STORY2BOOK Tommy Richards,2022-12-05 From Below the Cellar A novel There were a lot of ghost stories regarding the old house For over a century now the house itself was rumored to be haunted always rumored to have spirits roaming in and out of there at freewill Find out why over these last few days Aunt Mary s house has been rumbling away like a noisy subway station My Wife the Cherry Tree A short story about Mr Jones and his abusive wife Sweet Mrs Hart Find out what happens after her best friend passes away The Eyes of Victoria A novella about the Crawford family and the house they just bought Is it really their house The Black Mood Ring Find out what happens when it s removed from someone s finger They Cross the Bridges at Night A short story about a toll collector and the discovery he makes while working the graveyard shift A Certain Phone Call Steven is going through a midlife crisis Find out what happens when he makes a certain phone call in the middle of the night Practical English Composition Edwin Lillie Miller,1917 Progressive Course in Reading George I. Aldrich,1899 , Analytical Intermediate Reader Richard Edwards,1871 Reading the Mountains of Home John Elder,1998 Small farms once occupied the heights that John Elder calls home but now only a few cellar holes and tumbled stone walls remain among the dense stands of maple beech and hemlocks on these Vermont hills Reading the Mountains of Home is a journey into these verdant reaches where in the last century humans tried their hand and where bear and moose now find shelter As John Elder is our guide so Robert Frost is Elder s companion his great poem Directive seeing us through a landscape in which nature and literature loss and recovery are inextricably joined Over the course of a year Elder takes us on his hikes through the forested uplands between South Mountain and North Mountain reflecting on the forces of nature from the descent of the glaciers to the rush of the New Haven River that shaped a plateau for his village of Bristol and on the human will that denuded and farmed and abandoned the mountains so many years ago His forays wind through the flinty relics of nineteenth century homesteads and Abenaki settlements leading to meditations on both human failure and the possibility for deeper communion with the land and others An exploration of the body and soul of a place an interpretive map of its natural and literary life Reading the Mountains of Home strikes a moving balance between the pressures of civilization and the attraction of wilderness It is a beautiful work of nature writing in which human nature finds its place where the reader is invited to follow the last line of Frost s Directive to Drink and be whole again beyond confusion
