Reinhold Niebuhr And The Issues Of Our Time:

Reinhold Niebuhr and the Issues of Our Time Richard Harries, 1986 In the realm of public affairs Reinhold Niebuhr has been the most influential theologian of our century Although Niebuhr died in 1971 the issues he confronted war and peace revolution and nuclear weapons intervention and monetarism continued to dominate the 1980 s and many feel the increasing lack of what Richard Harries calls a Niebuhrian dimension to the debates In this book a distinguished group of academic writers discuss current issues both intellectual and practical and ask what light Niebuhr can shed on them The result is a thought provoking and stimulating collection of essays

Liberating Paul Neil Elliott, 2005-02-01 For centuries the apostle Paul has been invoked to justify oppression whether on behalf of slavery to enforce unquestioned obedience to the state to silence women or to legitimate anti-Semitism To interpret Paul is thus to set foot on a terrible battleground between spiritual forces But as Neil Elliott argues the struggle to liberate human beings from the power of Death requires Liberating Paul from his enthrallment to that power In this book Elliott shows that what many people experience as the scandal of Paul is the unfortunate consequence of the way Paul has usually been read or rather misread in the churches In the first half of the book Elliott examines the many texts historically interpreted to support oppression or maintain the status quo He shows how often Paul's authentic message has been interpreted in the light of later pseudo-Pauline writings In Part Two Elliott applies a political key to the interpretation of Paul Though subsequent centuries have turned the cross into a symbol of Christian piety Elliott forcefully reminds us that in Paul's time this was the Roman mode of executing rebellious slaves a fact that has profound political implications

The Poetics of Grace: Christian Ethics as Theodicy Jeph Holloway, 2013-04-09 What is God doing about a world marked by conflict and division What about a world in which our technologies promise great good but also threaten our existence What is God doing in a world where the demands for accumulation and acquisition create division and despair Can Christians hope to be of positive influence in a world that does not always support reflect or even understand Christian commitments Christian ethics often raises such questions as these and the possible answers vary widely Paul's Letter to the Ephesians is a tremendous resource for exploring a faithful response to perhaps the toughest question of all what is God doing about evil The role of Christian ethics is to take seriously the challenge that whatever God is doing God calls us to participate in a distinctive task that embraces our own commitments and labors within the divine purpose Ephesians says that God has taken the initiative to pursue that purpose and remarkably offers that we ourselves are part of the answer to the question what is God doing about evil

The Bonds of Freedom Rebekah Miles, 2001 Miles contends that an increasingly radical feminist emphasis on divine immanence and human boundedness has undercut key assumptions upon which feminism rests Niebuhr's realism she believes can be the source of a necessary correction

Niebuhrian International Relations

Moore, 2020 In dealing with the intricacies of human nature society politics ethics theology racism and international relations Reinhold Niebuhr the teacher preacher philosopher social critic and ethicist may have been the most important American thinker of the twentieth century This book distils Niebuhr's disparate and heretofore difficult to access work on international relations into one volume Drawing from the well springs of Niebuhr's Christian social thought the volume explores the depths of Niebuhr's views on human nature collective life U S foreign policy Just War Theory Cold War era containment globalization and the U N It then applies his approach to contemporary foreign policy issues such as the 2003 Iraq War the Responsibility to Protect and the rise of China

Christianity, Politics, and the Predicament of Evil Bradley B. Burroughs, 2019-06-04 Christianity Politics and the Predicament of Evil overcomes a defining divide in contemporary Protestant political ethics created by two contrasting conceptions of politics The first exemplified in the work of Reinhold Niebuhr construes politics as a matter of statecraft that utilizes the power of government to secure the greatest possible order and justice for society as a whole The second most prominently articulated by Stanley Hauerwas maintains that politics concerns itself with the cultivation of virtue consequently it finds not the well ordered state but the church to be the exemplar of politics Not only illuminating the divide between politics as statecraft and politics as soulcraft but also redeveloping the conceptual space between them this book reconceives politics within a theological framework in which the eschatological City of God rather than the well ordered state or the faithful church functions as the paradigm of political life At the same time it simultaneously recognizes that the existence of evil which corrupts individual wills and social structures inhibits human beings from building the City of God in this world Analyzing criticizing and drawing resources from Niebuhr and Hauerwas as well as looking beyond to Augustine Martin Luther King Jr and others this book specifies the respective roles of soulcraft and statecraft in a political ethic capable of guiding Christians as they witness to God's eschatological intention to establish the City of God in a world currently mired in the predicament of evil

Social Ethics in the Making Gary Dorrien, 2011-04-06 In the early 1880s proponents of what came to be called the social gospel founded what is now known as social ethics This ambitious and magisterial book describes the tradition of social ethics one that began with the distinctly modern idea that Christianity has a social ethical mission to transform the structures of society in the direction of social justice Charts the story of social ethics the idea that Christianity has a social ethical mission to transform society from its roots in the nineteenth century through to the present day Discusses and analyzes how different traditions of social ethics evolved in the realms of the academy church and general public Looks at the wide variety of individuals who have been prominent exponents of social ethics from academics and self styled public intellectuals through to pastors and activists Set to become the definitive reference guide to the history and development of social ethics Recipient of a CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title for 2009 award Animating Liturgy
