Revitalizing Faith Through Pastoral Counseling:

Revitalizing Faith Through Pastoral Counseling Ryan LaMothe, 2001      Human Development and Faith (Second Edition) Felicity B. Kelcourse, 2015-07-28 This book now in its second edition brings together the best available understandings of human development from a multidisciplinary perspective Uniquely inclusive of the moral and faith dimensions of context and life cycle development Human Development and Faith examines the interplay of mind body family community and soul at every stage of development It addresses two central questions What are the good enough conditions of parenting family and community in each phase of life from birth to death which support growth and development What gives life adequate meaning as development proceeds If human development describes the normative and hoped for passages of life then faith provides the necessary component of meaning Throughout the various perspectives offered in this volume is the premise that faith is that quality of living that makes it possible to fully live The Journal of Pastoral Theology called the first edition of Human Development and Faith an excellent text for pastoral theology courses because it fulfills its ambitious goal of bringing a holistic faith perspective to the usual topics of development This second edition includes a new chapter on infancy updates reflecting our growing awareness of cultural diversity and a new preface      Revitalizing Relationships

Catherine Ducommun-Nagy, Hanneke Meulink-Korf, Greteke De Vries, 2023-06-22 This book about revitalizing family and social relationships in an increasingly diverse and polarized world should become a resource for a vast array of professionals in the fields of mental health and social and community services It will also serve as a textbook on contextual therapy and its applications that fills a gap in the literature on this approach It will present it in a highly understandable language using a new terminology Hence this book will meet the needs of many contextual therapists and contextually inspired pastoral counselors at any level of expertise For other professionals this book can open new ways of thinking and new strategies to address many of the situations they are likely to encounter In addition in a format never tried before this book includes a section dedicated to contributions of contextual therapy to practical theology the pastoral process and interfaith studies It will also present the contributions of these studies to the facilitation of interfaith encounters that can serve as a model for any professional working in a multicultural environment      From Nazareth to Skid Row: The Real Reality of Skid Row: Systemic and Homiletic Insights

Rev. Jeffrey R. Thomas, PhD, 2014-08-28 The Real Reality of Skid Row A Practical Theology Perspective looks with an unblinking eye at the details of the lives of homeless people and uses the portraits that emerge as the perspective from which to think theologically about the challenges they face and calling the church hears to offer its witness to them Rev Jeffrey R Thomas PhD drawing upon his time serving as a pastor of a congregation in Skid Row Los Angeles sketches out the contours of individuals lives analyzes the personal and societal factors that contribute to their circumstances and suggests approaches for shaping the church s responses in both word and deed      Basic Types of Pastoral Care & Counseling Howard John Clinebell, Howard Clinebell, Bridget Clare McKeever, 2011 Basic Types of Pastoral Care and Counseling remains the standard in pastoral care and counseling This third edition is enlarged and revised with updated resources methods exercises and illustrations from actual counseling sessions This book will help readers be sensitive to cultural diversity ethical issues and power dynamics as they practice holistic growth oriented pastoral care and counseling in the parish

Pastoral Counseling in Africa and the West Ibidun B. Daramola, 2018-07-14 This is the first time an author has listened to pastors in Africa and compared her findings with pastoral counseling from a Western perspective Pastoral Counseling in Africa and the West presents a practical record of pastoral counseling in Africa It accounts for the wide difference between pastoral counseling in Africa and the West considering that pastoral counselors in Africa received Western theological training It presents a theological perspective of the pastoral counseling ministry in Africa and the West It also presents both perspectives as professional partners in conversation with each other Thank God for providing trained experts like Dr Daramola to enlighten His people I have every confidence this publication is only the first installment More GRACE to her elbows Emmanuel Oladipo Former International Secretary Scripture Union

Reviving Christian Humanism Don S. Browning, 2009-11-30 Browning argues that the time is right for religious intellectuals in conversation with the social sciences to reinvigorate the deep humanistic strands of the grand religions and enter into global interfaith dialogue on that basis Concentrating on the Christian heritage he draws on such diverse disciplines to envision a broader canvas for psychology a keener theological use of new insights from psychology a more complex understanding of how personal change is fostered a recognition of the indispensable role of institutions in personal formation and ethical deliberation and a deeper spirituality that directly feeds the common human endeavor and the public good

Ministry with Persons with Mental Illness and Their Families, Second Edition Robert H. Albers, William H. Meller, Steven D. Thurber, 2019-12-03 Those who are afflicted as well as those who are adversely affected by mental illness often live lives of quiet desperation without recourse to appropriate assistance Most caregivers confronted with these illnesses in the work of ministry have had no training or accurate information about mental illnesses so frequently they do nothing resulting in further harm and damage Others may operate out of a theological system that does not adequately account for the nature severity or treatment of these illnesses In Ministry with Persons with Mental Illness and Their Families Second Edition psychiatrists and pastoral theologians come together in an interdisciplinary collaborative effort to ensure accuracy of information concerning the medical dimensions of mental illness interpret these illnesses from a faith perspective and make suggestions relative to effective ministry Readers will learn how science and a faith tradition can not only co exist but work in tandem to alleviate the pain of the afflicted and affected

