Reversed Realities Naila Kabeer, 1994 A dynamic reassessment of development theory with a focus on gender this book examines alternative frameworks for analyzing gender hierarchies identifies the household as the primary site for the construction of power relations assesses the inadequacy of the poverty line as a measuring tool and provides a critical overview of population control

Chican@ Artivistas Martha Gonzalez, 2020-07-27 As the lead singer of the Grammy Award winning rock band Quetzal and a scholar of Chicana o and Latina o studies Martha Gonzalez is uniquely positioned to articulate the ways in which creative expression can serve the dual roles of political commentary and community building Drawing on postcolonial Chicana black feminist and performance theories Chican Artivistas explores the visual musical and performance art produced in East Los Angeles since the inception of NAFTA and the subsequent anti immigration rhetoric of the 1990s Showcasing the social impact made by key artist activists on their communities and on the mainstream art world and music industry Gonzalez charts the evolution of a now canonical body of work that took its inspiration from the Zapatista movement particularly its masked indigenous participants and that responded to efforts to impose systems of labor exploitation and social subjugation Incorporating Gonzalez s memories of the Mexican nationalist music of her childhood and her band s journey to Chiapas the book captures the mobilizing music poetry dance and art that emerged in pre gentrification corners of downtown Los Angeles and that went on to inspire flourishing networks of bold innovative artivistas

Religion and Social Development in Post-apartheid South Africa Ignatius Swart, Hermann Rocher, Sulina Green, Johannes Erasmus, 2010-10-01 It reflects original research and contributes to new developments in the field of theology and religion with regard to its developmental role within a transformation context The book may easily stand out in future as seminal in the way that it promoted the social development debate of the church and its organisational structures from an interdisciplinary focus Prof Antoinette Lombard Department of Social Work and Criminology University of Pretoria

Adapting Gender and Development to Local Religious Contexts Romina Istratii, 2020-10-01 This book provides a critical and decolonial analysis of gender and development theory and practice in religious societies through the presentation of a detailed ethnographic study of conjugal violence in Ethiopia Responding to recent consensus that gender mainstreaming approaches have failed to produce their intended structural changes Romina Istratii explains that gender and development analytical and theoretical frameworks are often constructed through western Euro centric lenses ill equipped to understand gender related realities and human behaviour in non western religious contexts and knowledge systems Instead Istratii argues for an approach to gender sensitive research and practice which is embedded in insiders conceptual understandings as a basis to theorise about gender assess the possible gendered underpinnings of local issues and design appropriate alleviation strategies Drawing on a detailed study of conjugal abuse realities and attitudes in two villages and the city of Aksum in Northern Ethiopia she demonstrates how religious knowledge can be engaged in the design and implementation of remedial interventions This book carefully evidences the importance of integrating religious traditions and spirituality in current discussions of sustainable development in Africa and speaks to researchers and practitioners of gender religion and development in Africa scholars of non western Christianities and Ethiopian studies and domestic violence researchers and practitioners The Power to Choose Naila Kabeer,2002-08-17 Naila Kabeer examines the lives of women workers in different urban centers to shed light on the question of what constitutes fair competition in international trade Human Security and Empowerment in Asia Mely Caballero-Anthony,Yoichi Mine,Sachiko Ishikawa,2023-10-26 In the context of the COVID 19 pandemic this edited volume revisits the framework of human security and development It examines the protection empowerment nexus as applied to various vulnerable groups and populations affected by the pandemic While the conventional human security literature has focused on top down protection this book offers new perspectives on human security by exploring bottom up empowerment from both theoretical and practical perspectives It also encourages readers to rethink the agency of vulnerable people in addressing the challenges posed by the pandemic Through eight case studies from Southeast Asia and Japan the contributors to this book demonstrate the importance of empowerment in achieving human security They focus on the responses of vulnerable groups and communities to multiple threats to their lives livelihoods and dignity The chapters discuss key human security concerns such as poverty the environment food forced migration gender health aging peace and justice all of which have been compounded and exacerbated by the COVID 19 pandemic An essential resource for students and scholars of human security in the aftermath of COVID 19 and its wider impacts The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license Funded by JICA Ogata Sadako Research Institute for Peace and Development Gender, Sexuality and Social Justice Silke Heumann,Camilo Antillón Najlis,2023-11-27 This book addresses the intersections of gender sexuality and social justice in relation to dominant development and policy discourses and interventions Bringing together young scholars from Latin America Africa and Asia the book challenges dominant assumptions on sexuality in development discourse policy and practice and proposes alternative approaches Reflecting on both the global north and the global south this book investigates key social justice issues from teenage pregnancy child marriage discourses sexual empowerment to sexual diversity female imprisonment and sexuality militarism and sexuality anti trafficking policies and processes of racialization and othering in the context of migration Overall the book challenges binary constructs and argues for an intersectional perspective on gender and sexual diversity as a problem of structural inequality that interacts with other systems of inequality based on race age class and geopolitics This book will be of interest to social scientists and activists as well as development scholars and practitioners engaging with questions of gender sexuality and social justice Feminist Perspectives on Politics Chris Corrin,2014-07-10 Feminist Perspectives on Politics considers how feminist perspectives have considerably broadened the scope of what is considered political Themes and issues covered range from nineteenth century debates around women's equality and liberation to twentieth century arguments and activities towards gaining a more nuanced understanding of women's differences and diversity. Difference remains a key term in contemporary feminisms and the author examines debates engendered from women's liberation politics to open up discussion of Black feminisms, lesbian politics and disabled feminist agendas. Formal political participation and the impact of women's movement politics are assessed in global comparisons as are the debates surrounding discourses on development and transnational politics and the influence of women at local, national and international levels. The book will be essential reading for students at all levels across the fields of Politics, Women's Studies, Sociology, History, Cultural Studies, Political Economy and Development Studies more generally such as in studies concerned with anti-racism, gender, social policy and the history of ideas within educational institutions, local government and voluntary organisations.

