WEINER, 1990 Screen World Presents the Encyclopedia of Hollywood Film Actors: From the silent era to 1965 Barry Monush, 2003 Applause Books

For decades Screen World has been the film professional's as well as the film buff's favorite and indispensable annual screen resource full of all the necessary statistics and facts. Now Screen World editor Barry Monush has compiled another comprehensive work for every film lover's library. In the first of two volumes this book chronicles the careers of every significant film actor from the earliest silent screen stars Chaplin, Pickford, Fairbanks to the mid 1960s when the old studio and star systems came crashing down. Each listing includes a brief biography, photos from the famed Screen World archives with many rare shots, vital statistics, a comprehensive filmography, and an informed, entertaining assessment of each actor's contributions, good or bad. In addition to every major player, Monush includes the legions of unjustly neglected troupers of yesteryear. The result is a rarity: an invaluable reference tool that's as much fun to read as a scandal sheet. It pulsates with all the scandal, glamour, oddity, and glory that was the lifeblood of its subjects. Contains over 1,000 photos. Motion Pictures Library of Congress, Copyright Office, 1951. There was a time when American popular entertainment referred only to radio and motion pictures. With the coming of talking pictures, Hollywood cashed in on the success of big time network radio by bringing several of the public's favorite broadcast personalities and programs to the screen. The results, though occasionally successful, often proved conclusively that some things are better heard than seen. Concentrating primarily on radio's Golden Age 1926-1962, this lively history discusses the cinematic efforts of airwave stars Rudy Vallee, Amos n Andy, Fred Allen, Joe Penner, Fibber McGee, Molly Edgar, Bergen Lum Abner, and many more. Also analyzed are the movie versions of such radio series as The Shadow, Dr. Christian, and The Life of Riley. In addition, two recent films starring contemporary radio headliners Howard Stern and Garrison Keillor are given their due. Video Source Book Gale