Community Renewal Thru Rejuvenation of the Soul Rev. William E Coleman Jr., 2012-04-24 This book is about changing a community from the inside out How do you change an Urban community Rejuvenation When rejuvenation takes place we are a new creation brand new new hands new feet new look new life new ways of seeing new ways of being new ways of living and new ways of being in relationship together Thank God I once was in exile a stranger on earth a sinner by choice an alien by birth But I have been rescued My address has changed I am an heir to new dwellings to a robe and a crown of life for life in life life unto life And I must share the gifts of God with my people Thanks be to God A Blueprint for Urban Renewal Community Renewal can only be achieved through the I R I S E approach adopted and developed by W E C Resource Group and tested with the Cooperation and buy in of a committed community group This is community building and capacity building modality Brainstorm the community needs I R I S E is an acronym for Using Integrated Resources to instill self Sufficiency and Empowerment First all that is done must be spiritually driven and grounded in scriptures and biblical references Find a community leader or leaders and develop trust Start a Civic Association select officers Identify and Coordinate the resources to support the community renewal I R I S E Bring the community together working through the community leaders determine the purpose build consensus determine an evergreen time table meetings projects How to s Organize the short term base Build trust and rejuvenate the souls of community residents Make a connection with the broader community i e businesses schools service providers Strengthen relationships build sustainable forums for fellowships community organizing etc Military Chaplains' Review ,1982 Reviving the Black Church Thabiti Anyabwile,2015-10-01 Is the Black Church dying The picture is mixed and there are many challenges The church needs spiritual revival But reviving and strengthening the Black Church will require great wisdom and courage Reviving the Black Church calls us back to another time borrowing the wisdom of earlier faithful Christians But more importantly it calls us back to the Bible itself For there we find the divine wisdom needed to see all quarters of the Black Church live again thriving in the Spirit of God It s pastor and church planter Thabiti Anyabwile s humble prayer that this book might be useful to pastors and faithful lay members in reviving at least some quarters of the Black Church and churches of every ethnicity and context all for the glory of God Beyond Simple Belief JF Jeff Etchberger with JL Julie Lopes,2021-03-16 This book focuses on how God transforms simple belief that which enables us to believe in Jesus Christ as the Son of God who died for our sins into genuine faith like that of Abraham Jacob David and others The biblical texts of the lives of these individuals reveal that genuine belief is the beginning of movement in the process of becoming of being transformed over time This process moves a person s faith beyond simple belief comprised of mental assent to facts to a genuine faith that encompasses trust in God surrender to his will and a heartfelt embrace of what is believed This genuine faith results in obedience to the one believed Many biblical texts make it explicit that it is God the Holy Spirit who does this work of transformation Scripture provides no direct explanation about how that work is accomplished however the texts reveal it when you look for it This book reexamines some of the familiar biblical stories of well known and important biblical characters We focus on how God brought about his transforming work through daily life events to move each one over time from simple belief to genuine faith anchored in deep trust This trust enabled them to obey God in challenging circumstances We pray that this analysis of the great biblical characters as revealed in Scripture will help you understand how God might be working in your own life to transform your simple belief into genuine faith      Psychology, Religion, and Spirituality

James M. Nelson, 2009-02-27 Over a century ago psychologists who were fascinated with religion began to study and write about it. Theologians and religious practitioners have responded to this literature producing a fascinating dialogue that deals with our fundamental understandings about the human person and our place in the world. This book provides an introduction to the important conversations that have developed out of these interchanges. The dialogue between psychology and religion is difficult to study for a number of reasons. First it requires knowledge of both psychology and religion. People with a background in psychology often lack a solid understanding of the religious traditions they wish to study and theologians may not be up to date on the latest developments in psychology. Second it requires conceptual tools to organize the material and understand the basic problems involved in any attempt to connect the science of psychology with religion. These concepts can be found in many places for instance in the writings of philosophers of science but they are complex and often hard to follow for those without a proper theological and philosophical background. Finally authors who write on the topic come to the study of psychology and religion from a variety of academic and personal backgrounds. This makes for wonderful diversity in conversations but it makes understanding and mastery of the material quite difficult.

