Rimbaud In New York 1978 79:

David Wojnarowicz Jim Lewis, David Wojnarowicz, 2004 Edited by Andrew Roth Essay by Jim Lewis     "A Season in Hell" Jennifer L. Hardin, 2007 David Wojnarowicz 1954 1992 was an interdisciplinary artist who rejected traditional scholarship and was suspicious of institutions Wojnarowicz's Arthur Rimbaud in New York series 1978 79 is his earliest complete body of work In the series a friend wears the visage of the French symbolist poet My discussion of the photographs involves how they convey Wojnarowicz's notion of the city In chapter one I discuss Rimbaud's conception of the modern city and how Wojnarowicz evokes the figure of the flaneur in establishing a link with nineteenth century Paris In the final chapters I address the issue of the control of the city and an individual's right to the city In chapter two I draw a connection between the renovations of Paris by Baron George Eugene Haussman and the gentrification Wojnarowicz witnessed of the Lower East side Finally in chapter three I analyze the role that graffiti plays in the series     Rimbaud in New York 1978-79 David Wojnarowicz, 2004 Images from a series featuring a lone figure with the visage of the poet Arthur Rimbaud in seedy Manhattan locations     Rimbaud in New York 1978-79 Roth Horowitz, 2004     Women, the New York School, and Other True Abstractions Maggie Nelson, 2007-12 Maggie Nelson provides the first extended consideration of the roles played by women in and around the New York School of poets from the 1950s to the present and offers unprecedented analyses of the work of Barbara Guest Bernadette Mayer Alice Notley Eileen Myles and abstract painter Joan Mitchell as well as a reconsideration of the work of many male New York School writers and artists from a feminist perspective     A Dictionary of the Avant-Gardes , 2013-05-13 A Dictionary of the Avant Gardes recognizes that change is a driving force in all the arts It covers major trends in music dance theater film visual art sculpture and performance art as well as architecture science and culture     American Exposures Louis Kaplan, 2005 American Exposures sheds light on photographs from Arthur Mole's propagandistic living photographs of American icons and symbols to the exploration of contemporary subcultural communities by the Korean born photographer and performance artist Nikki Lee and asserts that the depiction of community is a central component to photography Louis Kaplan deploys a number of critical concepts and theories developed by Jean Luc Nancy in The Inoperative Community as well as other philosophers and applies them to the field of photography studies With an original approach to photography from Edward Steichen's Family of Man exhibition to Pedro Meyer and the rise of the digital image Kaplan points to a new way to think about the intimate relationship among photography American life and the artistic imagination Back cover     Art and Homosexuality Christopher Reed, 2011-05-26 This bold globe spanning survey is the first book to thoroughly explore the radical long standing interdependence between art and homosexuality It draws examples from the full range of the Western tradition including classical Renaissance and contemporary art with special focus on the modern era It was in the modern period when arguments about homosexuality and the avant garde were especially public that our current conception of the artist and the homosexual began to take shape and almost as quickly to overlap Not a chronology of gay or lesbian artists the book is a fascinating and sophisticated account of the ways two conspicuous identities have fundamentally informed one another Art and Homosexuality discusses many of modernism's canonical figures painters like Courbet Picasso and Pollock writers like Whitman and Stein and issues such as the rise of abstraction the avant garde's relationship to its patrons and the political exploitation of art It shows that many of the core ideas that define modernism are nearly indecipherable without an understanding of the paired identities of artist and homosexual Illustrated with over 175 b/w and color images that range from high to popular culture and from Ancient Greece to contemporary America Art and Homosexuality punctures the platitudes surrounding discussions of both aesthetics and sexual identity and takes our understanding of each in stimulating new directions

