

gentleman who had casually encountered them in his rambles.

There is good angling in the Arran streams after rain, when they are visited by sea-trout. A few days before I went there, the Marquis of Douglas, with a party of friends, and many of the natives, had a battue in Loch Iorsay with the net, and caught about a hundred salmon and sea-trout. One day I came to a gentleman fishing with fly in the salt green sea! He was not successful while I looked on, but told me he sometimes caught fine salmon and sea-trout in that way. I shall only farther state, that the inhabitants, the aborigines of this island, are very kind and civil to strangers, but have generally a starved, dejected look, though, no doubt, like most mountaineers, they prefer it to every other place—

"The tempest's fury, and the torrent's roar,
But bind them to their native mountains more."

- Brodick was the Hamilton's till 1891, when the direct line died out and it passed to the twelfth Duke's daughter, who became Duchess of Montrose. (A Graham)
