Reunion Twenty Five Years Out Of School:

Twenty-five Year Follow-up of Educational-vocational Counseling David P. Campbell, 1964      After 25 Years Out Yale University. Sheffield Scientific School. Class of 1921, 1948      Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1975      Most Likely to Die Jaqueline Girdner, 2014-04-01 Kate Jasper Marin County California's own organically grown amateur sleuth returns in this seventh mystery in the series Kate's twenty fifth high school reunion was bad enough but the post reunion barbecue for the old gang was a real shock Kate lends her own pinball machine Hot Flash to Sid Semling the week before his barbecue party Sid master prankster and live wire does his own wiring on the pinball machine so it spews sexist menopausal insults as fast as he does But when he steps up to play pinball at the party it zaps the jokes right out of him The machine's been rigged for electrocution and Kate scores as the primary suspect Everyone was annoyed by Sid but it was Kate's pinball machine that made him the first man to die from a Hot Flash She must short circuit the real culprit before she becomes the next Most Likely to Die      Friends Disappear Mary Barr, 2014-10-30 A sociologist returns to her suburban Illinois hometown to compare the paths of black and white childhood friends in a fascinating mix of study and memoir Chicago Tribune Mary Barr thinks a lot about the old photograph on her refrigerator door In it she and a dozen or so friends from the Chicago suburb of Evanston sit on a porch It's 1974 the summer after they graduated from Nichols Middle School and what strikes her immediately aside from the Soul Train era clothes is the diversity of the group boys and girls black and white in the variety of poses you'd expect from a bunch of friends on the verge of high school But the photo also speaks to the history of Evanston to integration and to the ways that those in the picture experienced and remembered growing up in a place that many at that time considered to be a racial utopia In Friends Disappear Barr goes back to her old neighborhood and pieces together a history of Evanston with a particular emphasis on its neighborhoods its schools and its work life She finds that there is a detrimental myth of integration surrounding Evanston despite bountiful evidence of actual segregation both in the archives and from the life stories of her subjects Curiously the city's own desegregation plan is partly to blame The initiative called for the redistribution of students from an all black elementary school to institutions situated in white neighborhoods That however required busing and between the tensions it generated and obvious markers of class difference the racial divide far from being closed was widened Friends Disappear highlights how racial divides limited the life chances of blacks while providing opportunities for whites and offers an insider's perspective on the social practices that doled out benefits and penalties based on race despite attempts to integrate Barr's gripping exploration of the divergent paths friends took away from a childhood snapshot combines the rigor of scholarship with the personal touch of memoir I have rarely read a book that so effectively illustrates the persistence of racial disparities in the United States with unforgettable wrenching life stories Amanda Seligman University of Wisconsin Milwaukee Honorable Mention Midwest Sociological Society Distinguished Book Award      The Colorado School of Mines Magazine
