Regional Economic Cooperation in Central Asia Asian Development Bank,1998 Technical Assistance for Regional Economic Cooperation in Central Asia (Phase II). Asian Development Bank,1998 Regional Economic Intergration [i.e. Integration] Saroj Rani,2009 The Regional Economic Integration A comparative study of Central Asian and South Asian Regions This book has been acknowledged as an exhaustive research on Economic Integration between Central Asia and South Asian as well as within the regions This book has given an idea that both the regions are complementary to each other having a lot of potential in all growing sectors To harness this potential efficiently both the regions should cooperate with each other Economic benefits might help in diluting some political problems existing within the regions War devastating countries by Economic Integration could yield maximum benefits in the European Union then why not these regions could do so History is witnessed that these regions enjoy same social and culturalties while engaging in trade activities Author has made extensive efforts to highlight the benefits of economic integration for development and prosperity of both the regions The Experience with Regional Economic Cooperation Organizations Johannes F. Linn,2008 Since the collapse of the Soviet Union Central Asia has witnessed repeated efforts to strengthen regional integration through cooperation with the establishment of a number of regional organizations with Central Asian participation In this paper we review the experience with regional cooperation initiatives and organizations in Central Asia and the rest of the world Using a typology of regional organizations that we have developed for this paper we review the functions and performance of selected regional organizations and compile evidence more generally on the experience with regional cooperation around the globe Based on this we draw some lessons to help Central Asian countries their partners and their regional organizations respond effectively to the opportunities and challenges of regional cooperation and integration Central Asian countries need to realize that effective cooperation is not easy It takes time and requires a flexible constructive approach of all major partners It also requires effective leadership by key countries institutions and individuals and a careful selectivity for membership and for the mandate of the organization Where multiple regional organizations overlap in membership and mandate it is essential to address the risk of costly duplication The paper concludes with an assessment of the specific implications for the Central Asia Regional Economic Cooperation Program CAREC Strengthening Central Asia Regional Economic Cooperation, 2007-2009 Asian Development Bank,2007 Technical assistance for regional economic cooperation in central Asia Asian Development Bank,1998 Technical Assistance for Regional Economic Cooperation in Central Asia ,1996 Technical assistance for regional economic cooperation in central Asia (phase II -year three). Asian Development Bank,2000 Central Asia Regional Economic Cooperation (CAREC) Investment Forum 2015 Asian Development Bank,2016-03-01 The Asian Development Bank Erdenes Mongol LLC and the Business Council of Mongolia worked together to organize the Central Asia Regional Economic Cooperation CAREC Investment Forum that took place on 24 September 2015 in Ulaanbaatar Mongolia The forum was the first ever conference to focus on the investment environments in the CAREC countries More than 300 high level government officials and business leaders from 26 countries attended the event to share their insights on how to make effective investments within the region They also shared their experiences and expectations on how to manage investments in Mongolia The main topics discussed during the conference were i generating a recipe for success in the CAREC region that will focus on identifying and making good investments ii exploring the investment environment and policies in CAREC member countries and iii investing in a regionally connected Mongolia

This paper explores ways to unlock the potential for regional development and economic cooperation in the wider Central Asia region It argues that understanding critical clusters of interrelated issues and explicitly taking into account geopolitical and political economy considerations are key in this regard Regional countries and other stakeholders should focus on a few areas where there are real prospects for success in the short run a combination of modest win win initiatives and in some cases bold strokes that augment and change the distribution of benefits and hence make cooperation more likely to deliver progress
