D.), Harold John Butcher, T. Christie, 1968 Contributions from Science Education Research European Science Education Research Association. International Conference, 2007-09-18 In August 2005 over 500 researchers from the field of science education met at the 5th European Science Education Research Association conference Two of the main topics at this conference were the decrease in the number of students interested in school science and concern about the worldwide outcomes of studies on students scientific literacy This volume includes edited versions of 37 outstanding papers presented including the lectures of the keynote speakers The Cambridge Primary Review Research Surveys Robin Alexander, Christine Doddington, John Gray, Linda Hargreaves, Ruth Kershner, 2012-08-06 The Cambridge Primary Review Research Surveys is the outcome of the Cambridge Primary Review England's biggest enquiry into primary education for over forty years Fully independent of government it was launched in 2006 to investigate the condition and future of primary education at a time of change and uncertainty and after two decades of almost uninterrupted reform Ranging over ten broad themes and drawing on a vast array of evidence the Review published thirty one interim reports including twenty eight surveys of published research provoking media headlines and public debate before presenting its final report and recommendations This book brings together the twenty eight research surveys specially commissioned from sixty five leading academics in the areas under scrutiny and now revised and updated to create what is probably the most comprehensive overview and evaluation of research in primary education yet published. A particular feature is the prominence given to international and comparative perspectives. With an introduction from Robin Alexander, the Review's director, the book is divided into eight sections covering children's lives and voices, school, home and community, children's development, learning, diversity and needs, aims, values and contexts for primary education, the structure and content of primary education, outcomes, standards and assessment in primary education, teaching in primary schools, structures and processes, teaching in primary schools, training, development and workforce reform, policy, frameworks, governance, funding, reform and quality assurance. The Cambridge Primary Review Research Surveys is an essential reference tool for professionals, researchers, students and policy makers working in the fields of early years, primary and secondary education.

Higher Education: Handbook of Theory and Research 18 J.C. Smart, 2003-09-30. This title consists of 19 essays dealing with the medical knowledge and beliefs of cultures outside of the United States and Europe. In addition to articles surveying Islamic, Chinese, Native American, Aboriginal, Australian, Indian, Egyptian and Tibetan medicine, the book includes essays on comparing Chinese and western medicine and religion, the medical practices to the cultures which produced them. Each essay is well illustrated and contains an extensive bibliography. Because the geographic range is global, the book should fill a gap in both the history of medicine and in cultural studies. It should find a place on the bookshelves of advanced undergraduate students, graduate students and scholars as well as in libraries serving those groups.
