Revival And Reform In Islam The Legacy Of Muhammad Al Shawkani:

Revival and Reform in Islam Bernard Haykel, 2003-05-27 Revival and Reform in Islam is at once an intellectual biography of Muhammad al Shawkani and a history of a transitional period in Yemeni history This was a time when a society dominated by traditional Zaydi Shiism shifted to one characterised instead by Sunni reformism The author traces the origins and outcomes of this transition presenting the first systematic account of the ways in which the eighteenth and nineteenth century reorientation of the Zaydi madhhab and consequent sunnification of Yemeni society were intricately linked to tensions within the political realm In advocating juridical systematization of religious belief and practice Shawkani espoused a socio religious order which in its dominant features echoed key aspects of Western modernity Yet he did so in a context bereft of Western ideational influence This study then presents a textured account of eighteenth century Islamic reformist thought and challenges the meaning of modernity in an Islamic context Routledge Revivals: Medieval Islamic Civilization (2006) Josef Meri, 2018-01-12 Islamic civilization flourished in the Middle Ages across a vast geographical area that spans today s Middle and Near East First published in 2006 Medieval Islamic Civilization examines the socio cultural history of the regions where Islam took hold between the 7th and 16th centuries This important two volume work contains over 700 alphabetically arranged entries contributed and signed by international scholars and experts in fields such as Arabic languages Arabic literature architecture history of science Islamic arts Islamic studies Middle Eastern studies Near Eastern studies politics religion Semitic studies theology and more Entries also explore the importance of interfaith relations and the permeation of persons ideas and objects across geographical and intellectual boundaries between Europe and the Islamic world This reference work provides an exhaustive and vivid portrait of Islamic civilization and brings together in one authoritative text all aspects of Islamic civilization during the Middle Ages Accessible to scholars students and non specialists this resource will be of great use in research and understanding of the roots of today s Islamic society as well as the rich and vivid culture of medieval Islamic civilization The Postcolonial Moment in South and Southeast Asia Gyan Prakash, Nikhil Menon, Michael Laffan, 2018-02-22 By exploring themes of fragility mobility and turmoil anxieties and agency and pedagogy this book shows how colonialism shaped postcolonial projects in South and Southeast Asia including India Pakistan Burma and Indonesia Its chapters unearth the contingency and contention that accompanied the establishment of nation states and their claim to be decolonized heirs The book places key postcolonial moments a struggle for citizenship anxious constitution making mass education and land reform against the aftermath of the Second World War and within a global framework relating them to the global transformation in political geography from empire to nation The chapters analyse how futures and ideals envisioned by anticolonial activists were made reality whilst others were discarded Drawing on the expertise of eminent contributors The Postcolonial Moment in South and Southeast Asia represents the most ground breaking research on the region For God or Empire Wilson Chacko Jacob, 2019-07-30 Sayyid Fadl a descendant of the Prophet Muhammad led a unique life one that spanned much of the nineteenth century and connected India Arabia and the Ottoman Empire For God or Empire tells his story part biography and part global history as his life and legacy afford a singular view on historical shifts of power and sovereignty religion and politics Wilson Chacko Jacob recasts the genealogy of modern sovereignty through the encounter between Islam and empire states in the Indian Ocean world Fadl s travels in worlds seen and unseen made for a life that was both unsettled and unsettling And through his life at least two forms of sovereignty God and empire become apparent in intersecting global contexts of religion and modern state formation While these changes are typically explained in terms of secularization of the state and the birth of rational modern man the life and afterlives of Sayyid Fadl which take us from eighteenth and nineteenth century Indian Ocean worlds to twenty first century cyberspace offer a more open ended global history of sovereignty and a more capacious conception of life Islam in the World Today Werner Ende,Udo Steinbach,2011-12-15 Considered the most authoritative single volume reference work on Islam in the contemporary world the German language Der Islam in der Gegenwart currently in its fifth edition offers a wealth of authoritative information on the religious political social and cultural life of Islamic nations and of Islamic immigrant communities elsewhere Now Cornell University Press is making this invaluable resource accessible to English language readers More current than the latest German edition on which it is based Islam in the World Today covers a comprehensive array of topics in concise essays by some of the world s leading experts on Islam including the history of Islam from the earliest years through the twentieth century with particular attention to Sunni and Shi i Islam and Islamic revival movements during the last three centuries data on the advance of Islam along with current population statistics Muslim ideas on modern economics on social order and on attempts to modernize Islamic law shari a and apply it in contemporary Muslim societies Islam in diaspora especially the situation in Europe and America secularism democracy and human rights and women in Islam Twenty four essays are each devoted to a specific Muslim country or a country with significant Muslim minorities spanning Asia Africa the Middle East and the former Soviet Union Additional essays illuminate Islamic culture exploring local traditions the languages and dialects of Muslim peoples and art architecture and literature Detailed bibliographies and indexes ensure the book s usefulness as a reference work Sufism Alexander Knysh,2019-03-19 A pathbreaking history of Sufism from the earliest centuries of Islam to the present After centuries as the most important ascetic mystical strand of Islam Sufism saw a sharp decline in the twentieth century only to experience a stunning revival in recent decades In this comprehensive new history of Sufism from the earliest centuries of Islam to today Alexander Knysh a leading expert on the subject reveals the tradition in all its richness Knysh explores how Sufism has been viewed by both insiders and outsiders since its inception He examines the key aspects of Sufism from definitions and discourses to leadership institutions and practices He devotes special attention to Sufi approaches to the Qur an drawing parallels with similar uses of scripture in Judaism and Christianity He traces how Sufism grew from a set of simple moral ethical precepts into a sophisticated tradition with professional Sufi masters shaykhs who became powerful players in Muslim public life but whose authority was challenged by those advocating the equality of all Muslims before God Knysh also examines the roots of the ongoing conflict between the Sufis and their fundamentalist critics the Salafis a major fact of Muslim life today Based on a wealth of primary and secondary sources Sufism is an indispensable account of a vital aspect of Islam

