Global Awakening Mark R. Shaw, 2010-05-07 The last century has seen the revolutionary remaking of Christianity into a truly world religion How did it happen What triggered the emergence of this new global faith no longer dominated by the West full of new and vital forms of devotion Mark Shaw's provocative thesis is that far-flung revivals are at the heart of the global resurgence of Christianity These were not the quirky folk rituals associated with rural America and nineteenth century camp meetings that belong more to an age of plows and prairies than of postmodernity and globalization Rather they were like forces of nature protean constantly adjusting their features and ferocity to new times and to new places speaking Spanish Portuguese Yoruba Korean Mandarin and Gujarati They crossed the equator As they traveled abroad they grabbed hold of missionaries Bible translations national evangelists globalization and glossolalia and turned them into a religious revolution In this engaging book we read the stories of Joseph Babalola and the Aladura Revival in Africa of Kil Sun Ju and the great Korean revival of 1907 of Paulo Borges Jr and explosion of neo-Pentecostalism in Brazil and of V S Azariah and the mass conversions of the Dalit people in India As Shaw paints portraits of these and many more his gallery fills and we begin to see beyond isolated pictures to the sweeping landscape that we didn't realize was before our eyes all the time Christian Science Sentinel, 1904 Paradigms of the Church in Mission

Augusto Rodriguez, 2012-02-01 In this book Augusto Rodriguez provides a historical survey of the different paradigms of Christianity in order to understand how and why the church has changed her concept of being the church and of mission. This book will help in understanding how the different paradigms of Christianity throughout history have changed the church's self-understanding of being the church and of mission. Rodriguez's aim is to provide an opportunity for Christians to see the different paradigms the church has gone through and understand the present situation of the church in order to live out as fully as possible the New Testament understanding of its mission and better accomplish the task.
