Retreat From The Modern:

The Secret Life of the Modern House Dominic Bradbury, 2021-04-01 Informative and entertaining this publication is a feast for the eyes while also thought provoking and offers excellent inspiration for daydreaming about what makes the perfect modern house Wallpaper A fascinating selection of innovative homes this is a thoughtful journey through the evolution of domestic architecture Sunday Express Over the last century the way that we live at home has changed dramatically Nothing short of a design revolution has transformed our houses and the spaces within them moving from traditional patterns of living all the way through to an era of more fluid open plan and modern styles Whether we live in a new home or a period house our spaces will have been shaped one way or another by the pioneering Modernists and Mid century architects and designers who argued for a fresh way of life Architectural and design writer Dominic Bradbury charts the course of this voyage all the way from the late 19th century through to the houses of today in this ground breaking book Over nineteen thematic chapters he explains the way our houses have been reinvented while taking in along the way the giants of Art Deco influential Modernists including Le Corbusier and Frank Lloyd Wright as well as post war innovators such as Eero Saarinen and Philip Johnson Taking us from the 20th to the 21st century Bradbury explores the progress of modernity itself and reveals the secret history of our very own homes

The Vegetational History of the Middle West Henry Allan Gleason, 1923 Jute and empire Gordon T Stewart, 2017-03-01 Dundee had an interesting role to play in the jute trade but the main player in the story of jute was Calcutta This book follows the relationship of jute to empire and discusses the rivalry between the Scottish and Indian cities from the 1840s to the 1950s and reveals the architecture of jute s place in the British Empire The book adopts significant fresh approaches to imperial history and explores the economic and cultural landscapes of the British Empire Jute had been grown spun and woven in Bengal for centuries before it made its appearance as a factory manufactured product in world markets in the late 1830s The book discusses the profits made in Calcutta during the rise of jute between the 1880s and 1920s the profits reached extraordinary levels during and after World War I The Calcutta jute industry entered a crisis period even before it was pummelled by the depression of the 1930s The looming crisis stemmed from the potential of the Calcutta mills to outproduce world demand many times over The St Andrew s Day rituals in Calcutta begun three years before the founding of the Indian Jute Mills Association The ceremonial occasion helps the reader to understand what the jute wallahs meant when they said they were in Calcutta for the greater glory of Scotland The book sheds some light on the contentious issues surrounding the problematic if ever intriguing phenomenon of British Empire The jute wallahs were inextricably bound up in the cultural self images generated by British imperial ideology

Guide to the Religious Life , 1945 Elements of Tactics... O. A. Forsyth-Major, 1916 Modernity & Consumption Antonio L. Rappa, 2002 Offers an examination of modernity and consumption with a non Marxist modernity Resistance theoretical frame mRf Standard History of New Orleans, Louisiana, Giving a Description of the Natural Advantages,

Natural History ... Settlement, Indians, Creoles, Municipal and Military History, Mercantile and Commercial Interests, Banking, Transportation, Struggles Against High Water, the Press, Educational ... Etc Henry Rightor, 1900 Education and Philosophy Ansgar Allen, Roy Goddard, 2017-04-24 Philosophy is vital to the study of education and a sound knowledge of different philosophical perspectives leads to a deeper engagement with the choices and commitments you make within your educational practice This introductory text provides a core understanding of key moments in the history of Western philosophy By introducing key transition points in that history it investigates the plight of present day education a period in which the aims and purposes of education have become increasingly unclear leaving education open to the rise of instrumentalism and the forces of capital Accessibly written the book carefully analyses the common assumptions and conflicted history of education provoking questioning about its nature and purposes The authors argue vigorously that thinking critically about education from a philosophical perspective will give practicing and trainee teachers as well as students on undergraduate Education and Masters level courses a fuller command of their own role and context

Engaging Undergraduates in Publishable Research: Best Practices Traci A. Giuliano, Jeanine L. M. Skorinko, Marianne Fallon, 2019-11-20 Although many articles and books have been written about conducting research with undergraduates there is a dearth of research on the process of publishing with undergraduates Thus in this research topic we assembled a collection of 43 articles from 98 researchers worldwide who are passionate about and have had success in publishing high quality peer reviewed journal articles with undergraduates The diverse articles represent a wide range of practices to help researchers publish with undergraduates including structuring the curriculum to promote undergraduate research and publication optimizing research experiences for undergraduates training students in implementing advanced techniques accessing special populations or conducting research in off campus settings addressing institutional and career challenges for faculty and increasing inclusion and diversity Each article provides a unique and diverse perspective that nevertheless resonates across contexts and situations We hope that the ideas models techniques and practices in these articles will motivate and inspire readers to begin continue or rethink how they engage undergraduates in publishable research we also hope to stimulate empirical and quantitative research on the effectiveness of these ideas models techniques and practices Medical Record George Frederick Shrady, Thomas Lathrop Stedman, 1906 America, 1914 The Jesuit review of faith and culture Nov 13 2017 On war: tr. by J.J.
