Breaker and concluding with Elizabeth Strout's Anything Is Possible. The founder of The Story Prize, Julie Lindsey, and its director, Larry Dark, created this award to address the lack of one specifically for collections of stories. Together, they choose three finalists from the previous year's publications, which are sent to three judges: an author, a bookseller or librarian, and a critic or editor, who independently of one another relay their choices. The prize is then presented at an annual celebration in New York, where the finalists read from their books and then discuss their work with Dark. Excerpts from these interviews or, in a few cases, the judges' citations, introduce each story in the book. The authors chose the stories included to read at the annual Story Prize event.
