Revolution In Southeast Asia:

Republicanism, Communism, Islam John T. Sidel, 2021-05-15 In Republicanism Communism Islam John T Sidel provides an alternate vantage point for understanding the variegated forms and trajectories of revolution across the Philippines Indonesia and Vietnam a perspective that is de nationalized internationalized and transnationalized Sidel positions this new vantage point against the conventional framing of revolutions in modern Southeast Asian history in terms of a nationalist template on the one hand and distinctive local cultures and forms of consciousness on the other Sidel s comparative analysis shows how in very different decisive and often surprising ways the Philippine Indonesian and Vietnamese revolutions were informed enabled and impelled by diverse cosmopolitan connections and international conjunctures Sidel addresses the role of Freemasonry in the making of the Philippine revolution the importance of Communism and Islam in Indonesia s Revolusi and the influence that shifting political currents in China and anticolonial movements in Africa had on Vietnamese revolutionaries Through this assessment Republicanism Communism and Islam tracks how these forces rather than nationalism per se shaped the forms of these revolutions the ways in which they unfolded and the legacies which they left in their wakes

Thailand and the Southeast Asian Networks of The Vietnamese Revolution, 1885-1954 Christopher E. Goscha, 2013-09-05 Christopher Goscha

resituates the Vietnamese revolution and war against the French into its Asian context Breaking with nationalist and colonial historiographies which have largely locked Vietnam into Indochinese or Nation state straightjackets Goscha takes Thailand as his point of departure for exploring how the Vietnamese revolution was intimately linked to Asia between the birth of the Save the King Movement in 1885 and the Battle of Dien Bien Phu in 1954 But his study is more than just a political history Goscha brings geography to bear on his subject with a passion While he considers the little known political movements of such well known faces as Phan Boi Chau and Ho Chi Minh across Southeast Asia the author takes us into the complex Asian networks stretching from northeastern Thailand and the port of Bangkok to southern China and Hong Kong and beyond There we see how Ho and Chau drew upon an invisible army of Vietnamese and Chinese traders criminals prostitutes sailors and above all the thousands of emigres living in Vietnamese communities in Thailand Time Out of Hand

Shaplen Robert, 1817 Southeast Asia and the Great Powers Nicholas Tarling, 2013-06-17 Southeast Asia has on the basis of the nation state secured both a large measure of interstate peace and cooperation and a degree of autonomy from great powers outside the region ASEAN both represents that position and promotes it But it also depends on the attitude of the great powers Region of Revolt Milton Osborne, 2013-10-22 Region of Revolt Focus on Southeast Asia deals with the phenomenon of revolt and revolutionary change in Southeast Asia Countries covered include Vietnam Laos Indonesia Burma Thailand Cambodia and the Philippines Images of revolt such as those indicating heroism are considered along with traditional patterns of revolt This book is comprised of 10 chapters and begins with an overview of images typically associated with revolt including those of brave but beautiful women leading their troops against the enemy The next chapter explores the four categories of revolt in Southeast Asia revolts against foreign domination revolt involving elite rivalries revolts of minorities and of regions and the millenarian revolt Subsequent chapters focus on tradition in anti colonial revolts the years before and during World War II revolts that failed such as those in Malaya and the Philippines and revolts that half succeeded such as the one staged by Vietnam against French colonial power The myth of the Vietnam War is also discussed along with theorists and theories of wars and revolts This monograph will be a useful resource for political scientists military strategists and foreign policymakers Rivalry and Revolution in South and East Asia Partha S. Ghosh, 2019-05-23 First published in 1997 this study reveals the forces of nationalism and internationalism at work side by side in the populous and volatile regions of South and East Asia which make up the 11 chapters of this volume They cover regional security political economy territorial disputes and national unification Problems such as those of Cambodia and the nuclearization of India Pakistan and North Korea create serious international concern while unresolved regional issues force nationalistic and military conflict The irresistible popular pressure for economic integration with the global system often without any corresponding commitment to political freedom underlies it all The cumulative effect of these diverse processes creates an explosive mix of international rivalries and national revolutions which raises the question of the possible arrival of the Asian

Thailand and the Southeast Asian Networks of The Vietnamese Revolution, 1885-1954 Christopher E. Goscha, 2013-09-05 Christopher Goscha resituates the Vietnamese revolution and war against the French into its Asian context Breaking with nationalist and colonial historiographies which have largely locked Vietnam into Indochinese or Nation state straightjackets Goscha takes Thailand as his point of departure for exploring how the Vietnamese revolution was intimately linked to Asia between the birth of the Save the King Movement in 1885 and the Battle of Dien Bien Phu in 1954 But his study is more than just a political history Goscha brings geography to bear on his subject with a passion While he considers the little known political movements of such well known faces as Phan Boi Chau and Ho Chi Minh across Southeast Asia the author takes us into the complex Asian networks stretching from northeastern Thailand and the port of Bangkok to southern China and Hong Kong and beyond There we see how Ho and Chau drew upon an invisible army of Vietnamese and Chinese traders criminals prostitutes sailors and above all the thousands of emigres living in Vietnamese communities in Thailand Southeast Asia in China Ying-kit Chan, Chang-Yau Hoon, 2022-11-28 As part of China's south Southeast Asia has historically assumed a peripheral position when juxtaposed against the power of the Chinese state In the existing scholarly literature the power asymmetry is reflected in the ostensible bias where most studies are about China's presence in or engagement with Southeast Asia rather than the reverse studies on the presence or influence of Southeast Asia in China have been a marginal enterprise The present volume aims to fill this void by exploring the historical entanglements and contemporary engagements of Southeast Asia ns in China through a Southeast Asian perspective As China seeks to understand Southeast Asia's presence in the country on its own terms it is also engaged in a process of self discovery and defining where and how it should stand in relation to the region Departing from the discourse of China as the a priori center dominating the scholarship on China Southeast Asia relations the present volume hopes to subvert such power relations in order to bring fresh perspectives on the historical and contemporary contributions of Southeast Asia ns in China

Revolution Rosemary H. T. O'Kane, 2000 All of the major work on the subject of revolutions is collected in this useful set Including work from seminal figures such as Hatto and Gottschalk in the 1940s as well as the most important literature all the way through 1998 the articles reprinted here consider the concept theory and causes of revolution revolutionary state building and the outcomes of revolutions case studies of great revolutions and much more Sun Yat-Sen, Nanyang and the 1911 Revolution Lee Lai To, 2003-08-01 In view of the 100th anniversary of the 1911 Revolution and Sun Yat sen's relations with the Nanyang communities the Institute of Southeast Asian Studies and the Chinese Heritage Centre came together to host a two day bilingual conference on the three way relationships between Sun Yat sen Nanyang and the 1911 Revolution in October 2010 in Singapore This volume is a collection of papers in English presented at the conference While there are extensive research and voluminous publications on Sun Yat sen and the 1911 Revolution it was felt that less had been done on the Southeast Asian connections Thus this volume tries to chip in some original and at times provocative analysis on not only Sun Yat sen and the 1911 Revolution but also contributions from selected Southeast Asian countries
