The Monk in love Bikash Sarmah, 2019-09-19 The Monk in Love is an attempt to explore the psyche of the modern educated youth who have ambitions high and galore are out of sync with stereotypical thinking and attitudes and set out to explore the existing shackles of society without causing harm to anyone The protagonists are highly intelligent and spiritual youth who have an evolved sense of understanding and want to lead a simple way of life beyond the existing norms of society Therefore this collection of short stories has a strong societal underpinning as well
Revolution Plus Love Liu Jianmei, 2003-09-30 In the aftermath of the May Fourth movement a growing expectation of revolution raised important intellectual issues about the position of the individual within a society in turmoil and the shifting boundaries of political and sexual identities The theme of revolution plus love a literary response to the widespread insurrections and upheaval was first popularized in the late 1920s In her examination of this popular but understudied literary formula Liu Jianmei argues that revolution and love are culturally variable entities their interplay a complex and constantly changing literary practice that is socially and historically determined Liu looks at the formulary writing of revolution plus love from the 1930s to the 1970s as a case study of literary politics Favored by leftist writers during the early period of revolutionary literature it continued to influence mainstream Chinese literature up to the 1970s By drawing a historical picture of the articulation and rearticulation of this theme Liu shows how changes in revolutionary discourse force unpredictable representations of gender rules and power relations and how women s bodies reveal the complex interactions between political representation and gender roles Revolution Plus Love is a nuanced and carefully considered work on gender and modernity in China unmatched in its broad use of literary resources It will be of considerable interest to scholars and students of modern Chinese literature women s studies cultural studies and comparative literature
Research On Altruism & Love Stephen Post, 2003-05-15 Research on Altruism and Love is a compendium of annotated bibliographies reviewing literature and research studies on the nature of love An essay introduces each of the annotated bibliographies A variety of literature directly related to science and love issues or supporting those issues is covered in the Religious Love Interfaces with Science section This annotated bibliography is unique in that it approaches the field from a decidedly religious perspective It includes classical expositions of love that continue to influence contemporary scholars including Platos work on eros the work and words of Jesus Aristotle Augustine of Hippo Martin Luther Kierkegaard and Ghandi among others The contemporary discussion includes Anders Nygren s theological arguments in his classic Agape and Eros Pitirim Sorokin and others An issue that often emerges in this literature is the question of the nature and definition of love A second annotated bibliography features current empirical research in the field of Personality and Altruism with a focus on social psychology Among the topics covered are the altruistic personality altruistic behavior empathy helping behavior social responsibility and volunteerism Methodologies are diverse and studies include experiments local and national surveys naturalistic observation and combinations of these The Evolutionary Biology annotated bibliography covers the most significant works on altruism and love in the field of biology and evolutionary psychology The fourth and final annotated bibliography in this volume is entitled Sociology of Faith Based Volunteerism Here the focus is on literature on the interface of helping behavior and religious organizations as well as major pieces on voluntary associations

Love and revolution Matt York,2023-03-21 Based on award winning research Love and revolution brings classical and contemporary anarchist thought into a mutually beneficial dialogue with a global cross section of ecological anti capitalist feminist and anti racist activists discussing real life examples of the loving caring relations that underpin many contemporary struggles Such a r evolutionary love is discovered to be a common embodied experience among the activists contributing to this collective vision manifested as a radical solidarity as political direct action as long term processes of struggle and as a deeply relational more than human ethics This book provides an essential resource for all those interested in building a free society grounded in solidarity and care and offers a timely contribution to contemporary movement discourse

Revolution and the Christian Faith Vernon C. Grounds,2007-05-01 In this stirring book Grounds has ably sketched the background against which the theology of revolution has emerged Grounds puts it this way I have sought to let the critics of the Establishment Christian and secular alike present in their own words the case for revolutionary change I have also sought to let the revolutionary theologians set forth their interpretation of Christianity in detail Quite literally I have allowed them to speak for themselves I have sought further to let Christian scholars who dissent from this new theology engage its proponents in debate Very heavily I have drawn upon the work of Jacques Ellul the towering French sociologist who is rapidly gaining in the United States the attention and respect which his rare fusion of professional distinction intellectual power and biblical commitment deserves I shall feel amply regarded if through these pages he wins a wider readership among American evangelicals An additional purpose has been to confront my own ecclesiastical tradition that of

Protestant orthodoxy with the inexpressibly pressing need of permitting the anguish of our world to drive theological conservatism back to a New Testament discipleship which is nothing less than revolutionary Tough Love Cynthia Burack,2014-02-01 Exposes how ex gay and postabortion ministries operate on a shared system of thought and analyzes their social implications A staple of the culture wars the struggle between Christian conservatives and progressives over sexuality and reproductive rights continues Focusing on ex gay ministries geared to helping same sex attracted people resist their sexuality and postabortion ministries dedicated to leading women who have had an abortion to repent that decision Cynthia Burack argues that both are motivated and characterized by a strain of compassion that is particular to Christian conservatism rather than a bias and hatred toward sexual minorities and sexually active women This compassion reproduces the sexual ideology of the Christian right and absolves Christian conservatives from responsibility for stigma and other forms of harm to postabortive and same sex attracted people Using the democratic theory of Hannah Arendt the popular fiction of Ayn Rand and the psychoanalytic thought of Melanie Klein Burack studies the social and political effects of Christian conservative compassion The Self-Care Revolution Ahmed Musa,2024-12-20 Transform your well being with The Self Care Revolution How to Practice Radical Self Love This empowering guide challenges traditional notions of self care and introduces you to the transformative power of prioritizing yourself unapologetically Learn how to build sustainable self care routines that nurture your mind body and spirit Explore practices like mindfulness boundary setting and emotional resilience while uncovering the deep connection between self love and living a fulfilling balanced life With actionable strategies and inspiring insights this book equips you to let go of guilt and embrace self compassion as a path to empowerment Perfect for anyone feeling overwhelmed or disconnected The Self Care Revolution is a call to action to reclaim your energy prioritize your needs and create a life rooted in love and authenticity Start your journey to radical self love today Paradigm Revolution?
