowledge to create an authoritative guide for writers that answers every imaginable question about craft and career until now Here is the writing bible for authors of all genres and forms covering topics such as how to Harness your imagination and jump start your creativity Develop your work from initial idea to final draft Find a supportive and inspiring writing community to sustain your career Find the best MFA program for you Publish your work in literary magazines and develop a platform Research writing contests and other opportunities to support your writing life Decide between traditional publishing and self publishing Find the right literary agent Anticipate what agents look for in queries and proposals Work successfully with an editor and your publishing team Market yourself and your work in a digital world Approach financial planning and taxes as a writer And much more Written by Kevin Larimer and Mary Gannon the two most recent editors of Poets Writers Magazine this book brings an unrivaled understanding of the areas in which writers seek guidance and support Filled with insider information like sample query letters pitch letters lists of resources and worksheets for calculating freelance rates tracking submissions and managing your taxes the guide does more than demystify the writing
