Architecture of the Museum Michaela Giebelhausen,2003-11-08 From the Louvre to the Bilbao Guggenheim and Tate Modern the museum has had a long standing relationship with the city Examination of the meaning of museum architecture in the urban environment considering issues such as forms of civic representation urban regeneration cultural tourism and the museumification of the city itself Ranging from the seventeenth century to the present day case studies are drawn from Europe South America and Australia Contributions written by J Birksted V Fraser H Lewi D J Meijers and others Arts & Humanities Citation Index ,1993 German Architecture for a Mass Audience Kathleen James-Chakraborty,2002-09-06 This book vividly illustrates the ways in which buildings designed by many of Germany s most celebrated twentieth century architects were embedded in widely held beliefs about the power of architecture to influence society German Architecture for a Mass Audience also demonstrates the way in which these modernist ideas have been challenged and transformed most recently in the rebuilding of central Berlin The United States and Germany in the Era of the Cold War, 1945-1990 Detlef Junker,Philipp Gassert,Wilfried Mausbach,David B. Morris,2004-05-17 Publisher Description The Architectural Review ,2005 Encyclopedia of Twentieth Century Architecture R. Stephen Sennott,2004 A balance of sophistication and clarity in the writing authoritative entries and strong cross referencing that links architects and structures to entries on the history and theory of the profession make this an especially useful source on a century of the world s most notable architecture The contents feature major architects firms and professional issues buildings styles and sites the architecture of cities and countries critics and historians construction materials and planning topics schools movements and stylistic and theoretical terms Entries include well selected bibliographies and illustrations Reference that rocks American Libraries May 2005 Diller Scofidio + Renfro Edward Dimendberg,2013-03-20 In Diller Scofidio Renfro Architecture after Images Edward Dimendberg offers the first comprehensive treatment of one of the most imaginative contemporary design studios Since founding their practice in 1979 Elizabeth Diller and Ricardo Scofidio have integrated architecture urban design media art and the performing arts in a dazzling array of projects which include performances art installations and books in addition to buildings and public spaces At the center of this work is a fascination with vision and a commitment to questioning the certainty and security long associated with architecture Dimendberg provides an extensive overview of these concerns and the history of the studio revealing how principals Elizabeth Diller Ricardo Scofidio and Charles Renfro continue to expand the definition of architecture question the nature of space and vision in contemporary culture and produce work that is endlessly surprising and rewarding from New York s High Line to Blur an artificial cloud and Facsimile a video screen that moves around a building facade Dimendberg also explores the relation of work by DS R to that by earlier modernists such as Marcel Duchamp and John Hejduk He reveals how the fascination of the architects with evolving forms of media technology and building materials has produced works that unsettle distinctions among architecture and other media Based on interviews with the architects their clients and collaborators as well as unprecedented access to unpublished documents sketchbook entries and archival records Diller Scofidio Renfro is the most thorough consideration of DS R in any language Illustrated with many previously unpublished renderings in addition to photos from significant contemporary photographers this book is an essential study of one of the most significant and creative architecture and design studios working today American Abstract Expressionism Anne MacPhee, David Thistlewood, 1993-01-01 The question of what kind of city we are trying to have is an urgent one as the world continues its dramatic urbanization Urban Visions presumes that an understanding of our urban experience is a prerequisite for envisioning what the city could be In assembling work by distinguished authors from different disciplines and countries Urban Visions offers a patient examination of what urban experience is and of the city's necessity with explicit and implicit propositions about what it could be The book is illustrated in full color Lessons for

Exhibitions, and Programs National Endowment for the Humanities. Division of Public Programs, 1997-07 The Museums of Contemporary Art J. Pedro Lorente, 2016-03-03 Where how by whom and for what were the first museums of contemporary art created These are the key questions addressed by J Pedro Lorente in this new book In it he explores the concept and history of museums of contemporary art and the shifting ways in which they have been imagined and presented Following an introduction that sets out the historiography and considering questions of terminology the first part of the book then examines the paradigm of the Musée des Artistes Vivants in Paris and its equivalents in the rest of Europe during the nineteenth century The second part takes the story forward from 1930 to the present presenting New York's Museum of Modern Art as a new universal role model that found emulators or contramodels in the rest of the Western world during the twentieth century An epilogue reviews recent museum developments in the last decades Through its adoption of a long term worldwide perspective the book not only provides a narrative of the development of museums of contemporary art but also sets this into its international perspective By assessing the extent to which the great museum capitals Paris London and New York in particular created their own models of museum provision as well as acknowledging the influence of such models elsewhere the book uncovers fascinating perspectives on the practice of museum provision and reveals how present cultural planning initiatives have often been shaped by historical uses Anchoring Steven Holl, 1991 One of our most popular titles