Searching for Sebald Lise Patt, Christel Dillbohner, 2007 W G Sebald's books are sui generis hybrids of fiction travelogue autobiography and historical expos in which a narrator both Sebald and not Sebald comments on the quick blossoming of natural wonders and the long deaths that come of human atrocities All his narratives are punctuated with images murky photographs architectural plans engravings paintings newspaper clippings inserted into the prose without captions and often without obvious connection to the words that surround them This important volume includes a rare 1993 interview called But the written word is not a true document A Conversation with W G Sebald about Photography and Literature in which Sebald talks exclusively about his use of photographs It contains some of Sebald's most illuminating and poetic remarks about the topic yet In it he discusses Barthes the photograph's appeal the childhood image of Kafka family photographs and even images he never used in his writings In addition Searching for Sebald positions Sebald within an art historical tradition that begins with the Surrealists continues through Joseph Beuys and blossoms in the recent work of Christian Boltanski and Gerhard Richter and tracks his continuing inspiration to artists such as Tacita Dean and Helen Mirra An international roster of artists and scholars unpacks the intricacies of his unique method Seventeen theoretical essays approach Sebald through the multiple filters of art history Krauss film studies Kluge cultural theory Benjamin psychoanalysis Freud and especially photographic history and theory Barthes Kracauer and 17 modern and contemporary art projects are read through a Sebaldian filter If Sebald's artistic output acts as a touchstone for new critical theory being written on post medium photographic practices Searching for Sebald suggests a model for new investigations in the burgeoning field of visual studies

The Poetics of Cruising Jack Parlett, 2022-02-15 A groundbreaking new history of urban cruising through the lenses of urban poets The Poetics of Cruising explores the relationship between cruising photography and the visual in the work of leading poets from Walt Whitman in the nineteenth century to Eileen Myles in the twenty first What is it that happens asks Jack Parlett and what is it that is sought in this often transient moment of perception we call cruising this perceptual arena where acts of looking between strangers are intensified and eroticized Parlett believes that this moment is not only optical in nature but visual a mode of looking that warrants comparison with the ways in which we behold still and moving images Whether it's Whitman's fixation with daguerreotypes Langston Hughes's hybrid photographic works or Frank O'Hara's love of Hollywood movie stars argues Parlett the history of poets cruising abounds with this intermingling between the verbal and the visual the passing and the fixed To look at someone in the act of cruising this history suggests is to capture consider and aestheticize amid the flux and instantaneity of urban time But it is also to reveal the ambivalence at the heart of this erotic search where power may be unevenly distributed across glances and gendered and racialized bodies are marked Thus in identifying for the first time this confluence of cruising poetry and visual culture Parlett concludes that the visual erotic economy associated with gay cruising today exemplified by the photographic grid of an app like Grindr is not a uniquely contemporary phenomenon Innovative astute and highly readable and drawing on compelling archival material The Poetics of Cruising is a must for scholars of queer and LGBTQ literature and culture modern and contemporary poetry visual studies and the history of sexuality

The Necropastoral Joyelle McSweeney, 2015 An exploration of poetry as an expression of biology

Seeing Out Loud Jerry Saltz, 2003 Literary Nonfiction Art In SEEING OUT LOUD Saltz critically engages with notable works of art by over 100 notable artists ranging from Picasso Matisse and Warhol to Matthew Barney Gerhard Richter and Chris Ofili These reviews appeared in the Village Voice between November 1998 and winter 2003 Jerry Saltz is the best informed and hair trigger liveliest of contemporary art critics tracking pleasure and jump starting intelligence on the fly Jerry's fast takes usually stand up better in retrospect than other people's long views Peter Schjedaahl Jerry Saltz looks at art from the perspective of the viewer the ignorant the lover and the enemy His writing is overwhelmingly passionate yet without sentimentality His words pierce the content and beauty of each work of art to test its endurance in time and memory Francesco Bonami Curator 2003 Venice Biennale

In the Shadow of the American Dream David Wojnarowicz, 1999 Few artists in the late twentieth century have captured the emotional sexual and political chaos of urban life like David Wojnarowicz In the Shadow of the American Dream chronicles Wojnarowicz's life from age seventeen until his AIDS related death at thirty seven and draws on his experiences at the margins of American society After his HIV diagnosis Wojnarowicz engaged in highly public debates about health care homophobia and censorship creating deeply political art even as he became a target for the right wing

The Lonely City Olivia Laing, 2016-03 There is a particular flavor to the loneliness that comes from living in a city surrounded by thousands of strangers This roving cultural history of urban loneliness centers on the ultimate city Manhattan that teeming island of gneiss concrete and glass How do we connect with other people particularly if our sexuality or physical body is considered deviant or damaged Does technology draw us closer together or trap us behind screens Laing travels deep into the work and lives of some of the century's most original artists in a celebration of the state of loneliness

