A Brief for the Trial of Criminal Cases Austin Abbott,1925 The American Jury On Trial Saul M. Kassin, Lawrence S. Wrightsman, 2013-10-08 First Published in 1988 More than 3 million Americans are called for jury duty every year For most people serving on a jury arouses two feelings it is both a personal sacrifice and an exciting experience And where a jury is asked to decide some cases they make headlines As a result of trials such as these the American system of trial by jury faces unprecedented challenges This volume offers an informed examination of the entire process from jury selection to the delivery of a verdict Quoting the experiences and expertise of F Lee Bailey William Kunstler Clarence Darrow Learned Hand and many others this book investigates such important factors as pretrial bias the psychology of evidence inadmissible testimony interpreting the law and what goes on inside the jury room People often think that any book dealing with the law must be written in legalese but in this book Professors Kassin and Wrightsman present their case in an exceptionally readable style They utilize modern advances in psychology to illuminate the usually hidden world of trial practice and procedure and offer thoughtful possibilities for improving the system The Texas Criminal Reports Texas. Transgressing Discourses Michael Huspek, Gary P. Radford, 1997-01-01 The basic theme of this volume is excellent Readers are treated to fascinating explorations of communication at the boundaries between discourses and selves The essays address important theoretical issues and do so often by treating significant social issues Most welcome is the constructive tone that is for the most part maintained throughout the volume demonstrating an effort to understand engage and critically assess different discourses and selves and others at once without valorizing one over the other An essential theme running through this volume is the idea that our efforts to engage as well as other s efforts to engage us have been seriously impaired because of problems which are fundamentally communicative in nature More specifically there is general agreement among the contributors that the voice of other has not been sufficiently heard and this on account of how discourses of the human sciences as well as other dominant discourses e g law have structured our interaction with other Each of the essays helps to clarify the nature of the communicative failing and to develop an appropriate corrective action

Feminism, Media, and the Law Martha Fineman, Martha T. McCluskey, 1997 A collection of essays that explores how the media represents women in relation to the law eg abortion race surrogacy on trial and as lawyers Deals solely with American law and media

Legal-Lay Communication Chris Heffer, Frances Rock, John Conley, 2013-07-16 This volume responds to a growing interest in the language of legal settings by situating the study of language and law within contemporary theoretical debates in discourse studies linguistic anthropology and sociolinguistics The chapters in the collection explore many of the common occasions when those acting on behalf of the legal system such as the police lawyers and judges interact with those coming into contact with the legal system such as suspects and witnesses However the chapters do this work through the conceptual lens of textual travel or the way that texts move across space and time and are transformed along the way Collectively notions of textual travel shed new light on the ways in which texts can influence and are influenced by social and legal life With contributions from leading experts in language and law Legal Lay Communication explores such textual travel themes as the mediating role of technologies in the investigatory stages of the legal process the centrality of intertextuality in the legal construction of cases in court the transformative effects of recontextualization in processes of judicial decision making and the way that processes of textual travel disturb the apparent permanence of legal categorization The book challenges both the notion of legal text as a static repository of meaning and the very idea of legal lay or lay legal communication

Local Violence, Global Media Lisa M. Cuklanz, Sujata Moorti, 2009 This series publishes critical scholarship that seeks to engage and transcend the disciplinary isolationism and genre confinement that now characterize so much of contemporary research in communication studies and related fields It focuses on studies that address the broad intersections and hybrid trajectories that define the encounters between human groups in modern institutions and societies and the way these intersections are represented in contemporary popular cultural forms of knowledge

Courts Cassia Spohn, Craig Hemmens, 2011-11-09 Authored text sections and carefully selected accompanying readings that illustrate the questions and controversies legal scholars and court researchers are investigating in the 21st century Edited readings introduce students to classic studies of the criminal court system and to cutting edge research on decision making by court actors An introduction to each reading gives students an overview of the purpose main points and conclusion of each article and evaluates their policy implications How to Read a Research Article tied to the first reading in the book guides students in understanding and learning from the research articles Mini chapters precede the selection of readings and offer clear and concise explanations of key terms and concepts in each section coupled with boxes with special interest topics and review materials that enhance student comprehension Jurisprudence Wayne Morrison, 2016-04-08 This challenging book on jurisprudence begins by posing questions in the post modern context and then seeks to bridge the gap between our traditions and contemporary situation It offers a narrative encompassing the birth of western philosophy in the Greeks and moves through medieval Christendom Hobbes the defence of the common law with David Hume the beginnings of utilitarianism in Adam Smith Bentham and John Stuart Mill the hope for enlightenment with Kant Rousseau Hegel and Marx onto the more pessimistic warnings of Weber and Nietzsche It defends the work of Austin against the reductionism of HLA Hart analyses the period of high modernity in the writings of Kelsen Hart and Fuller and compares the different approaches to justice of Rawls and Nozick The liberal defence of legality in Ronald Dworkin is contrasted with the more disillusioned accounts of the critical legal studies movement and the personalised accounts of prominent feminist writers
