Revealing Lives Lillian S. Robinson, Stanford University. Center for Research on Women, 1990-01-01 Arnim Bettina von Hugo Ad le Wolf Christa Mill John Stuart Thackeray Ritchie Anne Shortridge Foltz Clara Collaborative Autoethnography Heewon Chang, Faith Ngunjiri, Kathy-Ann C Hernandez, 2016-06-16 A practical guide providing researchers with a variety of data collection analytic and writing techniques to conduct collaborative autoethnography projects Enjoying Research in Counselling and Psychotherapy Sofie Bager-Charleson, Alistair McBeath, 2020-12-23 This textbook provides a guide to the development of a rigorous and creative research supported practice for students practitioners and researchers in counselling and psychotherapy With an emphasis on critical thinking and research mindedness it introduces practical research skills and links them to self awareness and critical reflection Learning how to creatively and effectively use oneself in the treatment process is an essential component in therapy training and this level of self awareness has long been a neglected area in research until now With examples ranging from private therapeutic practice to psychiatric related research each chapter combines how to do it advice with illustrative real life examples The authors outline the use of a broad range of research methods embracing Arts as well as RCT based research and covering qualitative quantitative pluralistic and mixed methods approaches Whether you are engaging with research for the first time or already developing your own research projects if you are a student at diploma level or taking a Postgraduate research course for counsellors psychotherapists and counselling psychotherapists this is essential reading for anyone looking for a book that combines self awareness with analytical and practical skills Evangelism Remixed Dave Rahn, Terry D. Linhart, 2009-08-08 One of the primary goals of a youth ministry is to help students learn to share their faith with people in their lives However evangelism often proves to be one of the toughest parts of student ministry But evangelism and teenagers don't have to be mutually exclusive terms After two years of intense research visiting the most effective youth ministries in the country youth ministry veterans Dave Rahn and Terry Linhart offer youth workers tools to help develop students whose faith is courageous and contagious In this thought provoking yet practical book youth workers will be reminded of the importance of helping students develop to the point where they naturally influence others for Christ in their everyday lives Evangelism Remixed offers principles that enable youth workers to evaluate their ministry's evangelism effectiveness and provides step by step tools to help them put the concepts into real life practice including the importance of the role of adults as mentors and incorporating prayer into the process Understanding Narrative Inquiry Jeong-Hee Kim, 2015-03-03 Understanding Narrative Inquiry The Crafting and Analysis of Stories as Research is a comprehensive thought provoking introduction to narrative inquiry in the social and human sciences that guides readers through the entire narrative inquiry process from locating narrative inquiry in the interdisciplinary context through the philosophical and theoretical underpinnings to narrative research design data collection excavating stories data analysis and interpretation and theorizing narrative meaning Six extracts from exemplary studies

together with questions for discussion are provided to show how to put theory into practice Rich in stories from author Jeong Hee Kim's own research endeavors and incorporating chapter opening vignettes that illustrate a graduate student's research dilemma the book not only accompanies readers through the complex process of narrative inquiry with ample examples but also helps raise their consciousness about what it means to be a qualitative researcher and a narrative inquirer in particular

Culturally Sensitive Research Methods for Educational Administration and Leadership Eugenie A. Samier, Eman S. ElKaleh, 2023-09-01 This book explores the multicultural and non Western contexts behind the approaches problems and issues that arise in research methodologies when used in relation to educational administration and leadership This volume argues that increasing internationalisation and diversity of the field requires research methods that better reflect the values cultures political systems and conditions of non Western communities and countries Discussing the research methods data collection practices interpretive approaches and research ethics that produce more accurate and authentic results the book looks at a number of theoretical frameworks and epistemological approaches that inform the development of such methodologies Traditional methods like sharing circles and storytelling are explored as well as an examination of social space in designing methodology aimed at spatial justice and an exploration of methods for Indigenous communities in East Asia A valuable resource for researchers scholars and students with an interest in multicultural education the book will also appeal to academics interested in race ethics and educational research methods more broadly

The Text is Myself Miriam Fuchs, 2004 German Jewish novelist Grete Weil fled to Holland but her husband was arrested there and murdered by the Nazis Chilean novelist Isabel Allende fled her country after her uncle Salvador Allende was assassinated and she later lost her daughter to disease

Intimacy in Illegality Flaminia Bartolini, 2021-01-12 How do migrant women living in illegality build intimate relationships How do they experience resist or take advantage of the tight link between intimacy and migration status created by the German migration legislation Drawing on rich biographical accounts and ethnographic methods the book offers an insightful and sensitive look at a mostly unknown aspect of life in illegality Adopting a critical feminist perspective Flaminia Bartolini shows how intimacy should be understood in its intrinsic power dimension and looks critically at the German migration regime and on its effects on migrants lives

Complexity and Organisations Kiran Chauhan, Chris Mowles, 2024-11-29 Virtually everyone accepts that workplaces are complex but there is little insight into how we might engage with complexity more skilfully If complexity isn't something that managers can control and leaders cannot harness then what does a complexity perspective offer This fourth book in the complexity series describes how taking complexity seriously can inform approaches to understanding organisations It focuses on the ways that managers and researchers can engage with their own histories to better understand their working lives how they may be participating in maintaining the very processes they are trying to change and how research methods can shed light on politics of working together The chapter authors work in a wide variety of sectors and draw on their experience to produce vibrant writing which will resonate with managers and leaders who want to explore how they might understand their working lives differently and to students who are using first person reflexive research methodologies Drawn from contemporary research in a wide variety of organisations this book makes a valuable contribution to manager researchers wanting to think differently about their intractable and enduring everyday dilemmas Hospitable Witnessing Priscilla Sun Kyung Oh,2018-06-18 Drawing on her own experience of befriending a person suffering from a long term mental health challenge Priscilla Oh reflects on the meaning of care and friendship theologically Using autoethnography she goes beyond the personal experience and examines various issues surrounding mental health Hospitable Witnessing candidly takes readers into the everyday life of being with a mentally ill person There are emotional challenges and contingencies in sustaining friendship and caring for a person with a long term mental health problem Oh points out that those who care for a loved one during a long term illness inevitably experience burnout resulting from the constant care requirements Under such an enormous disruption we need to be compassionate toward another s suffering and be willing to be present and available for them This book suggests our need of one another and identifies three important Christian practices caring as we are being made in the image of God compassion as being present with the sufferer and lament as to revitalize our faith and hope

Empowering Young People in Disempowering Times Hans-Uwe Otto,Valerie Egdell,Jean-Michel Bonvin,Roland Atzmüller,2017-12-29 Following the 2008 economic crisis the situation for young people deteriorated dramatically in many European countries Employment and training opportunities have reduced and levels of poverty and social exclusion have increased This book evaluates both institutional frameworks and programmes as well as the quantitative and qualitative basis of judgements in European youth policies that dominate current strategies This book evaluates both institutional frameworks and programmes as well as the quantitative and qualitative basis of judgements in European youth policies Reframing Qualitative Research Ethics Helen Busby,2025-05-20 This book contains three Open Access chapters Reframing Qualitative Research Ethics explores contemporary challenges in qualitative research ethics and generates proposals for reforming ethics review based on researchers experience on the ground to support innovative qualitative research in the future In the Name of Humanity Ilana Feldman,2010-11-30 Collection of essays that consider how humanity as a social ethical and political category is produced through particular governing techniques and in turn gives rise to new forms of government