Queer Imaginings David A. Gerstner, 2023-03-21 Discovering the queer auteur and their seductive cinematic delights and possibilities How do we identify the queer auteur and their queer imaginings Is it possible to account for such a figure when the very terms queer and auteur invoke aesthetic surprises and disorientations disconcerting ironies and paradoxes and biographical deceits and ambiguities In eighteen eloquent chapters David A Gerstner traces a history of ideas that spotlight an ever shifting terrain associated with auteur theory and in particular queer auteur theory Engaging with the likes of Oscar Wilde Walter Benjamin James Baldwin Jean Louis Baudry Linda Nochlin Jane Gallop C el Keegan Luce Irigaray and other prominent critical thinkers Gerstner contemplates how the queer auteur in film theory might open us to the work of desire Queer Imaginings argues for a queer auteur in which critical theory is reenabled to reconceptualize the auteur in relation to race gender sexuality and desire Gerstner succinctly defines the contours of a history and the ongoing discussions that situate queer and auteur theories in film studies Ultimately Queer Imaginings is a journey in shared pleasures in which writing for and about cinema makes way for unanticipated cinematic friendships Gay Guerrilla Renée Levine Packer, Mary Jane Leach, 2015 A compelling portrait of composer performer Julius Eastman s enigmatic and intriguing life and music Composer performer Julius Eastman 1940 90 was an enigma both comfortable and uncomfortable in the many worlds he inhabited black white gay straight classical music disco academia and downtown New York His music insistent and straightforward resists labels and seethes with a tension that resonates with musicians scholars and audiences today Eastman s provocative titles including Gay Guerrilla Evil Nigger Crazy Nigger and others assault us with his obsessions Eastman tested limits with his political aggressiveness as reflected in legendary scandals like his June 1975 performance of John Cage s Song Books which featured homoerotic interjections and the uproar over his titles at Northwestern University These episodes are examples of Eastman s persistence in pushing the limits of the acceptable in the highly charged arenas of sexual and civil rights In addition to analyses of Eastman s music the essays in Gay Guerrilla provide background on his remarkable life history and the era s social landscape The book presents an authentic portrait of a notable American artist that is compelling reading for the general reader as well as scholars interested in twentieth century American music American studies gay rights and civil rights This Life of Sounds Evenings for New Music in Buffalo received an ASCAP Deems Taylor Award for excellence Mary Jane Leach is a composer and freelance writer currently writing music and theatre criticism for the Albany Times Union Art/Basel/Miami Beach , 2004 Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Photography Ingham, Mark Bruce Nigel, Milic, Nela, Kantas, Vasileios, Andersdotter, Sara, Lowe, Paul, 2023-02-17 Autobiographical memory and photography have been inextricably linked since the first photographs appeared during the 19th century These links have often been described from each other s discipline in ways that often have led to misunderstandings about the complex relationships between them The Handbook of Research on the Relationship Between Autobiographical Memory and Photography covers many aspects of the multiple relationships between autobiographical memory and photography such as the idea that memory and photography can be seen as forms of mental time and the effect photography has on autobiographical memory Covering key topics such as identity trauma and remembrance this major reference work is ideal for industry professionals sociologists psychologists artists researchers scholars academicians practitioners educators and students      The Dark End of the Street Maria Damon,1993      Cruising the Dead River Fiona Anderson,2019-10-14 In the 1970s Manhattan s west side waterfront was a forgotten zone of abandoned warehouses and piers Though many saw only blight the derelict neighborhood was alive with queer people forging new intimacies through cruising Alongside the piers sexual and social worlds artists produced work attesting to the radical transformations taking place in New York Artist and writer David Wojnarowicz was right in the heart of it documenting his experiences in journal entries poems photographs films and large scale site specific projects In Cruising the Dead River Fiona Anderson draws on Wojnarowicz s work to explore the key role the abandoned landscape played in this explosion of queer culture Anderson examines how the riverfront s ruined buildings assumed a powerful erotic role and gave the area a distinct identity By telling the story of the piers as gentrification swept New York and before the AIDS crisis Anderson unearths the buried histories of violence regeneration and LGBTQ activism that developed in and around the cruising scene
