Raissa Maritain Pilgrim Poet Exile:

Raissa Maritain Judith D. Suther, 1990 The uncommon life of Raissa Oumansov Maritain provides the framework for this first booklength study of her writing and experience as a Catholic contemplative in the world Focusing on the development of Raissa s spiritual life in relation to her achievement as a writer Professor Judith Suther follows Raissa and her husband Jacques from Paris at the turn of the century to Princeton where they lived from 1940 until Raissa s death in 1960 Divided into three parts Raissa Maritain opens with the necessary background to an understanding of Raissa s later life and work then moves on to Part II to a discussion of her contributions to the so called Catholic Renaissance of the 1920s and 30s her tireless repudiation of the positivism she and Jacques had encountered as students at the Sorbonne her part in establishing the Thomist study groups which the Maritains hosted at Versailles and Meudon and the largely private developments of her writing in prose and poetry Part Three traces the Maritains expatriation in New York Rome and Princeton and examines Raissa s most fruitful years as a writer Throughout Professor Suther draws on previously unmined resources to clarify certain problems that have long confused troubled and even embarrassed friends and admirers of the Maritains These problems include the relations of Raissa and Jacques with her parents and his mother their vows of chastity and their marriage blanc Jacques acquiescence in her alleged hypochondria and the authenticity of her apparent mystical experiences The Story of Two Souls Julien Green, Jacques Maritain, Henry Bars, 1988 Jacques and Raïssa Maritain Jean-Luc Barré, 2005 An accessible translation of the biography of noted French philosopher Jacques Maritain and his wife Ra ssa Leaving the Jewish Fold Todd Endelman, 2015-02-22 The definitive history of conversion and assimilation of Jews in Europe and America from the eighteenth century to the present Between the French Revolution and World War II hundreds of thousands of Jews left the Jewish fold by becoming Christians or in liberal states by intermarrying Telling the stories of both famous and obscure individuals Leaving the Jewish Fold explores the nature of this drift and defection from Judaism in Europe and America from the eighteenth century to today Arguing that religious conviction was rarely a motive for Jews who became Christians Todd Endelman shows that those who severed their Jewish ties were driven above all by pragmatic concerns especially the desire to escape the stigma of Jewishness and its social occupational and emotional burdens Through a detailed and colorful narrative Endelman considers the social settings national contexts and historical circumstances that encouraged Jews to abandon Judaism and factors that worked to the opposite effect Demonstrating that anti Jewish prejudice weighed more heavily on the Jews of Germany and Austria than those living in France and other liberal states as early as the first half of the nineteenth century he reexamines how Germany s political and social development deviated from other European states Endelman also reveals that liberal societies such as Great Britain and the United States which tolerated Jewish integration promoted radical assimilation and the dissolution of Jewish ties as often as hostile illiberal societies such as Germany and Poland Bringing together extensive research across several languages Leaving the Jewish Fold will be the

E. Burton,2004 In Holy Tears Holy Blood Richard D E Burton continues his investigation of Catholic France from Revolution to Liberation From his focus in Blood in the City on public demonstrations of the cultural power of Catholicism he now turns to more private rituals those codes of conduct that shaped the interior lives of French Catholic women and determined their artistic and social presentation Here there is rather less blood and considerably more weeping Burton says In portraits of eleven women including Simone Weil and Sainte Th r se he traces the lasting power of particular expressions of suffering and sacrifice How Burton asks does a rapidly modernizing society accommodate the cultural scientific racism in the nineteenth century to the post racial racism of the post 9 11 period and from Europe to the United States in order to understand how racism has been articulated in differing situations It is distinguished by the attention it pays to the on going power of racial discourse in the contemporary period as a legitimating factor in oppression It exemplifies methodological openness combining the work of historians philosophers religious scholars and literary critics and includes differing theoretical models in pursuing a critical approach to race cultural studies trauma theory and psychoanalysis critical theory and consideration of the new racism and postcolonialism and the literature on globalization It brings together the work of leading academics with younger practitioners and is capped off by an interview with world renowned intellectual Cornel West on black intellectuals in America This book was previously published as a special issue of Patterns of Prejudice
