

Beauty

You looked for beauty everywhere,
So you adored the plants and their flowers,
And how the curtain of darkness
Hid the way to the stars.

You searched for the secrets
Which made the moon shine so bright,
And spread it's beauty all over,
When calmness has taken over the night.

You were always curious about the beauty
Possessed by everything you've known,
But while admiring the beauty of others,
You forgot to see your own.

Davis, 2011-11-21 In this innovative approach to southern literary cultures Thadious Davis analyzes how black southern writers use their spatial location to articulate the vexed connections between society and environment particularly under segregation and its legacies Basing her analysis on texts by Ernest Gaines Richard Wright Alice Walker Natasha Trethewey Olympia Vernon Brenda Marie Osbey Sybil Kein and others Davis reveals how these writers reconstitute racial exclusion as creative black space rather than a site of trauma and resistance Utilizing the social and political separation epitomized by segregation to forge a spatial and racial vantage point Davis argues allows these writers to imagine and represent their own subject matter and aesthetic concerns Focusing particularly on Louisiana and Mississippi Davis deploys new geographical discourses of space to expand analyses of black writers relationship to the South and to consider the informing aspects of spatial narratives on their literary production She argues that African American writers not only are central to the production of southern literature and new southern studies but also are crucial to understanding the shift from modernism to postmodernism in southern letters A paradigm shifting work Southscapes restores African American writers to their rightful place in the regional imagination while calling for a more inclusive conception of region American Poetry of the Twentieth Century Richard Gray, 1976-06-10 Good and Beautiful and Kind Rich Villodas, 2023-07-11 ECPA BESTSELLER An invitation to love like Jesus and step beyond distraction and division into the joy we long to experience from the author of The Deeply Formed Life winner of the Christianity Today Book Award A stunning book with power to reshape our world if we let it Glenn Packiam pastor and author of Blessed Broken Given We long for a good life a beautiful life a kind life But clearly that s not the world we live in We carry the stress of our fractured world in our bodies and relationships Families that once gathered around tables have converted those tables into walls Hostility rage and offense is the language of our culture How did we lose goodness kindness and beauty And more important how do we get them back into our lives These are the two questions crying out in our streets homes churches and from deep within our souls Pastor and author Rich Villodas is convinced that only Jesus offers a way of being human that is both strong and tender enough to tear down the walls of hostility we experience daily In Good and Beautiful and Kind he reveals how These three essentials are stolen by sin powers and principalities and trauma We can get goodness beauty and kindness back through contemplative prayer humility and the cultivation of calm presence The traits of healthy conflict forgiveness and justice lead to wholeness healing and a new collective future when rooted in the ancient way
