Slavery and Resistance in Africa and Asia Edward A. Alpers, Gwyn Campbell, Michael Salman, 2013-09-13 First published in 2004 This book previously published as a special issue of the journal Slavery and Abolition provides pioneering studies on the nature and structure of resistance to forms of bondage in Africa Asia and the Indian Ocean world The Cambridge World History of Slavery: Volume 2, AD 500-AD 1420 Craig Perry, David Eltis, Stanley L. Engerman, David Richardson, 2021-08-12 Medieval slavery has received little attention relative to slavery in ancient Greece and Rome and in the early modern Atlantic world This imbalance in the scholarship has led many to assume that slavery was of minor importance in the Middle Ages In fact the practice of slavery continued unabated across the globe throughout the medieval millennium This volume the final volume in The Cambridge World History of Slavery covers the period between the fall of Rome and the rise of the transatlantic plantation complexes by assembling twenty three original essays written by scholars acknowledged as leaders in their respective fields The volume demonstrates the continual and central presence of slavery in societies worldwide between 500 CE and 1420 CE The essays analyze key concepts in the history of slavery including gender trade empire state formation and diplomacy labor childhood social status and mobility cultural attitudes spectrums of dependency and coercion and life histories of enslaved people Black and Slave David M. Goldenberg, 2017-05-22 Studies of the Curse of Ham the belief that the Bible consigned blacks to everlasting servitude confuse and conflate two separate origins stories etiologies one of black skin and the other of black slavery This work unravels the etiologies and shows how the Curse an etiology of black slavery evolved from an earlier etiology explaining the existence of dark skinned people We see when where why and how an original mythic tale of black origins morphed into a story of the origins of black slavery and how in turn the second then supplanted the first as an explanation for black skin In the process we see how formulations of the Curse changed over time depending on the historical and social contexts reflecting and refashioning the way blackness and blacks were perceived In particular two significant developments are uncovered First a curse of slavery originally said to affect various dark skinned peoples was eventually applied most commonly to black Africans Second blackness originally incidental to the curse in time became part of the curse itself Dark skin now became an intentional marker of servitude the visible sign of the blacks degradation and in the process deprecating black skin itself

Domestic Slavery in Syria and Egypt, 1200-1500 Jan Hinrich Hagedorn,2019-12-09 Slavery touched many aspects of Mamluk society This volume focuses on the role of slaves within the family from birth to purchase liberation and death It investigates domestic slavery in Syrian and Egyptian society from the thirteenth to the fifteenth century Jan Hagedorn focuses on the agency of slaves in the context of master slave relationships within households and in wider society He argues that the ability of slaves to shape the world around them was underpinned by a constant process of negotiation within the master slave relationship and that intermediaries such as the court system channelled the agency of slaves The principal sources for this study are purchase contracts listening certificates marriage contracts and estate inventories in combination with scribal market inspection and slave purchase manuals as well as chronicles

Uncovering the History of Africans in Asia Shihan de Silva Jayasuriya,Jean-Pierre Angenot,2008-07-31 Study of the African diaspora is now a dynamic field in the development of new methods and approaches to African history This book brings together the latest research on African diaspora in Asia with case studies about India and the Indian Ocean islands

Indian Ocean Slavery in the Age of Abolition Robert W. Harms,Bernard K. Freamon,David W. Blight,2013-12-17 While the British were able to accomplish abolition in the trans Atlantic world by the end of the nineteenth century their efforts paradoxically caused a great increase in legal and illegal slave trading in the western Indian Ocean Bringing together essays from leading authorities in the field of slavery studies this comprehensive work offers an original and creative study of slavery and abolition in the Indian Ocean world during this period Among the topics discussed are the relationship between British imperialism and slavery Islamic law and slavery and the bureaucracy of slave trading

Slavery in Medieval and Early Modern Iberia William D. Phillips,2014 Slavery in Medieval and Early Modern Iberia provides a sweeping survey of the many forms of bound labor in