Women of Asia Mehrangiz Najafizadeh, Linda Lindsey, 2018-07-11. With thirty two original chapters reflecting cutting edge content throughout developed and developing Asia. Women of Asia: Globalization, Development and Gender Equity is a comprehensive anthology that contributes significantly to understanding globalization's transformative process and the resulting detrimental and beneficial consequences for women in the four major geographic regions of Asia: East Asia, Southeast Asia, South Asia and Eurasia. Central Asia as it gives voice to women and provides innovative ways through which salient understudied issues pertaining to Asian women's situation are brought to the forefront.

Alternative Development Cathrine Brun, Piers Blaikie, 2016-03-23. This book brings together a collection of essays that discuss alternative development and its relevance for local/global processes of marginalization and change in the Global South. Alternative development questions who the producers of development knowledges and practices are and aims at decentring development and geographical knowledge from the Anglo-American centre and the Global North. It involves resistance to dominant political/economic processes in order to further the possibilities for non-exploitative and just forms of development. By discussing how to unravel marginalization and voice change through alternative methods, actors and concepts, the book provides useful guidance on understanding the relationship between theory and practice. The main strength of the book is that it calls for a central role for alternative development in the current development discourse, most notably related to justice, rights, globalization, forced migration, conflict and climate change. The book provides new ways of engaging with alternative development thinking and making development alternatives relevant.

Soviet and Post-Soviet Sexualities Richard C.M. Mole, 2019-01-23. Despite Soviet Russia having been one of the first major powers to decriminalise homosexual acts between men, attitudes towards lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) people in contemporary Russia and the other post-Soviet states have become increasingly hostile with the introduction of laws restricting their rights and an increase in homophobic violence. This book explores how this situation has come about. It discusses how meanings attached to non-heteronormative sexualities have been constructed for specific socio-political purposes by elites in line with Marxist-Leninist or nationalist thought, explores how attitudes to non normative sexualities developed historically and examines the current situation in the post Soviet space including Russia Transcaucasia Central Asia and the Baltic States The book provides a wealth of detail on this understudied subject and assesses how LGBT subjects are responding to this state of affairs Governing the Female Body Lori Reed,Paula Saukko,2012-02-01 Drawing on Foucault s notion of governmentality this collection explores relations between the intimate governance of bodies and political governance The contributors offer empirically grounded yet theoretically sophisticated case studies showing how gendered racialized and socioeconomic agendas structure medical and scientific practices Developing and utilizing a poststructuralist feminist framework the chapters investigate emerging gendered discourses and practices around health such as breast cancer charities lifestyle genetic testing new reproductive technologies and the development and marketing of various psychotropic and hormonal drugs This will be a key reader for anyone interested in the social implications of cutting edge medical technologies Microfinance in India Tara S. Nair,2018-10-24 This volume presents a comprehensive analysis of microfinance initiatives in India Through substantive field research and case studies ranging across the country it examines Indian microfinance within its distinct socio economic realities the role of women financial inclusion rural entrepreneurship and innovation its interactions with multiple institutions the challenges as well as future directions Resistance in Everyday Life Nandita Chaudhary,Pernille Hviid,Giuseppina Marsico,Jakob Waag Villadsen,2017-07-10 This book is about resistance in everyday life illustrated through empirical contexts from different parts of the world Resistance is a widespread phenomenon in biological social and psychological domains of human cultural development Yet it is not well articulated in the academic literature and when it is resistance is most often considered counter productive Simple evaluations of resistance as positive or negative are avoided in this volume instead it is conceptualised as a vital process for human development and well being While resistance is usually treated as an extraordinary occurrence the focus here is on everyday resistance as an intentional process where new meaning constructions emerge in thinking feeling acting or simply living with others Resistance is thus conceived as a meaning making activity that operates at the intersection of personal and collective systems The contributors deal with strategies for handling dissent by individuals or groups specifically dissent through resistance Resistance can be a location of intense personal interpersonal and cultural negotiation and that is the primary reason for interest in this phenomenon Ordinary life events contain innumerable instances of agency and resistance This volume discusses their manifestations and it is therefore of interest for academics and researchers of cultural psychology cultural studies anthropology sociology and human development Connecting ICTs to Development Heloise Emdon,Laurent Elder,Ben Petrazzini,Richard Fuchs,2013-12-01 Over the past two decades projects supported by the International Development Research Centre IDRC have critically examined the ways in which information and communications technologies ICTs can be used to improve learning empower the disenfranchised generate income opportunities for the poor and facilitate access to healthcare in Africa Asia Latin America and the Caribbean Considering that most development institutions and governments are currently attempting to integrate ICTs into their practices it is an opportune time to reflect on the research findings that have emerged from IDRC s work and research in this area Connecting ICTs to Development discusses programmatic investments made by IDRC in a wide variety of areas related to ICTs including infrastructure access regulations health governance education livelihoods social inclusion technical innovation intellectual property rights and evaluation Each chapter in this book analyzes the ways in which research findings from IDRC supported projects have contributed to an evolution of thinking and discusses successes and challenges in using ICTs as tools to address development issues The volume also presents key lessons learned from ICT4D programming and recommendations for future work
