A Cruel Paradise Leanne Olson, 2009 These are the journals of Leanne Olson a Canadian nurse who for four years worked in war zones around the world delivering medicine in Bosnia supporting rural hospitals in Africa providing aid to people in need She was one of the first foreigners on the scene of the Mokoto massacre in Zaire where more than a hundred people were killed by machete wielding Hutus She spent one Christmas pinned down by Serbian heavy artillery with a troop of Bangladeshi UN peacekeepers She immunized thousands of children in rural Liberia And she has witnessed the quick progress of ethnic cleansing watching one village after another wiped off the face of the earth

The Devil's Own War Herbert Hart, 2011-01-23 When Herbert Hart left his home town of Carterton in 1914 to serve as a major with the New Zealand Expeditionary Force he could not have imagined that he would return as a much decorated brigadier general His rise to leadership was swift as he commanded the Wellington Battalion during the closing stages of the Gallipoli campaign then went on to serve as a battalion and brigade commander on the Western Front between 1916 and 1918 During the whole of this period he kept a diary in which he recorded his experiences in the great battles on Gallipoli the Somme and Passchendaele Hart's diary is now widely regarded as one of the most important personal sources relating to the New Zealand Expeditionary Force His service on the Western Front is the principal focus of the diary Exceptionally well written it includes gripping descriptions of both combat and life behind the front line and on leave in France and the United Kingdom While Hart can appear remarkably detached at times he is also a very human observer of the events around him empathising with the plight of his men finding humour in the most unlikely situations and noticing unexpected details at moments of high tension This important book also has an introductory chapter on Hart s early life and a concluding chapter about his diverse and distinguished career after the war including his term as Administrator of Western Samoa from 1931 to 1935

The Devil's Own War John Crawford ,2009-09-01 The first hardback edition of this book sold out before its official publication date and public demand has been so great that a paperback edition will now be published Brigadier General Herbert Hart landed at Gallipoli on 26 April 1915 commanded the Wellington Battalion during the closing stages of that campaign then served as a battalion and brigade commander on the Western Front between 1916 and 1918 Throughout the war he kept a diary in which he recorded his experiences in the great battles on Gallipoli the Somme and Passchendaele Hart s diary is now widely regarded as one of the most important personal sources relating to the New Zealand Expeditionary Force Exceptionally well written it includes gripping descriptions of both combat and life behind the front line and on leave in France and United Kingdom While Hart can appear quite detached at times he is also a very human observer of the events around him understanding the plight of his men finding humour in the most unlikely situations and noticing unexpected details at moments of high tension As a first hand account of life in the firestorm of World War One The Devil s Own War is hard to beat

Return of the Football Fossils Bob Hurt,2000-03 After losing its entire football staff in a cyberspace cheating scandal at mid season Southwestern State turned in desperation to six former coaches who retired in the Phoenix area These recycled coaches leaped at the chance to return to the game they loved and missed The six Dan Devine Frank Kush Darryl Rogers Chuck Fairbanks Al Onofrio and Jack Mitchell Never in their coaching careers had these six Football Fossils had as much fun as they did in Southwestern s final six games With no worries about job security and no hesitancy in expressing themselves the Fossils thumbed noses at alumnae busy bodies stuffy academic people spoiled players and obnoxious media representatives They delighted in running old trick plays they dared not use with their jobs on the line They validated an old axiom that nothing is new in football by borrowing frequently from strategy and speeches used in their heydays They won over doubting players and suspicious fans with their devil may care approach And they won games Heck they even took on college s ruling body the NCAA And they became heroes to the Geritol for lunch bunch

Colonization K. D. McAdams,2019-02-24 Luck played a big part in getting them safely to a new planet Will the good fortune continue or is their luck about to run out Book 3 of The Seamus Chronicles As a scientist Seamus Robinson prefers facts over chance The harsh truth is that crashing into a planet that can support human life was never part of the plan it was just good luck His father has dubbed the new planet Locus Latin for opportunity and they are ready to put in the hard work to establish a human colony away from Earth The opportunity may be short lived as the planet is bombarded with poisonous radiation and home to an unknown alien species If the human race is going to survive Seamus will have to use