Iberia from ancient times to the decline of slavery in the eighteenth century Who Abolished Slavery? Seymour Drescher, Pieter C. Emmer, João Pedro Marques, 2021-01-11 The past half century has produced a mass of information regarding slave resistance ranging from individual acts of disobedience to massive uprisings Many of these acts of rebellion have been studied extensively yet the ultimate goals of the insurgents remain open for discussion Recently several historians have suggested that slaves achieved their own freedom by resisting slavery which counters the predominant argument that abolitionist pressure groups parliamentarians and the governmental and anti governmental armies of the various slaveholding empires were the prime movers behind emancipation Marques one of the leading historians of slavery and abolition argues that in most cases it is impossible to establish a direct relation between slaves uprisings and the emancipation laws that would be approved in the western countries Following this presentation his arguments are taken up by a dozen of the most outstanding historians in this field In a concluding chapter Marques responds briefly to their comments and evaluates the degree to which they challenge or enhance his view Migration Histories of the Medieval Afroeurasian Transition Zone ,2020-05-06 The transition zone between Africa Asia and Europe was the most important intersection of human mobility in the medieval period The present volume for the first time systematically covers migration histories of the regions between the Mediterranean and Central Asia and between Eastern Europe and the Indian Ocean in the centuries from Late Antiquity up to the early modern era Within this framework specialists from Byzantine Islamic Medieval and African history provide detailed analyses of specific regions and groups of migrants both elites and non elites as well as voluntary and involuntary Thereby also current debates of migration studies are enriched with a new dimension of deep historical time Contributors are Alexander Beihammer Lutz Berger Florin Curta Charalampos Gasparis George Hatke Dirk Hoerder Johannes Koder Johannes Preiser Kapeller Lucian Reinfandt Youval Rotman Yannis Stouraitis Panayiotis Theodoropoulos and Myriam Wissa Black Morocco Chouki El Hamel, 2014-02-27 Black Morocco A History of Slavery Race and Islam chronicles the experiences identity and achievements of enslaved black people in Morocco from the sixteenth century to the beginning of the twentieth century Chouki El Hamel argues that we cannot rely solely on Islamic ideology as the key to explain social relations and particularly the history of black slavery in the Muslim world for this viewpoint yields an inaccurate historical record of the people institutions and social practices of slavery in Northwest Africa El Hamel focuses on black Moroccans collective experience beginning with their enslavement to serve as the loyal army of the Sultan Isma il By the time the Sultan died in 1727 they had become a political force making and unmaking rulers well into the nineteenth century The emphasis on the political history of the black army is augmented by a close examination of the continuity of black Moroccan identity through the musical and cultural practices of the Gnawa Slavery and Islam Jonathan A.C. Brown, 2020-03-05 What happens when authorities you venerate condone something you know is wrong Every major religion and philosophy once condoned or approved of slavery but in modern times nothing is seen as more evil Americans confront this crisis of authority when they erect statues of Founding Fathers who slept with their slaves And Muslims faced it when ISIS revived sex slavery justifying it with verses from the Quran and the practice of Muhammad Exploring the moral and ultimately theological problem of slavery Jonathan A C Brown traces how the Christian Jewish and Islamic traditions have tried to reconcile modern moral certainties with the infallibility of God's message He lays out how Islam viewed slavery in theory and the reality of how it was practiced across Islamic civilization Finally Brown carefully examines arguments put forward by Muslims for the abolition of slavery Black-Arab Encounters in Literature and Film Touria

Khannous,2021-08-27 This book investigates how representations of Black Africans have been negotiated over time in Arabic literature and film The book offers direct readings of a representative selection of primary texts shedding light on the divergent ways these authors understood race across different genres including pre Islamic classical poetry polemical essays travel narratives novels and films Starting with the first recognized Black Arab poet Antara Ibn Shaddad 580 C E and extending right up to the present day the works examined illuminate the changes in consciousness that attended Black Africans as they negotiated their position in Arab society In a twist to Edward Said's Orientalism the book argues that scholars in the Middle East and North Africa generated a hierarchical representational discourse themselves one equally predicated on the Self/Other binary However it also demonstrates that Arab racial discourse is not a linear rhetoric but changes according to history political circumstances and ideologies such as tribal politics the Shu'ubiyya movement nationalism and imperialism Blacks and Arabs have had tangled relationships that are based not only on race but also on kinship and solidarity due to trade and other types of connections Challenging fundamental assumptions of Black Diaspora studies and postcolonial studies this book will be of interest to scholars of the African diaspora Arabic literature Middle East studies and critical race studies Illuminating the Blackness Habeeb Akande,2016-05-01

Illuminating the Blackness presents the history of Brazil's race relations and African Muslim heritage The book is divided into two parts Part I explores the issue of race anti black racism white supremacy colourism black beauty and affirmative action in contemporary Brazil Part II examines the reports of African Muslims travels to Brazil before the Portuguese colonisers the slave revolts in Bahia and the West African Muslim communities in nineteenth century Brazil The author explores the black consciousness movement in Brazil and examines the reasons behind the growing conversion to Islam amongst Brazilians particularly those of African descent The author also shares his insights into the complexities of race in Brazil and draws comparisons with the racial histories of the pre modern Muslim world including a comparative analysis of the East African Zanj slave rebellions in ninth century Baghdad with the West African Hausa and Yoruba slave rebellions in nineteenth century Bahia Unbroken Chains Martin Plaut,2025-08-28 Slavery has torn apart African societies since at least 2 500 BCE from Egypt to the Cape from Mauritania to Somalia Yet most writing covers just one fraction of this history the horrors of the trans Atlantic slave trade Historians and commentators long neglected the equally sizeable far more protracted phenomenon of Indian Ocean slavery and all but passed over Africa's internal practices from Ethiopian kingdoms enslaving conquered peoples to the Sokoto Caliphate capturing non Muslims on a scale matching that of the US plantations Yet overlooked stories of enslavement matter In 1794 Congress authorised construction of the US Navy's first six ships in response to civilian vessels being seized by North Africa's Barbary corsairs who raided as far as Britain and the Caribbean enslaving hundreds of thousands of Europeans And since abolition of the trans Atlantic trade international concern has moved from traditional to modern forms of slavery leaving Africans enslaved as chattel today with few champions abroad The UN and African Union are too embarrassed to confront the African leaders still permitting this practice Unbroken Chains offers readers a full accessible history of the myriad bondage systems that have devastated African communities over the millennia It is a haunting sensitive powerful read

The Case of Rhyme Versus Reason Robert C. McKinney, 2004 This book examines the life and times and poetry of the extremely prolific and versatile Abbasid poet Ibn al R m d 283 896 Particular attention is devoted to tracing the influences in his distinctive poetic style and themes
