Reinventing America Michael Foudy,1992 The Rise of Common-Sense Conservatism Antti Lepistö,2021-04-20

In the years following the election of Donald Trump a victory that hinged on the votes of white Midwesterners who were both geographically and culturally distant from the media s coastal concentrations there has been a flurry of investigation into the politics of the so called common man The notion that the salt of the earth purity implied by this appellation is best understood by conservative politicians is no recent development though As Antti Lepist shows in his timely and erudite book the intellectual wellsprings of conservative common sense discourse are both older and more transnational than has been thought In considering the luminaries of American neoconservative thought among them Irving Kristol Gertrude Himmelfarb James Q Wilson and Francis Fukuyama Lepist argues that the centrality of their conception of the common man accounts for the enduring power and influence of their thought Intriguingly Lepist locates the roots of this conception in the eighteenth century Scottish Enlightenment revealing how leading neoconservatives weaponized the ideas of Adam Smith Thomas Reid and David Hume to denounce postwar liberal elites educational authorities and social reformers Their reconfiguration of Scottish Enlightenment ideas ultimately gave rise to a defining force in modern conservative politics the common sense of the common man Whether twenty first century politicians who invoke the grievances of the people are conscious of this unusual lineage or not Lepist explains both the persistence of the trope and the complicity of some conservative thinkers with the Trump regime American Bookseller ,1992 Perot and His People Carolyn Barta,1993 Patriotism, Democracy, and Common Sense Alan Curtis,2005-11-30 Patriotism Democracy and Common Sense is a new strategic analysis of common sense alternatives to the public policies America has pursued since September 11 2001 This important book features more than three dozen internationally known experts in economics foreign and domestic policy media and political action