Pastoral Counseling for Orphans and Vulnerable Children Tuntufye Anangisye Mwenisongole, Elia Shabani Mligo, 2018-04-27 The existence of orphans is as inevitable to most African cities and the world as it is death. These orphans are caused by the death of one or both parents due to various reasons including the scourge of HIV and AIDS. Being orphans most of them are vulnerable to difficult lives because they have nobody to fend for them and take care of their lives. They lack adequate food, living expenses, school fees and care since their current guardians are also in adverse economic situations. In such situations orphans end up living a life of hopelessness and trauma which makes them deeply remember their dead parents and the care they received from them before death. Following the vulnerable situation of most orphans, this book through a study done in the Tanzanian context challenges churches to extend their counseling and caring ministries to Orphans and Vulnerable Children (OVC). It purports that the use of narrative approach is the most effective way to enter into the world of vulnerable children in order to provide pastoral counseling to them. This approach helps pastoral counselors to use life stories, proverbs, biblical narratives, plays, arts, songs, riddles, poems, symbols and images as healing and coping mechanisms for OVC. Therefore this book is helpful not only to churches and their ministry to orphans and vulnerable children but also to those who care for orphans in their homes. Moreover it will be helpful to children who live in adverse conditions worldwide to find ways to cope with their situations through the stories of children used inside this book.

Converging Horizons Allan Hugh Cole Jr., 2015-01-15 This collection of essays considers topics in pastoral theology, pastoral care and counseling, pastoral leadership and social work and attends to challenges and opportunities pertaining to the support and care of persons in need. Of interest to ministers, chaplains, pastoral counselors and social workers, these essays focus particularly on human experiences, needs or concerns.

that relate to matters of mental health and religious faith or spirituality Converging Horizons demonstrates approaches to integrative work that draws on multiple fields of theory and practice in service to the goal of providing a range of caregivers with ways to both conceptualize and engage their important work      Pastoral Bearings Mary Clark Moschella, Jane F. Maynard, Leonard Hummel, 2010-03-18 The study of lived religion is an enterprise which attempts to elucidate how ordinary men and women in all times and places draw on religious behavior media and meanings to make sense of themselves and their world Through the influence of liberation theology and postmodernism pastoral theologians like other scholars of religion have begun more closely to examine the particularity of religious practice that is reflected through the rubric of lived religion Pastoral Bearings offers up ten studies that exemplify the usefulness of the lived religion paradigm to the field of pastoral theology The volume presents detailed qualitative research focused on the everyday beliefs and practices of individuals and groups and explores the implications of lived religion for interdisciplinary conversation intercultural and gender analysis and congregational studies Reflecting upon the utility of this approach for pastoral theological research education and pastoral care the studies collected in Pastoral Bearings demonstrate the importance of the study of lived religion      Pentecostalism in Africa , 2014-10-16 Within recent decades Pentecostal charismatic Christianity has moved from an initially peripheral position to become a force to be reckoned with within Africa s religious landscape Bringing together prominent Africanist scholars from a wide range of disciplines this book offers a comprehensive and multifaceted treatment of the ways in which Pentecostal Charismatic movements have shaped the orientations of African Christianity and extended their influence into other spheres of post colonial societies such as politics developmental work and popular entertainment Among other things the chapters of the book show how Pentecostal charismatic Christianity responds to social and cultural concerns of Africans and how its growth and increasingly assertive presence in public life have facilitated new kinds of social positioning and claims to political power      Bringing Religion and Spirituality Into Therapy Joseph A. Stewart-Sicking, Jesse Fox, Paul J. Deal, 2019-06-25 Bringing Religion and Spirituality into Therapy provides a comprehensive and timely model for spirituality integrated therapy which is truly pluralist and responsive to the ever evolving World of religion spirituality This book presents an algorithmic process based model for organizing the abundance of theoretical and practical literature around how psychology religion and spirituality interact in counseling Building on a tripartite framework the book discusses the practical implications of the model and shows how it can be used in the context of assessment and case formulation research clinical competence and education and the broad framework ties together many strands of scholarship into religion and spirituality in counseling across a number of disciplines Chapters address the concerns of groups such as the unaffiliated non theists and those with multiple spiritual influences This approachable book is aimed at mental health students practitioners and educators In it readers are challenged to develop richer ways of understanding being and intervening when religion and spirituality are brought into therapy      HIV/AIDS, Poverty and Pastoral Care and

Counselling Vhumani Magezi, 2007-12-01 This publication carefully describes the HIV AIDS pandemic and how it is understood in some African contexts which hampers prevention initiatives It also delineates the complex nature of the poverty and HIV AIDS interplay To address the situation a family systems practical ecclesiological theology and approach to HIV AIDS ministry and a pastoral counselling approach that derives from and is sensitive to the African context are proposed

Speaking of Stewardship Carter, 1998-01-01 This collection of twenty three superb model sermons offers a wealth of biblical insight practical wisdom illustrations inspiration and helpful advice about the crucial themes of stewardship giving and the use of money and possessions in the church Featured are sermons by active pastors in churches large and small as well as internationally known preaching professors Fred Craddock Thomas Troeger and Charles Rice
