Relationships Can Be Murder:

Nightmares Can Be Murder Mary Kennedy, 2014-09-02 Dream Team Business consultant Taylor Blake has returned to Savannah Georgia to help her sister Allison turn her dream of running an old fashioned candy store into a reality Allison is also interested in dream interpretation and invites Taylor to her Friday night Dream Club where members meet once a week to share and analyze their dreams When a local dance instructor Chico Hernandez is found dead in his studio and the murder scene has an eerie resemblance to one of the dreams shared at their meeting Taylor can't help but be intrigued And when her sister who was briefly involved with the dance teacher becomes the prime suspect Taylor and their fellow club members can't be caught napping It's up to them to dream up a solution to the murder before Allison faces a real life nightmare

Secrets Can be Murder Jane Velez-Mitchell, 2008-06-10 A respected television news journalist dissects the nation's most fascinating recent trials and court cases unearthing the disturbing secrets of criminals and victims and revealing how little separates a so called normal life from that of a sociopath

Loss of Control and Diminished Responsibility Alan Reed, 2016-04-22 This book provides a leading point of reference in the field of partial defences to murder and with respect to the mental condition defences of loss of control and diminished responsibility in general The work includes contributions from leading specialists from different jurisdictions Divided into two parts the first provides an analysis from the perspective of the UK looking at particular concerns such as domestic violence revenge and mixed motive killings mistaken beliefs The second part presents a comparative and international view to provide a wider background of how alternative systems treat issues of human frailty short of full insanity loss of control diminished responsibility in the context of the criminal law

The God Who Loves and Is Loved Christian D. Kettler, 2019-11-12 Can there be a greater folly than writing a book about love But how can we avoid that most basic of all desires and commands Yet we are very poor lovers as our history demonstrates If God is love though can we find help in considering the love of Jesus Christ and the love of Jesus thought of in terms of what T F Torrance called the vicarious humanity of Christ This would mean that we realize our inability and the Son of God's ability to love on our behalf and in our place Such a love mirrors the love of the Son for the Father in the Spirit a love that reflects his eternal triune love Therefore could we have new perspectives on our relationships the love of ourselves of God and the neighbor How essential is love to being human and what kind of love What does it mean to love your enemies What is the relationship between justice and love And what are the fruits of love the evidence of genuine love Christian D Kettler explores these issues in the context of the living reality of the vicarious humanity of Christ

Evangelical Calvinism Dr. Myk Habets, Bobby Grow, 2017-05-04 Continuing the discussion initiated in volume one volume two of Evangelical Calvinism further articulates the central motifs of this mood within Reformed theology by examining themes having to do with dogmatics and devotion After further clarifying the methodological and dogmatic aspects common to an Evangelical Calvinism the heart of the present volume is an explication of the vicarious ministry of Christ as it is worked out in its diverse theological dimensions The volume offers constructive accounts of various aspects of liturgy sacraments and doxology showing the vitality and lived spirituality of this Christian vision of faith and practice Both advocates and critics of Evangelical Calvinism now have an extended and thorough body of work with which to interact As with volume 1 this volume promises to set the agenda for contemporary and constructive Reformed studies in a way that provides an alternative to neo Calvinism and Westminster Calvinism alike

Media-Mediated Relationships Frank Hoffmann,B Lee Cooper,Linda K Fuller,2023-07-28 Creating a nexus between techno science and more fundamental disciplines a phenomenon is emerging in our personal lives we are beginning to preempt traditional sources for relationship formation we are becoming more insular and more cautious in starting relationships The media play an enormous role in our activities encouraging us to self advertise in newspapers and magazines to participate vicariously through pornographic and borderline books talk radio and tabloid television to use our telephones and computers for the ultimate in safe sex to engage in video dating and to explore many other aspects in the field of technoeroticism As straight and gay people alike live in a time of reluctant commitments a period of playtime and the Age of AIDS the time has come to chronicle the role of mass communication in our search for interpersonal connections Media Mediated Relationships investigates the historical economic psychological and sociocultural ramifications of the print and broadcast media motion pictures music and new communications technologies computers video interactive media virtual reality phone sex in terms of both our individual and societal concerns An extension of cultivation analysis by means of systems theory it reports on a baseline survey of over 200 people regarding relationship mediation demonstrating yet one more example of the symbiosis among and between various media sources A descriptive case study Media Mediated Relationships provides a barometer for better understanding the many singles and others searching for meaning and relationships in the sociocultural milieu of the 1990s and beyond