Guardians of Faith in Modern Times Meir Hatina,2009 This collective volume provides an integrative historical and contemporary discussion of Sunni EulamaE3 4 in the Middle East in both an urban and a semi tribal context The various chapters reinforce a renewed interest in the position of the EulamaE3 4 in modern times and offer new insights as to their ideological vitality and contribution to the public discourse on moral and sociopolitical issues

Preserving Islamic Tradition Nathan Spannaus,2019-07-09 The end of the eighteenth century was a transformational period for the Muslim communities of the Russian Empire and their relationship with the tsarist state Though they had been under Russian rule since the sixteenth century it was at this time that they were incorporated into the imperial bureaucracy most significantly through the founding of an official hierarchy for the Islamic religious scholars in 1788 The introduction of a state backed structure for Muslim religious institutions altered Islamic religious authority and in turn religious discourse One of the major figures to emerge from this new context was Abu Nasr Qursawi 1776 1812 A controversial figure who was condemned for heresy in Bukhara in 1808 Qursawi put forward a sweeping reform of the Islamic scholarly tradition Focusing on taqlid the principle of conformity to established doctrine Qursawi argued that its overuse had weakened scholarship in the areas of Islamic law fiqh and theology kalam and undermined scholars ability to serve as religious guides In Preserving Islamic Tradition Nathan Spannaus presents the first detailed analysis of Qursawi s reformist project both in its contours and broad historical setting Spannaus shows how state control of Muslim institutions impacted religious discourse but also how it altered the entire religious environment into the twentieth century Addressing issues of modernity secularity tradition and intellectual history Preserving Islamic Tradition demonstrates how the interaction with a European imperial state transformed the Islamic tradition both directly and indirectly and elicited new forms of religious thought and discourse
